Frances Richard, 2019-10-07 I Stand in My Place with My Own Day Here features essays by more than fifty renowned international writers who consider thirteen monumental works of art created for The New School between 1930 and the present. The nucleus of The New School's Art Collection, these commissions ranking among the finest site-specific works in New York City range from murals by Jos Clemente Orozco and Thomas Hart Benton to installations by Agnes Denes, Kara Walker, Alfredo Jaar, Glenn Ligon, Sol LeWitt, and Martin Puryear. Michael Van Valkenburgh, among others, providing a kaleidoscopic view into these works. This richly illustrated volume explores each installation through three to four essays written by critics, poets, and scholars from diverse fields including anthropology, mathematics, art history, media studies, and design. Their texts are complemented by three additional essays reflecting on each piece's art historical significance, the architectural contexts in which the works reside on the university's campus, and The New School's relationship to adventurous art practice. Also included is a roundtable discussion among leading arts educators and artists who reflect on the pedagogical potential of a campus-based contemporary art collection. The book's final section presents a history of each commissioned work, highlighted by archival images never before published. Published by The New School, Distributed by Duke University Press.

Legendary scout Cody Hunter returns to the mountains where he lost his family and makes a shocking discovery that will change his life forever. THIS WOLF HUNTS ALONE. His Crow name was Crazy Wolf. Orphaned after losing his family in an Indian attack, young Cody Hunter found a loving home among the Crow people and learned the ancient ways of the Crow trackers. His well-honed skills earned him a place in the U.S. Army as a valued scout. But now, after fifteen years of living his life as Crazy Wolf, Cody is ready to face his painful past. He will return to the place that still gives him nightmares and where the dreams of his father ended in bloodshed. High in the mountains of Montana, Cody finds a stone memorial erected by the survivors of the families slaughtered there. The site of the attack triggers Cody's darkest memories and leads him to a stunning realization: his father and two brothers did not die on that day. They may still be alive. And he will stop at nothing to find them again To follow in their footsteps To track them down on the treacherous journey west A search this deadly may be the craziest thing Crazy Wolf has ever done But he is a born Hunter and he s willing to die that way
