Do You Love Me? Stephen Collins Foster,1850 This Land that I Love John Shaw,2013-11-05 February 1940 After a decade of worldwide depression World War II had begun in Europe and Asia With Germany on the march and Japan at war with China the global crisis was in a crescendo America's top songwriter Irving Berlin had captured the nation's mood a little more than a year before with his patriotic hymn God Bless America Woody Guthrie was having none of it Near starving and penniless he was traveling from Texas to New York to make a new start As he eked his way across the country by bus and by thumb he couldn't avoid Berlin's song Some people say that it was when he was freezing by the side of the road in a Pennsylvania snowstorm that he conceived of a rebuttal It would encompass the dark realities of the Dust Bowl and Great Depression and it would begin with the lines This land is your land this land is my land In This Land That I Love John Shaw writes the dual biography of these beloved American songs Examining the lives of their authors he finds that Guthrie and Berlin had more in common than either could have guessed Though Guthrie's image was defined by train hopping Irving Berlin had also risen from homelessness having worked his way up from the streets of New York At the same time This Land That I Love sheds new light on our patriotic musical heritage from Yankee Doodle and The Star Spangled Banner to Martin Luther King's recitation from My Country 'Tis of Thee on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in August 1963 Delving into the deeper history of war songs minstrelsy ragtime country music folk music and African American spirituals Shaw unearths a rich vein of half forgotten musical traditions With the aid of archival research he uncovers new details about the songs including a never before printed verse for This Land Is Your Land The result is a fascinating narrative that refracts and re-envision's America's tumultuous history through the prism of two unforgettable anthems Obstacles, Miracles & Love Inge Fernbach Rabe,2005-07-13 Inge Fernbach Rabe was born in Germany in 1924 nine years before Adolf Hitler's rise to power Her early childhood years were marked with love laughter and happiness Early in 1933 her innocent and carefree world began to crumble It began slowly with name calling At first she didn't know the meaning of the word Jew Although her grandfather had been Jewish Inge had been raised in a Christian family Under the German laws of the time she was considered half Jewish and therefore racially impure Her family bore the full brunt of Nazi economic sanctions when her Papa s business was ruined Soon she was experiencing the pain of rejection when many of her friends were no longer allowed to play with her and the disappointment of being deprived of educational opportunities Inge and her family endured difficulties that had previously been unthinkable She was sustained through tragic circumstances by her loving mother and a deep faith in God as her Heavenly Father She rejoiced when Allied forces finally liberated the people of Germany and looked forward to building a new life After struggling for ten years in post war Germany she decided to immigrate to the United States Her new adventure began on April 4 1955 As an immigrant she had to master a new language learn new customs earn a living and catch up on her education Although she often found herself in difficult circumstances the kindness of the American people kept her going Years later happily married and with a son and daughter she looked back on her struggles and thanked God for seeing her through to better times Happiness doesn t last forever though Her husband passed away unexpectedly leaving her to care for two young children Once again she would have to rely on faith and determination to survive And once again she would discover that God s blessings do arrive in the midst of hardship Inge is retired now and fills her days with gardening and writing
