

Morning has not occurred!
That shall aurora be
East of eternity;

One with the banner gay,
One in the red array,—
That is the break of day.

XXXIX.

I SHALL know why, when time is over,
And I have ceased to wonder why;
Christ will explain each separate anguish
In the fair schoolroom of the sky.

He will tell me what Peter promised,
And I, for wonder at his woe,
I shall forget the drop of anguish
That scalds me now, that scalds me now.

XI.

I NEVER lost as much but twice,
And that was in the sod;
Twice have I stood a beggar
Before the door of God!

Angels, twice descending,
Reimbursed my store,
Burglar, banker, father,
I am poor once more!

SECOND SERIES

My nosegays are for captives;
Dim, long-expectant eyes,
Fingers denied the plucking,
Patient till paradise.

To such, if they should whisper
Of morning and the moon,
They hear no other errand,
And I no other prayer.

William Butler Yeats

Star In My Forehead Selected Poems:

Star in My Forehead Else Lasker-Schüler, 2000 A collection of poems by one of the world's great lyric love poets offered in a bilingual edition      The Jewess Pallas Athena Barbara Hahn, 2021-06-08 The Jewess Pallas Athena a line from a poem by Paul Celan It is a provocative phrase cutting across cultures and traditions But it poses questions How to reconstruct a culture that has been destroyed How to conceive of history after the catastrophes of the twentieth century This book begins in the mid eighteenth century with the first Jewish women to raise their voices in German It ends two hundred years later with another group of Jewish women looking back at a country from which they had been expelled and to which they would never want to return Among the many prominent female intellectuals and literary figures Barbara Hahn discusses are Hannah Arendt Gertrud Kantorowicz Rosa Luxemburg Else Lasker Sch ler Margarete Susman and Rahel Levin Varnhagen In examining their writing she reflects upon the question of how German culture was constructed with its inherent patterns of exclusion This is a book about hope and despair possibilities and preventions We see attempts at dialogue between Christians and Jews men and women Germans and Jews attempts initiated by these women that for the most part remained unanswered Finally the book reconstructs the changing notions of the Jewess a key word in modern German history with its connotations of salons beauty and esprit And yet a word that is also disastrous in which there culminated everything the dominant culture condemned as dangerous      Cultures of Modernism Cristanne Miller, 2007 Examines the influences of location on the literary achievements of three modernist women writers      After Every War , 2013-10-31 They are nine women with much in common all German speaking all poets all personal witnesses to the horror and devastation that was World War II Yet in this deeply moving collection each provides a singularly personal glimpse into the effects of war on language place poetry and womanhood After Every War is a book of translations of women poets living in Europe in the decades before and after World War II Rose Ausl nder Elisabeth Langg sser Nelly Sachs Gertrud Kolmar Else Lasker Sch ler Ingeborg Bachmann Marie Luise Kaschnitz Dagmar Nick and Hilde Domin Several of the writers are Jewish and therefore also witnesses and participants in one of the darkest occasions of human cruelty the Holocaust Their poems as well as those of the other writers provide a unique biography of the time but with a difference These poets see public events through the lens of deep private losses They chart the small occasions the bittersweet family ties the fruit dish on a table the lost soul arriving at a railway station in other words the sheer ordinariness through which cataclysm is experienced and by which life is cruelly shattered They reclaim these moments and draw the reader into them The poems are translated and introduced with biographical notes on the authors by renowned Irish poet Eavan Boland Her interest in the topic is not abstract As an Irish woman she has observed the heartbreaking effects of violence on her own country Her experience has drawn her closer to these nine poets enabling her to render into English the beautiful ruminative quality of their work and to present their poems for what they are documentaries of resilience of language of music and of the human spirit in the hardest of times      The Torah Dr. Tamara

