

IF A STAR FELL

If a star fell from the sky every time I thought of you the world would be so dark the night a deathly hue

If a leaf fell from a tree every time I wished you near the forest would be bare a winter all the year

If a wave stopped crashing in every time I saw your smile the shore would be so bleak a barren rocky pile

If a song was never sung each time I ached for you the land would be so quiet pleasures would be few

But none of this is so the world keeps turning round and though you're gone from sight by love we're always bound.

The Night the Stars Fell Sally Crum, 2018-06-28 After midnight on November 12 1833 a clear black sky offered a backdrop for one of the most spectacular sights ever recorded That night millions of stars seemed to fall from the sky Was it the end of the world Fifteen color and b w illustrations plus historical images are included with a poetic text

All Power to the Lamb James R. Johnson, 2010-12 Book Summary If you were God writing a book you wanted men to understand would you write it in such a way that men would have to make up meaning in order to understand it or would you write it in such a way that those that seek to understand could actually come to a knowledge of its truth Mt 7 7 The present commentary takes the position that God wrote Revelation in such a way that with sufficient effort and intellectual honesty readers can understand it Certainly there are symbols in Revelation but when God does use symbols He provides inspired interpretations of the symbols This commentary seeks to avoid the mistakes of the views that use the symbolical approach to Revelation preterist continuous historical spiritualist and idealist These approaches suffer from two basic flaws assuming the text is symbolical when it is not and making up meaning regarding the text based on stream of consciousness word association much as one would do looking at Rorschach inkblots This commentary seeks to avoid telling God what He should have said and strives to understand what God actually meant Of all the approaches to understanding Revelation this commentary is most closely aligned with the dispensationalist premillennialist view in that it views Revelation from a literalist futurist perspective It is different from the typical dispensationalist schema in that it views the seven seals as the powers of the Lamb understands the exercise of the powers of the seven seals to be simultaneous processes and casts chapters 8 22 as three parallel prophecies of the Lamb s power over the course of the histories of Israel the nations and the saints This commentary also makes use of many of the non canonical works that provide insight into the spirit world and detail regarding the end of the present age

The Testimony of Jesus: 1907 Biblical Study Notes on the Book of Revelation George N.H. Peters, 2015-10-15 This book contains the author s George N H Peters never before published 1907 study notes on the biblical book of Revelation Mr Peters unique approach to interpretation faithfully adheres to the the plain grammatical sense of scripture By doing so He successfully combines biblical prophecy with oath bound covenants Abrahamic and Davidic to unlock this book s predominant symbolic language Peters correctly identifies Jesus not St John as the real source of this prophecy He clarifies the main subject of the book as being not a Revelation of future events but rather an Apocalypse a personal appearing He further demonstrates through the symbols used that the Day of the Lord or 2nd Advent like the 1st Advent will unfold in distinct stages and over a discernible period of time Therefore although this study is today over 100 years old the reader is instantly confronted through this Testimony by

Jesus the predicted Son of Man righteously administering the judgements of God and proclaiming His physical return to establish His Kingdom on earth The prophetic future series of events laid out strikes the reader as eerily similar to today s dangerous and chaotic world

What the Moon Saw and Other Tales Hans Christian Andersen,2020-09-28 It is a strange thing that when I feel most fervently and most deeply my hands and my tongue seem alike tied so that I cannot rightly describe or accurately portray the thoughts that are rising within me and yet I am a painter my eye tells me as much as that and all my friends who have seen my sketches and fancies say the same I am a poor lad and live in one of the narrowest of lanes but I do not want for light as my room is high up in the house with an extensive prospect over the neighbouring roofs During the first few days I went to live in the town I felt low spirited and solitary enough Instead of the forest and the green hills of former days I had here only a forest of chimney pots to look out upon And then I had not a single friend not one familiar face greeted me So one evening I sat at the window in a desponding mood and presently I opened the casement and looked out Oh how my heart leaped up with joy Here was a well known face at last a round friendly countenance the face of a good friend I had known at home In fact it was the Moon that looked in upon me He was quite unchanged the dear old Moon and had the same face exactly that he used to show when he peered down upon me through the willow trees on the moor I kissed my hand to him over and over again as he shone far into my little room and he for his part promised me that every evening when he came abroad he would look in upon me for a few moments This promise he has faithfully kept It is a pity that he can only stay such a short time when he comes Whenever he appears he tells me of one thing or another that he has seen on the previous night or on that same evening Just paint the scenes I describe to you this is what he said to me and you will have a very pretty picture book I have followed his injunction for many evenings I could make up a new Thousand and One Nights in my own way out of these pictures but the number might be too great after all The pictures I have here given have not been chosen at random but follow in their proper order just as they were described to me Some great gifted painter or some poet or musician may make something more of them if he likes what I have given here are only hasty sketches hurriedly put upon the paper with some of my own thoughts interspersed for the Moon did not come to me every evening a cloud sometimes hid his face from me
