Poland United States. Office of Geography, 1955 Building Networks: Exchange of Knowledge, Ideas and Materials in Medieval and Post-Medieval Europe Jeroen Bouwmeester, Laura Patrick, Duncan Berryman, 2024-02-19 This book aims to explore different aspects of networks in relation to the archaeology of buildings It is divided into three major themes the trade in materials the exchange of knowledge of techniques and or materials and the exchange of style Within each of these themes two primary aspects are addressed notably who were the actors and how did the network function In medieval and post medieval Europe the development of buildings of style and the use of material cannot be understood from a local regional or even national perspective Not only were the borders different than in modern day Europe but the contacts of inhabitants also transcended local and regional boundaries This volume describes the continuous exchange of aesthetic ideals technological developments and building materials during this period This volume is a culmination of four years of sessions held at the European Archaeology Association EAA conference between 2016 2020 on the topic It is of interest to archaeologists architects and scholars of built heritage Gazetteer of Poland , 1988 The Archaeology of the Prussian Crusade Aleksander Pluskowski, 2022-06-28 The Archaeology of the Prussian Crusade explores the archaeology and material culture of the crusades against the Prussian tribes in the 13th century and the resulting society created by the Teutonic Order which endured into the 16th century It provides an updated synthesis of the material culture of this unique hybrid society in the south eastern Baltic region encompassing the full range of archaeological data from standing buildings through to artefacts and ecofacts integrated with written and artistic sources The work is sub divided into broadly chronological themes beginning with a historical outline then exploring the settlements castles towns and landscapes of the Teutonic Order s theocratic state the character and tempo of religious transformation and concluding with the roles of the reconstructed and ruined monuments of medieval Prussia in the modern world particularly within the context of Polish culture This remains the first work on the archaeology of medieval Prussia in any language and is intended as a comprehensive introduction to a period and area of growing interest This book represents an important contribution to promoting International awareness of the cultural heritage of the Baltic region which has been rapidly increasing over the last few decades The Dance of Death in Late Medieval and Renaissance Europe Andrea Kiss, Kathleen Pribyl, 2019-11-26 This volume investigates environmental and political crises that occurred in Europe during the late Middle Ages and the early Modern Period and considers their effects on people s lives At this time the fragile human existence was imagined as a Dance of Death where anyone regardless of social status or age could perish unexpectedly This book covers events ranging from cooling temperatures and the onset of the Little Ice Age to the frequent occurrence of epidemic disease pest infestations food shortages and famines Covering the mid fourteenth to mid seventeenth centuries this collection of essays considers a range of countries between Iceland to the north Italy to the south France to the west and the westernmost parts of Russia to the east This wide reaching volume considers how deeply climate variability and changes affected and changed society in the late medieval to early modern period and asks what factors other than climate interfered in the development of environmental stress and socio economic crises This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Environmental and Climate History Environmental Humanities Medieval and Early Modern History and Historical Geography as well as Climate Change and Environmental Sciences Evolution of the Vistula River Valley During the Last 15000 Years Leszek Starkel,1982 Beiträge zur Geschichte der polnischen Revolution im Jahre 1794.
