of refusal, with its image-force of the heap of these crosses near the foreground is itself eloquent of the wastage of life, amidst the tangle of warfare. Beyond, towards the figure of Christ in the distance, the crosses are objects of contemplation for the viewer. The message is a warning of the consequences of war.

Stanley Spencervisions From A Berkshire Village:

I Am Dynamite Nigel Rapport, 2004-03-01 Power is conventionally regarded as being held by social institutions We are taught to believe that it is these social structures that determine the environment and circumstances of individual lives In I Am Dynamite the anthropologist Nigel Rapport argues for a different view Focusing on the lives and works of the writer and Auschwitz survivor Primo Levi refugee and engineer Ben Glaser Israeli ceramicist and immigrant Rachel Siblerstein artist Stanley Spencer and philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche he shows how we can have the capacity and inclination to formulate life projects It is in the pursuit of these life projects that is making our life our work that we can avoid the structures of ideology and institution British Culture and the First World War Toby Thacker, 2014-09-25 The First World War has been mythologized since 1918 and many paradigmatic views of it that it was pointless that brave soldiers were needlessly sacrificed are deeply embedded in the British consciousness More than in any other country these collective British memories were influenced by the experiences and the work of writers painters and musicians This book revisits the British experience of the War through the eyes and ears of a diverse group of carefully selected novelists poets composers and painters It examines how they reacted to and portrayed their experiences in the trenches on the Western Front in distant theatres of war and on the home front in words pictures and music that would have a profound influence on subsequent British perceptions of the war Rupert Brooke Vera Brittain Richard Nevinson Paul Nash Edward Elgar and T E Lawrence are amongst the figures discussed in this original exploration of the First World War and British collective memory The book includes illustrations and maps to aid further study and research The Great Flood Edward Platt, 2019-10-31 A BBC Radio 4 Book of the Week Flooding has always threatened the rainy wind swept islands of the United Kingdom but it is becoming more frequent and more severe Combining travel writing and reportage with readings of history literature and myth Edward Platt explores the way floods have shaped the physical landscape of Britain and left their mark on its inhabitants During the course of two years which coincided with the record breaking floods of the winter of 2013 14 Platt travelled around the country visiting places that had flooded and meeting the people affected He visited flooded villages and towns and expanses of marsh and Fen threatened by the winter storms and travelled along the edge of the drowned plain that used to connect Britain to continental Europe He met people struggling to stop their houses falling into the sea and others whose homes had been engulfed He investigated disasters natural and man made and heard about the conflicting attitudes towards those charged with preventing them The Great Flood dramatizes the experience of being flooded and considers what will happen as the planet warms and the waters rise illuminating the reality behind the statistics and headlines that we all too often ignore Distortion and Love Nigel Rapport, 2016-07-07 In this ground breaking book a theory of distortion of the way in which the processes of human life are subject to interference diversion and transformation is developed by way of the art of one of Britain s greatest twentieth century painters and that art s public reception Devoted to his native village of Cookham on