Cohn Eskenazi, Rabbi Andrea L. Weiss, PhD, 2017-12-04 The groundbreaking volume The Torah A Women's Commentary originally published by URJ Press and Women of Reform Judaism has been awarded the top prize in the oldest Jewish literary award program the 2008 National Jewish Book Awards A work of great import the volume is the result of 14 years of planning research and fundraising THE HISTORY At the 39th Women of Reform Judaism Assembly in San Francisco Cantor Sarah Sager challenged Women of Reform Judaism delegates to imagine women feeling permitted for the first time feeling able feeling legitimate in their study of Torah WRJ accepted that challenge The Torah A Women's Commentary was introduced at the Union for Reform Judaism 69th Biennial Convention in San Diego in December 2007 WRJ has commissioned the work of the world's leading Jewish female Bible scholars rabbis historians philosophers and archaeologists Their collective efforts resulted in the first comprehensive commentary authored only by women on the Five Books of Moses including individual Torah portions as well as the Hebrew and English translation The Torah A Women's Commentary gives dimension to the women's voices in our tradition Under the skillful leadership of editors Dr Tamara Cohn Eskenazi and Rabbi Andrea Weiss PhD this commentary provides insight and inspiration for all who study Torah men and women Jew and non Jew As Dr Eskenazi has eloquently stated we want to bring the women of the Torah from the shadow into the limelight from their silences into speech from the margins to which they have often been relegated to the center of the page for their sake for our sake and for our children's sake Published by CCAR Press a division of the Central Conference of American Rabbis

The Collected Poems Zbigniew Herbert, 2024-06-11 Herbert s work in twentieth century letters rivals that of W H Auden or Elizabeth Bishop in its originality imaginative breadth and humane vigilance The Washington Post A New York Times Notable Book of the Year This outstanding new translation brings a uniformity of voice to Zbigniew Herbert s entire poetic output from his first book of poems String of Light in 1956 to his final volume previously unpublished in English Epilogue of the Storm The Collected Poems 1956 1998 as Joseph Brodsky said of Herbert s Selected Poems is bound for a much longer haul than any of us can anticipate He continues For Zbigniew Herbert s poetry adds to the biography of civilization the sensibility of a man not defeated by the century that has been most thorough most effective in dehumanization of the species Herbert s irony his austere reserve and his compassion the lucidity of his lyricism the intensity of his sentiment toward classical antiquity are not just trappings of a modern poet but the necessary armor in his case well tempered and shining indeed for man not to be crushed by the onslaught of reality By offering to his readers neither aesthetic nor ethical discount this poet in fact saves them from that poverty which every form of human evil finds so congenial As long as the species exists this book will be timely Now nearly ten years after his death Herbert s voice is gathered uncensored and unimaginably strong in one dynamic volume San Francisco Chronicle English readers have cause for celebration The Philadelphia Inquirer Finally the work of this powerful master of twentieth century literature is all in one place Publishers Weekly starred review

The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan Ted Berrigan, 2007-03-21 Comfortably intimate classically adroit in its formal wit and invention altogether unique yet in no way excluding this meticulously edited edition of a master poet s collected works gives us the defining bridge from the New American Poetry of the 50s to that poetry now contemporary on both coasts and in all conditions No one ever recognized the people with whom he lived more particularly than did Ted Berrigan and no one ever brought them home to a reader with such unaggressive and persistent power This is a great great book for all seasons of the mind and heart Robert Creeley Ted Berrigan was a leader of the New York School his crazy energy embodied that movement and the city itself It is wonderful to have his Collected Poems in print John Ashbery A comprehensive and carefully chronicled volume that puts Ted Berrigan in historical context as one of the most influential poets of his generation His poems deft light definitely humorous irreverent poignant marvelous and tough The truth doing its work the great man doing the ordinary thing with a quick ear and a quick tongue revealing the personal in the universal He gives you his full attention about to be born again thinking of you Joanne Kyger In a life devoted to experimental art Ted Berrigan shaped his poetry and the space he occupied with a bold artistry based on his playful but powerfully skeptical view of the world He wondered what might actually be captured within the pages of a book but The Collected Poems allows us to again enjoy Ted Berrigan s delightfully demanding presence Lorenzo Thomas A singular balance of personal historical vision and sentiment both sweet and sour developed within the fractured verbalism of the late twentieth century found lyric creates in Ted Berrigan s poems the unique colors of a particularly lived and still intensely living ensemble of moments Tom Clark author of Late Returns A Memoir of Ted Berrigan Some people are just more real than others I don t know another way to say it Ted Berrigan is totally real and he has fashioned an important sound for all of us to listen to He put it all together just before everyone else in his time our time got going America is lucky to count him as one of its great poets Peter Gizzi      Poets & Writers ,2000      The Collected Poems of W.
