The Muse Learns to Write Eric A. Havelock, 19?? The Muse Learns to Write Eric Alfred Havelock, 1986-01-01 174051 The Muse Learns to Write Eric Alfred Havelock, 1986 174051 The Text and the Voice Alessandro Portelli, 1994-01-05 The Text and the Voice Sources of Hermeneutics Jean Grondin, 1995-01-01 This book provides an introduction to the historical sources of philosophical hermeneutics as it has come to fruition in the work of Heidegger and Gadamer Plato the Myth Maker Luc Brisson, 2000-12-15 We think of myth as a fictional story and Plato was the first to use the term muthos in that sense But Plato also used muthos to describe the practice of making and telling stories the oral transmission of all that a community keeps in its collective memory In the first part of Plato the Myth Maker Luc Brisson reconstructs Plato's multifaceted and not uncritical description of muthos in light of the latter's famous Atlantis story The second part of the book contrasts this sense of myth as Plato does with another form of speech that he believed was far superior the logos of philosophy Appearing for the first time in English Plato the Myth Maker is a solid and important contribution to the history of myth based on the privileged testimony of one of its most influential critics and supporters

How Russia Learned to Write Irina Reyfman, 2016-08-23 How the status of Russian writers as members of the nobility and their careers in service to the imperial state shaped the course of Russian literature from Sumarokov and Derzhavin through Pushkin Gogol and Dostoevsky The Spell of the Sensuous David Abram, 2012-10-17 Winner of the International Lannan Literary Award for Nonfiction Animal tracks word magic the speech of stones the power of letters and the taste of the wind all figure prominently in this intellectual tour de force that returns us to our senses and to the sensuous terrain that sustains us This major work of ecological philosophy startles the senses out of habitual ways of perception For a thousand generations human beings viewed themselves as part of the wider community of nature and they carried on active relationships not only with other people with other animals plants and natural objects including mountains rivers winds and weather patterns that we have only lately come to think of as inanimate How then did humans come to sever their ancient reciprocity with the natural world What will it take for us to recover a sustaining relation with the breathing earth In The Spell of the Sensuous David Abram draws on sources as diverse as the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Balinese shamanism Apache storytelling and his own experience as an accomplished sleight of hand of magician to reveal the subtle dependence of human cognition on the natural environment He explores the character of perception and excavates the sensual foundations of language which even at its most abstract echoes the calls and cries of the earth On every page of this lyrical work Abram weaves his arguments with a passion a precision and an intellectual daring that recall such writers as Loren Eiseley Annie Dillard and Barry Lopez Attack of the Difficult Poems Charles Bernstein, 2011-04-15 Charles Bernstein is our postmodern jester of American poesy equal part surveyor of democratic vistas and scholar of avant garde sensibilities In a career spanning thirty five years and forty books he has challenged and provoked us with writing that is decidedly unafraid of the tensions between ordinary and poetic language and between everyday life and its adversaries Attack of the Difficult Poems his latest collection of essays gathers some of his most memorably irreverent work while addressing seriously and comprehensively the state of contemporary humanities the teaching of unconventional forms fresh approaches to translation the history of language media and the connections between poetry and visual art Applying an array of essayistic styles Attack of the Difficult Poems ardently engages with the promise of its title Bernstein introduces his key theme of the difficulty of poems and defends often in comedic ways not just difficult poetry but poetry itself Bernstein never loses his ingenious ability to argue or his consummate attention to detail Along the way he offers a wide ranging critique of literature's place in the academy taking on the vexed role of innovation and approaching it from the perspective of both teacher and practitioner From blues artists to Tin Pan Alley song lyricists to Second Wave modernist poets The Attack of the Difficult Poems sounds both a battle cry and a lament for the task of the language maker and the fate of invention

Rhetoric and Irony C. Jan Swearingen, 1991 This pathbreaking study integrates the histories of rhetoric literacy and literary aesthetics up to the time of Augustine focusing on Western concepts of rhetoric as dissembling and of language as deceptive that Swearingen argues have received curiously prominent emphasis in Western aesthetics and language theory Swearingen reverses the traditional focus on rhetoric as an oral agonistic genre and examines it instead as a paradigm for literate discourse She proposes that rhetoric and literacy have in the West disseminated the interrelated notions that through learning rhetoric individuals can learn to manipulate language and others that language is an unreliable manipulable and contingent vehicle of thought meaning and communication and that literature is a body of pretty lies and beguiling fictions In a bold concluding chapter Swearingen aligns her thesis concerning early Western literacy and rhetoric with contemporary critical and rhetorical theory with feminist studies in language psychology and culture and with studies of literacy in multi and cross cultural settings

