Mary, Bearer of Life Christopher Cocksworth,2023-05-31 Whether through suspicion or ignorance serious consideration of what Mary can teach us has been lacking in large swathes of the church for some time Drawing on careful biblical exegesis church history and ecumenical thinking this book suggests how a serious understanding of Mary might influence our ethical thought and considers some of the key theological tensions at the heart of the church s engagement with Mary

Bible and Poetry in Late Antique Mesopotamia Jeffrey Wickes,2019-09-17 Ephrem the Syrian was one of the founding voices in Syriac literature While he wrote in a variety of genres the bulk of his work took the form of madrashe a Syriac genre of musical poetry or hymns In Bible and Poetry in Late Antique Mesopotamia Jeffrey Wickes offers a thoroughly contextualized study of Ephrem s magnum opus the Hymns on Faith delivered in response to the theological controversies that followed the First Council of Nicaea The ensuing doctrinal divisions had tremendous impact on the course of Christianity and led in part to the development of a uniquely Syriac Church in which Ephrem would become a central figure Drawing on literary ritual and performance theories Bible and Poetry shows how Ephrem used the Syriac Bible to construct and conceive of himself and his audience In so doing Wickes resituates Ephrem in a broader early Christian context and contributes to discussions of literature and religion in late antiquity

Icons in Time, Persons in Eternity C.A. Tsakiridou,2016-05-13 Icons in Time Persons in Eternity presents a critical interdisciplinary examination of contemporary theological and philosophical studies of the Christian image and redefines this within the Orthodox tradition by exploring the ontological and aesthetic implications of Orthodox ascetic and mystical theology It finds Modernist interest in the aesthetic peculiarity of icons significant and essential for re evaluating their relationship to non representational art Drawing on classical Greek art criticism Byzantine ekphraseis and hymnography and the theologies of St Maximus the Confessor St Symeon the New Theologian and St Gregory Palamas the author argues that the ancient Greek concept of enargeia best conveys the expression of theophany and theosis in art The qualities that define enargeia inherent liveliness expressive autonomy and self subsisting form are identified in exemplary Greek and Russian icons and considered in the context of the hesychastic theology that lies at the heart of Orthodox Christianity An Orthodox aesthetics is thus outlined that recognizes the transcendent being of art and is open to dialogue with diverse pictorial and iconographic traditions An examination of Chinese Zen art theory and a comparison of icons with paintings by Wassily Kandinsky Pablo Picasso Mark Rothko and Marc Chagall and by Japanese artists influenced by Zen Buddhism reveal intriguing points of convergence and difference The reader will find in these pages reasons to reconcile Modernism with the Christian image and Orthodox tradition with creative form in art

Poet of the Word: Re-reading Scripture with Ephraem the Syrian Aelred Partridge,2020-11-01 Fairacres Publications 187 Early Christians read the Bible somewhat differently from their modern counterparts For example St Ephraem's layered approach to interpreting Sacred Scripture especially the Old Testament led him to delve below the literal words of the texts to uncover the rich vein of symbolic allusions that lay within them Woven together they formed a tapestry of spiritual wisdom Ephraem transformed this tapestry into vibrant poetry in hymns homilies and biblical commentaries that gesture towards the unfathomable mystery of God revealed in Christ This brief essay examines the principles that guided Ephraem's manner of biblical interpretation his hermeneutics and reveals why he is a Poet of the Word

Creation and Contemplation Julien Decharneux, 2023-06-06 In Creation and Contemplation Julien Decharneux explores the connections between the cosmology of the Qur'an and various cosmological traditions of Late Antiquity with a focus on Syriac Christianity The first part of the book studies how in exhorting its audience to contemplate the world the Qur'an carries on a tradition of natural contemplation that had developed throughout Late Antiquity in the Christian world In this regard the analysis suggests particularly striking connections with the mystical and ascetic literature of the Church of the East which was in effervescence at the time of the emergence of Islam The second part argues that the Qur'anic cosmological discourse is built so as to serve the overarching theological message of the text namely God's absolute unity Despite the allusive and sometimes obscure way in which the Qur'an talks about the world's coming into being and its maintenance in existence the text betrays its authors acquaintance with cosmological debates of Late Antiquity In studying the Qur'an through the prism of Late Antiquity this book contributes to our understanding of the emergence of Islam and its relationship with other religious traditions of the time Winner of the 2022 Marie Antoinette Van Huele Prize and the 2023 Richard Kreglinger Prize both Faculty of Philosophy and Social Sciences Free University of Brussels