Thames Stanley Spencer painted not only landscapes and portraits with loving detail but also the memory feelings which he felt were a sacred part of his consciousness Yet Spencer was also a controversial public figure with some taking the view that his visionary paintings were ugly distortions of human life even marks of an immoral nature Examining how Spencer lived his vision how he painted it and wrote it and also how his attempts to communicate that vision were received by his contemporaries and have continued to be interpreted since his death the author posits distortion as key an intrinsic aspect both of human creation and of human interaction What we intend to make to say to do and have done often mutates in the process of being expressed or put into effect we live amid distortion Love the affective appreciation of one another is then a means by which we accommodate distortion and its consequences in our lives An illustration through Stanley Spencer's story of significant aspects of a human condition this book will appeal across disciplines including to art historians and students of Spencer's work as well as to scholars of anthropology with interests in creativity perception and interpretation British Artists and the Modernist Landscape Ysanne Holt, 2018-01-12 Title first published in 2003 In this detailed study of the landscapes and rural scenes of Britain and France made by artists like George Clausen Philip Wilson Steer Augustus John Laura Knight J D Fergusson and Spencer Gore Ysanne Holt investigates the imaginary geographies behind the pictures and reconsiders the relationship between national identity Englishness and the native landscape Combining close investigation of important works with a broader enquiry into the appeal of the Mediterranean for an age preoccupied with cultural degeneracy and bodily health Ysanne Holt draws fascinating conclusions about the impact of modernism on the British tradition of landscape painting Spiritual Letters Sister Wendy Beckett, 2013-02-25 Apart from her celebrity status as the art nun generated by her television programmes Sister Wendy has been approached throughout her life for counsel on the spiritual life and the life of prayer Here for the first time are collected some of the finest of her responses in the form of letters kept and treasured by their recipients over the years Sister Wendy herself has written a charming and very personal autobiographical preface in which she sets these letters in their context This little book is a treasure trove of wisdom and sound simple advice Freedom in Practice Moises Lino e Silva, Huon Wardle, 2016-11-25 Freedom is one of the most fiercely contested words in contemporary global experience This book provides an up to date overview from an anthropological perspective of the diverse ways in which freedom is understood and practised in everyday life including the emergent relationships between governance autonomy and liberty The contributors offer a wealth of ethnographic insight from a variety of geographic cultural and political contexts Taken together the essays constitute a radical challenge to assumptions about what freedom means in today's world Steeple Chasing Peter Ross, 2023-05-11 The Sunday Times paperback bestseller and Waterstones Non Fiction Book of the Month Featuring a brand new chapter Never have the joys of exploring the churches and cathedrals of this country been so vividly conveyed as they are in this engaging and elegiac book New Statesman BOOK OF THE YEAR pick 2023 A delicious treat Financial Times TRAVEL BOOK OF THE YEAR pick 2023 A charming odyssey The Times A wonderful book thoughtful and challenging Daily Telegraph A beautiful book Gabriel Byrne Beautiful and brilliant I loved it Fergus Butler Gallie From the author of A Tomb With a View Scottish Non Fiction book of the Year Churches are all around us Their steeples remain landmarks in our towns villages and cities even as their influence and authority has waned They contain art and architectural wonders one huge gallery scattered like a handful of jewels across these isles Award winning writer Peter Ross sets out to tell their stories and through them a story of Britain Join him as he visits the unassuming Norfolk church which contains a disturbing secret and London's mighty cathedrals with their histories of fire and love Meet cats and bats monks and druids angels of oak and steel Steeple Chasing though it sometimes strikes an elegiac note is a song of praise It celebrates churches for their beauty and meaning and for the tales they tell It is about people as much as place flesh and bone not just flint and stone From the painted hells of Surrey to the holy wells of Wales consider this a travel book with bells on Praise for Peter Ross Ross is a wonderfully evocative writer deftly capturing a sense of place and history while bringing a deep humanity to his subject He has written a delightful book The Guardian Fascinating Ross makes a likeably idiosyncratic guide and one finishes the book feeling strangely optimistic about the inevitable The Observer The author's humanity has acted as a beacon of light in the darkness The Sunday Times Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Distortion Nigel Rapport, 2017-08-14 Distortion occurs between the intentions of actions and their outcomes It can also occur between thoughts and actions between words and how they are interpreted between a statement of law and its enactment between a vision and its artistic representation and between a cultural tradition or habitus and its animation in contemporary contexts Escaping the bounds of relationality of structuration and of systemics distortion is a form of complex connectedness that has seldom been addressed in the social sciences as a phenomenon in its own right This volume argues for the key importance of distortion as a concept in the social sciences and attempts to refine it as a concept Each chapter examines distortion in the context of an ethnographic case study examining how its conceptualization can further comprehension of a particular ethnographic situation It is contended that distortion is an account of the emergent or revolutionary nature of human life an emergence that can be attached to particular antecedent conditions in a processual or temporal way yet is a transformation of the essential nature of those conditions

Coming to terms with distortion adds significantly to the social scientific appreciation of human activity and creativity of conscious experience of the nature of social interaction and exchange and of the complexity of social milieu Distortion should be essential reading on advanced undergraduate and postgraduate modules on social theory contemporary issues and methodologies communication sociality materiality and intersectionality Stanley Spencer Kenneth Pople,1996 Spencer is admired for his strange and thrilling settings of biblical and semi biblical scenes his grippingly realist portraits and his intense English landscapes Pople seeks to understand Spencer on his own terms Spencer in the Shipyard Sir Stanley Spencer,Cecil Beaton,1981 Gentleman Rider Alan Bishop,1988 Contemporary Artists Muriel Emanuel,Jean Christophe Ammann,1983 Gwen Raverat Frances Spalding,2010-11-30 The best of these Darwins is that they are cut out of rock three taps is enough to convince one how immense is their solidarity So wrote Virginia Woolf affectionately of Gwen Raverat the granddaughter of Charles Darwin In this first full biography Frances Spalding looks beyond the artist Gwen Raverat s childhood memoir Period Piece and creates a fascinating and moving portrait of Charles Darwin s granddaughter She explores her Darwin inheritance her conflicts when she moves beyond her home environment to enter the Slade School of Art her encounter with post Impressionism and her friendships with Stanley Spencer Rupert Brooke and members of the Bloomsbury set At each stage Gwen s artistic creativity is interwoven with her relationships and circumstances She helps revive the medium of wood engraving and with her husband Jacques Raverat celebrates the South of France in the art they produce while living in Venice Drawing on a huge cache of unpublished papers Spalding brings us a life lived with bravery humour realism and integrity surrounded by a remarkable cast of relatives friends and associates The Encyclopedia of Visual Art ,1983 Catalogues of Sale Sotheby & Co.