Embedded Thinking Zsuzsanna Kondor, 2008 The new devices of communication that have recently been emerging have far reaching effects not only on our everyday lives but also on our cognitive patterns they lead us back again into the world of multimodality and call attention not incidentally to the widening gap between everyday experience and the traditional convictions of philosophy Traditional philosophical inquiries are seen in a new light when viewed from the perspective of communications technology From that perspective it becomes clear that a radical turn has become inevitable in the field of metaphysics and epistemology This volume attempts to provide building blocks for the new edifice of philosophy towards which that turn is leading

The Poetics of Islamic Legitimacy Suzanne Pinckney Stetkevych, 2002-10-17 transcends the realm of literature and poetic criticism to include virtually every field of Arabic and Islamic studies Roger Allen Throughout the classical Arabic literary tradition from its roots in pre Islamic Arabia until the end of the Golden Age in the 10th century the courtly ode or qasida dominated other poetic forms In The Poetics of Islamic Legitimacy Suzanne Stetkevych explores how this poetry relates to ceremony and political authority and how the classical

Arabic ode encoded and promoted a myth and ideology of legitimate Arabo Islamic rule Beginning with praise poems to pre Islamic Arab kings Stetkevych takes up poetry in praise of the Prophet Mohammed and odes addressed to Arabo Islamic rulers She explores the rich tradition of Arabic praise poems in light of ancient Near Eastern rites and ceremonies gender and political culture Stetkevych s superb English translations capture the immediacy and vitality of classical Arabic poetry while opening up a multifaceted literary tradition for readers everywhere

Innovation and Visualization Amy Ione,2005 Amy Ione s Innovation and Visualization is the first in detail account that relates the development of visual images to innovations in art communication scientific research and technological advance Integrated case studies allow Ione to put aside C P Snow s two culture framework in favor of cross disciplinary examples that refute the science humanities dichotomy The themes which range from cognitive science to illuminated manuscripts and media studies will appeal to specialists artists art historians cognitive scientists etc interested in comparing our image saturated culture with the environments of earlier eras The scope of the examples will appeal to the generalist

The Marvelous Clouds John Durham Peters,2015-06-19 An ambitious re writing a re synthesis even of concepts of media and culture It is nothing less than an attempt at a history of Being Los Angeles Review of Books When we speak of clouds these days it is as likely that we mean data clouds or network clouds as cumulus or stratus In their sharing of the term both kinds of clouds reveal an essential truth that the natural world and the technological world are not so distinct In The Marvelous Clouds John Durham Peters argues that though we often think of media as environments the reverse is just as true environments are media Peters defines media expansively as elements that compose the human world Drawing from ideas implicit in media philosophy Peters argues that media are more than carriers of messages they are the very infrastructures combining nature and culture that allow human life to thrive Through an encyclopedic array of examples from the oceans to the skies The Marvelous Clouds reveals the long prehistory of so called new media Digital media Peters argues are an extension of early practices tied to the establishment of civilization such as mastering fire building calendars reading the stars creating language and establishing religions New media do not take us into uncharted waters but rather confront us with the deepest and oldest questions of society and ecology how to manage the relations people have with themselves others and the natural world A wide ranging meditation on the many means we have employed to cope with the struggles of existence from navigation to farming meteorology to Google The Marvelous Clouds shows how media lie at the very heart of our interactions with the world around us

