Stars And Stardom In French Cinema:

Stars and Stardom in French Cinema Ginette Vincendeau, 2000-11-01 French cinema is second only to Hollywood in the number of its movie stars who have emerged to achieve international fame France is in fact arguably the only country other than the United States to have an international star system Yet these glamorous and charismatic stars differ from their U S counterparts in that they maintain more freedom to control their own images and often straddle both mainstream and auteur cinema Ginette Vincendeau a leading authority on French cinema analyzes the phenomenon of French film stardom and provides brilliant in depth studies of the major popular stars of the French cinema Max Linder Jean Gabin Brigitte Bardot Jeanne Moreau Louis de FunFs Jean Paul Belmondo Alain Delon Catherine Deneuve GTrard Depardieu and Juliette Binoche This volume analyzes these stars images and performance styles in the context of the French film industry but also in relation to national culture and society In the country where Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve have modeled for Marianne the effigy of the Republic and left wing politicians have held up Jean Gabin as a role model Vincendeau examines the unusual relationship between French film stars and national identity Ginette Vincendeau is professor of film studies at the University of Warwick She is the author and editor of a number of books on cinema Rogues, Romance, and Exoticism in French Cinema of the 1930s Colleen Kennedy-Karpat, 2013-04-11 Many popular French films of the 1930s captured the world and brought it into neighborhood cinemas for filmgoers who craved adventure These films often served as visual postcards from the French empire which enjoyed an unprecedented visibility in domestic popular culture between the world wars But the public appetite for the exotic also transcended imperial borders Exoticist films displayed landscapes and different that lay beyond the metropole many of which were not subject to European rule This broad conception of the exotic meant that French narrative cinema represented both colonial and non colonial settings and populations developing a coherent set of tropes that were shaped yet not entirely defined by the politics of imperial rule Empire alone cannot address the full range of the French exoticist imaginary that was projected onto movie screens in the 30s Only by venturing beyond imperial boundaries can we fully understand how the French saw non Westerners and by extension how they saw themselves during this tumultuous decade Rogues Romance and Exoticism in French Cinema of the 1930s proposes a critical framework for exoticist cinema that includes and exceeds the limits of empire From rogue colons to the m tisse in love from the deserts of North Africa to the streets of Shanghai this book identifies and analyzes recurring figures common settings major stars plot devices and narrative outcomes that dominated exoticist cinema at its popular peak Female Stars of British Cinema Melanie Williams, 2017-07-07 Although stardom and celebrity have sometimes been seen as antithetical to traditional British notions of restraint and modesty female stars have nenetheless always been an important attraction for audiences of British cinema offering specifically British takes on ideas of glamour acting prowess and femininity This book will explore in detail the history of British female stardom from the 1940 s to the present day through an examination of careers and star personae from Anna Neagle who enjoyed record breaking popularity in the immediate post war years to key contemporary figures such as Keira Knightley and Helen Mirren This is a major new study of stardom in British cinema and the first to focus on female The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, Mary Ellen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was stars created in France by Louis Lumi re in 1895 with the invention of the cin matographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cin matographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumi re s La Sortie de l usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumi re factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges M li s Alice Guy and Charles Path Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard Fran ois Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve G rard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike Battle of the Sexes in French Cinema, 1930-1956 Noël Burch, Geneviève Sellier, 2013-11-25 This comprehensive historical study of French films made between 1930 and 1956 before during and after the Second World War homes in on cinematic representations of gender relations The French Cinema Book Michael Temple, Michael Witt, 2018-01-18 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day The contributors who include leading historians and film scholars provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history Each chronological section addresses seven key themes people business technology forms representations spectators and debates providing an essential overview of the cinema industry the people who worked in it including technicians and actors as well as directors and the culture of cinema going in France from the beginnings of cinema to the contemporary period French B Movies David A. Pettersen, 2023-03-07 In the impoverished outskirts of French cities known as the banlieues minority communities are turning to American culture history and theory to make their own voices cultures and histories visible Filmmakers have followed suit turning to Hollywood genre conventions to challenge notions of identity belonging and marginalization in mainstream French film French B Movies proposes that French banlieue films far from being a fringe genre offer a privileged site from which to understand the current state of the French film industry in an age of globalization

This gritty style appears in popular arthouse films such as Mathieu Kassovitz s La Haine and Bande de filles Girlhood along with the major Netflix hit series Lupin David Pettersen traces how in these works and others directors fuse features of banlieue cinema with genre formulas associated with both Hollywood and Black cultural models as well as how transnational genre hybridizations such as B movies have become part of the ecosystem of the French film industry By combining film analysis cultural history critical theory and industry studies French B Movies reveals how featuring banlieues is as much about trying to imagine new identities and production models for French cinema as it is about representation Film Stars Mary Farguhar, Yingjin Zhang, 2010-04-27 This volume of original essays fills a significant research gap in Chinese film studies by offering an interdisciplinary comparative examination of ethnic Chinese film stars from the silent period to the era of globalization Whereas studies of stars and stardom have developed considerably in the West over the past two decades there is no single book in English that critically addresses issues related to stars and stardom in Chinese culture Chinese Film Stars offers exemplary readings of historically geographically and aesthetically multifaceted star phenomena An international line up of contributors test a variety of approaches in making sense of discourses of stars and stardom in China and the US explore historical contexts in which Chinese film stars are constructed and transformed in relation to changing sociopolitical conditions and consider issues of performance and identity specific to individual stars through chapter by chapter case studies The essays explore a wide range of topics such as star performance character type media construction political propaganda online discourses autobiographic narration as well as issues of gender genre memory and identity Including fifteen case studies of individual Chinese stars and illustrated with film stills throughout this book is an essential read for students of Chinese film media and cultural studies The Popular French Cinema Ginette Vincendeau, 2015-08-26 Extending from early cinema to the present bringing together published and newly written works this book traces the history of French cinema from Renoir to New Wave and beyond Providing a taster for the first time reader and a substantial read for the filmgoer and the student this is a fitting tribute to a great cinema by a top scholar and writer Vincendeau provides a full tour of the multifaceted French cinema and its enormous influence on popular culture by looking at the people issues and icons it embraces from stars like Josephine Baker to Juliette Binoche woman directors and masculinity in cinema French gangsters fathers and daughters and much more FrenchCinema CinémaFrançais CineFrancés Denize Araujo, Claudia Lambach, 2023-06-02 To begin I gratefully acknowledge the support of Appris Editor for accepting the project for an E Book and of IAMCR International Association for Media and Communication Research for the Fund to Claudia Lambach PhD whose Post Doctorate Project includes the organization of the E Book and two Dossiers with FAMECOS Journal plus two Workshops for IAMCR Conference 2023 LYON France online June 26 to September 12 and face to face July 9 to 13 one in Pre Conference and another in Post Conference IAMCR Conference 2023 will be in LYON France online June 26 to July 5 and face to face July 9 to 13 On behalf of IAMCR VIC Visual Culture Working Group I Denize Araujo PhD thank Thomas
