young adults starting their adult journey and for those well into theirs who have not yet sighted land It is written by a master storyteller who learned to scale walls and blew them up rather than be stopped and who learned in the process that our happiness flows from leaving the world a better place than we found it Ultimately it's about how best to channel this glorious life we are each privileged to enjoy and to make it truly happy Finding Happy is filled with gripping adventures and misadventures that demonstrate just how possible the seemingly impossible often is from daredevil filmmaking in Africa and Asia to making daunting rules work for you to earning a full college scholarship after being completely unable to answer the entrance exam essay question to climbing down a hundred foot pipe shaft at 3 a m to rescue a kitten with no plan for how to climb back up It is about how best to seize the day which risks are brave and which foolish about roadblocks and solutions learning from leaders and finding your own secret sauce Samuelson explains how to find your compass and persuade others to help you He shows how to live your passion make a living take off your mask build your best place in the universe and find your own unique and personal Happy Easter Egg and other poems of faith, hope, & love Daniel W

Pannebaker, 2014-07-25 ONE OF THE most well known passages in the Bible and perhaps in all of literature is the thirteenth chapter of St Paul's first letter to the Corinthians often called the love chapter In it Paul extols the qualities of love and ends his writing by stating And these three abide faith hope and love These three virtues have guided me during my days on this earth A faith that draws me daily to admit my inadequacies and to ask for the grace to live a life worthy of His calling A hope that continuously compels me to be a stronger person a brighter light a better writer A deep and abiding love for God my family my friends I have tried to express these virtues in the poems I share with you here The majority of my poems do not rhyme Instead I like to build a rhythm in my writing by how I break each line in a verse so that your eye is constantly yearning for the next word For something different I have included two examples escape and Lovers and Other Strangers of concrete poetry a form developed in the 1950s in which the physical shape of the words on the page adds as much meaning to the poem as the words themselves And with a nod to my Bachelor's degree in Russian I also give you with its translation on the following page I recently took one of those online quizzes about what type of writer are you My results said that You write because you feel a deeper calling to the work and because you want to explore the soul element of life You're not shy of adding a moral to the story and most want to reach readers who will understand your unique view on life Writing is more than just putting words on paper for you it is a written prayer And to that I can say only Amen Teaching General Music