The Inner Voice in Gadamer's Hermeneutics Andrew Fuyarchuk,2017-07-15 The inner word in Gadamer s hermeneutics refers to the meaning that exceeds anything explicitly said This explanation has been subsumed within metaphysical and theological parameters of interpretation with little regard for the implication of Gadamer s turn to the living language for understanding the inner word Through examining his phenomenology of the inner word The Inner Voice in Gadamer s Hermeneutics reveals its musical rhythmic and tonal dimensions and how they function to harmonize disparate orientations in the middle voice above all for Gadamer those that underlie modes of cognition in both the humanities and the sciences a visual and auditory ethos However understood as constituting the music of language discernible in the middle voice the inner word is also suppressed or forgotten by the technological extension of sight that is print and thus requires a turn of the inner ear or auditory disposition Andrew Fuyarchuk assesses theories of language in evolutionary and cognitive science in light of Gadamer s insights into the nature of thought and he employs them to account for a dimension of language that is inscribed in the lingual minds of our species When recalled by the inner ear this dimension enables us to think such opposites together as we find in the humanities and sciences together This thinking together is expressed in a double account of an object of inquiry such as the one Fuyarchuk puts forward about the inner word in Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics Exploring Earthiness Anne Primavesi,2013-07-17 If we see ourselves as Earth rather than Earth as existing for us our perspective is transformed A variety of religious philosophical cultural and political self perceptions that dominate our sense of human identity are deeply challenged by this shift in perspective John Locke s doctrine of Earth as human property has been central to current presuppositions about our selves justified on the grounds of our possessing unique divinely bestowed rational abilities But today the effects of that doctrine on Earth s resource base and on its other than human creatures directly challenge such assumptions At the same time contemporary scientific findings about the evolution of earthly life demonstrate that while we belong to Earth and nowhere else Earth does not belong to us Exploring this role reversal raises fundamental questions about current theological philosophical scientific and economic presuppositions that underpin the business as usual viewpoint and human centered aims of contemporary policies and lifestyles It takes us beyond hierarchical Christian and philosophical doctrines toward a deeper Earth focused and peace based understanding of what it means to be human today Transition, Reception and Modernism R. Greaves,2001-12-17 In this study of Yeats poetry between 1902 and 1916 Greaves strongly reacts to the tendency in literary criticism to categorize Yeats work as modernist Instead Greaves offer a different way of looking at the transition in Yeats work in this period by examining the poems in the context of Yeats life As a result the figure of Yeats the poet is resurrected from the exhaustive category of modernism and the complex connections between the figure of Yeats within the poems and its relationship with the Yeats who exists outside them is revealed Classical Arabic Verse Dimitry Frolov,2021-10-01 Offering a vast panorama of the history of Arabic verse in its relation to Semitic verse this work follows stages of its evolution from parallelistic pattern to the emergence of the three basic rhythms and then of the unique system of Ar It proposes a new interpretation of the original Arabic metrical theory including the famous circles of Khal as a kind of generative device and traces its relation to the grammatical and lexicographical theories of al Khal l ibn A mad The monograph provides the largest so far statistical data of the metrical repertory of Classical Arabic poetry puts forward a hypothesis about the existence of the archaic Hiran metrical school side by side with the Bedouin school and describes main metrical types of Arabic poetry Bedouin ran Abbasid Classical Andalusian

Voicing the Word Marina Spunta, 2004 Drawing on the recent renewal of interest in the debate on orality and literacy this book investigates the varying perceptions and representations of orality in contemporary Italian fiction providing a fresh perspective on this rich and fast developing debate and on the study of the Italian literary language The book brings together a number of complementary approaches to orality from the fields of linguistics literary and media studies and offers a detailed analysis of a broad variety of authors and texts that appeared over the last three decades ranging from internationally acclaimed writers such as Celati Duranti and Tabucchi through De Luca and Baricco to the latest generation of writers such as Campo Ballestra and Nove By exploring the complementary facets of Italian orality and its diachronical developments since the seventies this study questions the traditionally dichotomic approach to the study of orality and literacy and posits a more flexible cross modal approach that accounts for the increasing hybridisation of text forms and media and for the greater interaction between the spoken and the written as well as their representations Foundations of Christian Music Edward Foley, 2020-07-09 In the study of Christian liturgical music the first three centuries of the Christian era are foundational Seldom however does this period receive serious attention from scholars One of the reasons for this oversight is the fluid auditory environment of this period and the inadequacy of the Western concept of music to describe this environment Foundations of Christian Music addresses this lacuna by exploring the auditory environment of first century CE Judaism and emerging Christianity until the time of Constantine d 337 Through a consideration of the text styles forms performance and settings of Jewish and early Christian worship Foundations offers an unusually rich perspective on the lyrical nature of emerging Christian worship
