

RESOURCE GUIDE: STARTING AND OPERATING A CHILD CARE BUSINESS

Child care can be an exciting and rewarding field. It provides a wonderful opportunity to have an impact on the lives of children and their families. Regardless of one's individual motivation for entering the early and school-age care field, starting and operating a child care business is both a personal and a business decision.

As is true for all small-business owners, prospective child care providers must take the right steps to ensure that their business is profitable and sustainable. Child care providers must abide by federal, state and local regulations and standards, and they must ensure they have a healthy and safe environment for children. In addition to attending to children's basic needs, providers play an important role in children's development through the provision of activities that stimulate physical, emotional, intellectual, and social growth.

This resource guide presents some basic steps to consider as you plan to start and operate a child care business. The information is comprehensive and is not intended to be all inclusive. Additional resources are provided to help you explore child care as a business opportunity. Child care steps may be different for your specific type of business, depending on what requirements and regulations apply.

The following information and selected resources listed in starting and operating a center-based or family child care (FCC) business, information is divided into the following sections:
