VanGemen, 2010-06-01 The diversity of prophetic voices in the Bible provides a message that is rich and variegated But the variety of the testimony can be lost by limiting one's interpretations or application of the prophetic word Interpreting the Prophetic Word helps readers understand the harmony of the voices that reveal God's purposes in redemptive history Dr Willem VanGemeren explains clearly and fully the background of the prophetic tradition He then interprets the message of the major and minor prophets using historical context and literary form and structure as tools in his analysis He concludes with an explanation of the relevance of the prophetic word today Dr VanGemeren's extensive research and scholarship is presented in a readable way to unlock the door of prophecy for readers He helps them to interpret prophecy and invites them to listen to the prophets and to live the prophetic word

The Lion Has Roared H.G.L. Peels, Stephanus Daniel Snyman, 2012-09-11 Throughout ages the prophetic literature of the Old Testament has always fascinated its readers Up to our modern times the bold prophetic message of doom and salvation continually triggers our imagination At the same time the books of the prophets confront us with many questions as to their aim and theological content challenging us to translate their message in our own actual context The Lion Has Roared an image used by the prophets themselves was written to meet the need for a better understanding of the prophets By taking into account recent trends in current scholarship on the prophetic literature in the Old Testament this book explores the core theological message of each individual prophetic book including the book of Daniel This is done by viewing each book both from a historical and literary perspective A selected bibliography on each prophetic book is also provided to guide the interested reader to further reading This unique volume was written by sixteen Old Testament scholars from Africa America Asia and Europe for use by students of theology and religious studies pastors and preachers and interested lay readers

The Message of Isaiah 40-55 John Goldingay, 2005-12-27 The Message of Isaiah 40 55 traces the argument of Isaiah 40 55 to show how the chapters bring a message of encouragement and challenge about God's intention to restore the Judean community some of whose members are in exile in Babylon others living in the city of Jerusalem that has lain devastated since it fell to the Babylonians in 587 The chapters hold before this community's eyes a vision of the nature of its God as the powerful creator and the loving restorer In the course of following the argument the reader becomes aware that the chapters have to deal with their audience's mysterious resistance to their message It cannot give God the kind of response the message needs and deserves nor can it fulfil the role as God's servant that is designed for it God nevertheless remains committed to it The prophet eventually becomes aware of a distinctive personal calling to embody that response until the people are ready to do so It is the prophet's willingness to do this notwithstanding the suffering it brings that embodies the kind of ministry that needs to be exercised to them so that they may be brought back to God and find a restoration of spirit as well as a physical restoration
