Star Woman:

Star Woman Lynn V. Andrews, 2024-03-12 Following Lynn V Andrews on the continuation of her life's journey to embrace her sacred feminine power Star Woman the fourth book in the internationally bestselling Medicine Woman series will inspire you to face your fears recognize your shadow self and embrace the power of the stars inherent within A little more than a decade has passed since Lynn Andrews first became initiated into the Sisterhood of the Shields a secret circle of woman shamans from all over the world but her journey into the depths of her own power has seemingly just begun Serving as a bridge between primal ancient knowledge and modern consciousness Lynn must embrace the dark side of her own spirit and follow the west wind tapping into the innate extraordinary powers that exist within us all Upon visiting a man claiming to have bred a magical horse Lynn meets the spectacular white stallion Arion But obsessed with power the horse breeder deceives Lynn poisoning and kidnapping her for the evil shaman Red Dog who longs to finally destroy her In a blaze of light and glory Arion and Lynn escape starting her vision quest into the depths of her soul When she awakens she meets a new teacher of the Sisterhood Twin Dreamers a nomadic shape shifting shaman woman who together with Agnes Whistling Elk and Ruby Plenty Chiefs guide Lynn in the unraveling of the barriers of her consciousness her self imposed limitations and her deepest fears

Spider Woman's Web Susan Hazen-Hammond, 1999-11-01 In the Americas the oral tradition has created one of the oldest surviving bodies of literature on earth Native American storytelling in particular stands out for its distinctive honoring of womanly power and the female forces of the universe Gathered here are traditional versions of stories and songs that best portray this strength and vitality Illuminating the scope of human behavior from treacherous mates and medicine men to magical sages and murderous mothers these tales offer universal truths And for readers who wish to explore the transformative healing gifts of these stories in a more personal way each is accompanied by thought provoking exercises and meditations Also included are brief introductions to provide historical and cultural context Entertaining educational and inspirational this collection of timeless wisdom will shed light on the lives of readers for generations to come

The Star Woman H. Bedford-Jones, 2025-03-02 In The Star Woman H Bedford Jones delves into the realms of speculative fiction and adventure weaving a narrative rich in imaginative settings and complex characters The story unfolds in a blend of early 20th century romance and science fiction capturing the essence of the era's fascination with the unknown the stars and the mystical Bedford Jones employs a vivid and evocative literary style crafting scenes that transport readers to both earthly and celestial realms underpinned by themes of love exploration and the intersection of humanity with the cosmos This work forms part of the larger tapestry of early sci fi narratives reflecting contemporary anxieties and aspirations in a rapidly modernizing world H Bedford Jones known as the King of the Pulps was a prolific writer whose wide ranging career underscores his explorative spirit Drawing upon personal experiences and historical contexts he infused his stories with a sense of adventure and authenticity His deep interest in mythology and the metaphysical often permeated his writings enabling him to craft tales that resonate with both nostalgia and innovation The influences of his travels and scholarly pursuits can be observed in the fantastical yet plausible universe he builds in The Star Woman I highly recommend The Star Woman to readers who appreciate the fusion of romance and science fiction and who seek to explore the intricate connections between love and the cosmos Bedford Jones masterful storytelling invites readers into a world where the extraordinary becomes accessible encouraging a reflection on the depth of human desires set against the backdrop of the infinite universe

The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner, 2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman's film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman's film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman's film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion's Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013

"Elizabeth Robins Pennell, Nineteenth-Century Pioneer of Modern Art Criticism" KimberlyMorse Jones, 2017-07-05 Mining various archives and newspaper repositories Elizabeth Robins Pennell Nineteenth Century Pioneer of Modern Art Criticism provides the first full length study of a remarkable woman and heretofore neglected art critic Pennell a prolific New Art Critic helped formulate and develop formalist methodology in Britain at the end of the nineteenth century which she applied to her mostly anonymous or pseudonymous reviews published in numerous American and British newspapers and periodicals between 1883 and 1923 A bibliography of her art criticism is included as an appendix In addition to advocating an advanced way in which to view art Pennell used her platform to promote the work of new artists including J.M.W. Manet and Edgar Degas which had only recently been introduced to British audiences In particular Pennell championed the work of James McNeill Whistler for whom she along with her husband the artist Joseph Pennell wrote a biography Examination of her contributions to the late Victorian art world also highlights the pivotal role of criticism in the production and consumption of art in general a point which is often ignored

gender race class and ableism as they migrate to the extraterrestrial whilst drawing new connections between feminist thought and extraterrestrial power structures Space Feminisms makes a radical enquiry into how earthly power structures are already expanding into our skies facilitating a collaborative and interdisciplinary platform for scholars artists and designers to imagine radical constructions of human futures beyond Earth At the intersection of scientific cultural social and artistic speculations the book gathers leading scholars scientists artists and designers to develop innovative tactics and disruptive participations to create generative alternative and radical futures of and in space

The Raw and the Cooked Claude Lévi-Strauss, 1983-03-15 In anthropological terms the concept of the raw versus the cooked has long been associated with the dichotomy between the natural world and the world of human culture In a broad based empirical study of native mythologies Claude Lévi-Strauss proposes a structural and thematic link between the opposition of the raw and the cooked in mythological thought and man's attempt to establish a balanced relationship between natural and cultural forces Lévi-Strauss postulates that the raw-cooked axis is characteristic of all human culture with elements falling along the raw side of the axis being those of natural origin and those on the cooked side being of cultural origin i.e. products of human creation Symbolically cooking marks the transition from nature to culture by means of which the human state can be defined in accordance with all its attributes In mythological thought the cooking of food is in effect a form of mediation between nature and society between life and death and between heaven and earth The cook in turn can be viewed as a cultural agent whose function is to mediate the conjunction of the raw product and the human consumer the operation of which has the effect of making sure the natural is at once cooked and socialized

Starf*cker: The Catastrophic Conjunction of Venus and Mars, Woman and Temperance Frances E. Willard, 1883 Plant Kin Theresa L. Miller, 2019-05-14 The Indigenous Canela inhabit a vibrant multispecies community of nearly 3 000 people and over 300 types of cultivated and wild plants living together in Maranhão State in the Brazilian Cerrado savannah a biome threatened with deforestation and climate change In the face of these environmental threats Canela women and men work to maintain riverbank and forest gardens and care for their growing crops whom they consider to be literally children This nurturing loving relationship between people and plants which offers a thought provoking model for supporting multispecies survival and well being throughout the world is the focus of Plant Kin Theresa L. Miller shows how kinship develops between Canela people and plants through intimate multi-sensory and embodied relationships Using an approach she calls sensory ethnobotany Miller explores the Canela bio-sociocultural life world including Canela landscape aesthetics ethnobotanical classification mythical storytelling historical and modern day gardening practices transmission of ecological knowledge through an education of affection for plant kin shamanic engagements with plant friends and lovers and myriad other human nonhuman experiences This multispecies ethnography reveals the transformations of Canela human environment and human plant engagements over the past two centuries and envisions possible futures for this Indigenous multispecies community as it reckons with the rapid
