Stars At Noon:

The Stars at Noon Denis Johnson, 2023-06-06 A literary thriller and love story set during the Nicaraguan revolution from the National Book Award winner and two time Pulitzer Prize finalist Now the basis for a major motion picture Set in Nicaragua in 1984 The Stars at Noon is a story of passion fear and betrayal told in the voice of an American woman whose mission in Central America is as shadowy as her surroundings Is she a reporter for an American magazine as she sometimes claims or a contact person for the anti war group Eyes of Peace And who is the rough English businessman she begins an affair with The two foreigners become entangled in sinister plots and ever widening webs of corruption until a desperate attempt to escape the country brings their relationship to a crisis point With his customary narrative brilliance award winning writer Denis Johnson brings a hellish landscape of moral ambiguity vividly to life Right Stuff, Wrong Sex

Margaret A. Weitekamp, 2004 space program and the rise of the women s movement in America Jacqueline Cochran

Rhonda Smith-Daugherty, 2015-03-10 Although Amelia Earhart remains the best known female pilot of the 1930s Jacqueline Cochran stood as the more important aviation pioneer and America s top woman pilot Among her many accomplishments Cochran was the first female aviator to win the Bendix Air Race to fly a bomber to break the speed of sound and to participate in astronaut training This revealing biography explores Cochran s childhood in an impoverished Florida mill town her early career as a pilot and her role in creating and leading the WASPs during World War II It also chronicles her postwar exploits including her participation in the NASA space program her unsuccessful 1956 bid for Congress and her surprising reluctance to crusade for the advancement of women This detailed profile removing Cochran from Earhart s shadow firmly establishes the aviatrix as a pivotal figure in the history of women in aviation and in war Fighting for Space

Amy Shira Teitel, 2020-02-18 Spaceflight historian Amy Shira Teitel tells the riveting story of the female pilots who each dreamed of being the first American woman in space When the space age dawned in the late 1950s Jackie Cochran held more propeller and jet flying records than any pilot of the twentieth century man or woman She had led the Women s Auxiliary Service Pilots during the Second World War was the first woman to break the sound barrier ran her own luxury cosmetics company and counted multiple presidents among her personal friends She was more qualified than any woman in the world to make the leap from atmosphere to orbit Yet it was Jerrie Cobb twenty five years Jackie s junior and a record holding pilot in her own right who finagled her way into taking the same medical tests as the Mercury astronauts The prospect of flying in space quickly became her obsession While the American and international media spun the shocking story of a woman astronaut program Jackie and Jerrie struggled to gain control of the narrative each hoping to turn the rumored program into their own ideal reality an issue that ultimately went all the way to Congress This dual biography of audacious trailblazers Jackie Cochran and Jerrie Cobb presents these fascinating and fearless women in all their glory and grit using their stories as guides through the shifting social political and technical landscape of the time The Stars at Noon Jacqueline
