Joycean Exogenesis in the Digital Age, 2016-04-26. New Quotatoes: Joycean Exogenesis in the Digital Age offers fourteen original essays on the genetic dossiers of Joyce's fiction and the ties that bind the literary archive to the transatlantic print sphere of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century. Availing of digital media and tools, online resources, and new forms of access, the contributions delve deeper than ever before into Joyce's programmatic reading for his oeuvre, and they posit connections and textual relations with major and minor literary figures alike never before established. The essays employ a broad range of genetic methodologies, from traditional approaches to intertextuality and allusion to computational methods that plumb Large-scale Digitisation Initiatives like Google Books to the possibilities of databasing for Joyce studies. Contributors: Scarlett Baron, Tim Conley, Luca Crispi, Ronan Crowley, Sarah Davison, Tom De Keyser, Daniel Ferrer, Finn Fordham, Robbert Jan Henkes, John Simpson, Sam Slote, Dirk Van Hulle, Chrissie Van Mierlo, and Wim Van Mierlo. The Congregationalist, 1918. War Diaries, Jean-Paul Sartre, 1999. During the phony war that preceded the invasion of France between late 1939 and the summer of 1940, the young Jean-Paul Sartre was stationed in his native Alsace as part of a meteorological unit. He used his considerable periods of spare time between mundane duties like watching weather balloons to make a series of notes on philosophy, literature, politics, history, and autobiography that anticipate the themes of his later masterpieces and often surpass them in literary verve and directness. These War Diaries form a portrait of Sartre in his most intense and brilliant phase. With them, the twentieth century's most remarkable and public philosopher has provided us with a fitting posthumous monument to his honesty and creativity.
