through the shattered dreams and enduring lessons of the Great Depression Stars, 1985 British Popular Films 1929-1939 Stephen Shafer, 2003-09-02 Challenges the conventional assumption that British feature films of the Thirties were oriented mostly towards the middle class and demonstrates that far from being alienated working class men and women flocked to the cinema One Man Talking: Selected Essays of Shao Xunmei, 1929-1939 Paul Bevan, Susan Daruvala, 2023-07-19 Shao Xunmei poet essayist publisher and printer played a significant role in the publication and dissemination of journals and pictorial magazines in Shanghai during the 1920s and 1930s His poetry has been translated by several prominent scholars through the years but remarkably few of his essays have received the same attention and this is the first collection of his prose writings to be published in English Shao has been described by a phalanx of scholars as the most seriously underestimated modern cultural Chinese figure This collection of his writings joins several recent publications that aim to raise Shao's literary and historical profile It will appeal to a broad swathe of readers interested in the transnational and transcultural dimensions of twentieth century experience that have become so important for contemporary scholarship The essays in this book some of which were selected by the writer's daughter Shao Xiaohong include long essays such as One Man Talking and A Year in Shanghai as well as several shorter essays on subjects as diverse as the caricatures of Miguel Covarrubias woodblock printing and pictorial magazines all of which were published in Shao's own magazines Although his essays may be less well known than those of other writers of the same period without his unique and valuable contribution the literary artistic and poetic worlds of twentieth century Shanghai would have been very different indeed

Ten Lost Years, 1929-1939 Barry Broadfoot, 2013-04-23 Hundreds of ordinary Canadians tell their own stories in this book They tell them in their own words and the impact is astonishing As page after page of unforgettable stories rolls by it is easy to see why this book sold 300 000 copies and why a successful stage play that ran for years was based on them The stories and the 52 accompanying photographs tell of an extraordinary time One tells how a greedy Maritime landlord ho tried to raise a widow's rent was tarred and gravelled another how rape by the boss was part of a waitress's job Other stories show Saskatchewan families watching their farms turn into deserts and walking away from them or freight trains black with hobo's clinging to them criss crossing the country in search of work or a man stealing a wreath for his own wife's funeral Throughout this portrait of the era before Canada had a social safety net there are amazing stories of what Time magazine called human tragedy and moral triumph during the hardest of times In the end this is an inspiring uplifting book about bravery one you will not forget The Golden Age of French Cinema, 1929-1939 John Wiley Martin, 1983 From the Crash to the Blitz, 1929-1939 Cabell Phillips, 2000 A popular history of the U S in the decade preceding World War II copiously illustrated with photographs The author relying heavily on the files of The New York Times for whom he was a long time reporter presents what he calls a journalistic reprise rather than a scholastic history that while centered on the political effects of the New Deal and the road to war also explores the worlds of sports literature crime and other social aspects of the decade From the Crash to the Blitz, 1929-1939 Cabell B. H. Phillips, 1969 In unforgettable words and images Cabell Phillips takes the reader from the crash of the stock market to the crash of bombs in Poland The journey was a monumental one for Americans time of bitterness and despair of failure and hunger and want but also of rebirth The New Deal was part of a social revolution a recreation of the American experiment In popular culture too the decade beginning with 1929 saw a new flowering in music in radio and in the movies now equipped with sound tracks In baseball America's pastime the decade saw the exit of the mighty Babe and the coming of the great DiMaggio and Ted Williams the Brown Bomber Joe Louis dominated boxing More ominously overseas dictators and militarists were on the march across Europe and Asia Soon Americans would be drawn into the whirlwind Phillips's goal has been to tell you not only what happened but what it was like to be there His sources were the files of The New York Times and the leading periodicals of the day histories memoirs diaries and government reports Together text and photographs offer a total historical experience of a decade in the life of a nation shadowed by depression heading toward war vibrating with its own frenzied excitement

The Annals of America: 1929-1939: The great depression, 1968 British Stars and Stardom Bruce Babington, 2001 British film stars even the most famous ones such as James Mason Sean Connery and Julie Andrews are a neglected subject in film history This interesting collection looks at the whole of British stardom from circa 1910 onwards and the many types of British stars who gained worldwide fame through national and international cinema

The Rise of Spanish-Language Filmmaking Lisa Jarvinen, 2012-06-05 Silent film was universally understood and could be exported anywhere But when talkies arrived the industry began experimenting with dubbing subtitling and dual track productions in more than one language Where language fractured the European film market for Spanish speaking countries and communities it created new opportunities In The Rise of Spanish Language Filmmaking Lisa Jarvinen focuses specifically on how Hollywood lost ground in the lucrative international Spanish speaking audience between 1929 and 1939 Hollywood studios initially trained cadres of Spanish speaking film professionals created networks among them and demonstrated the viability of a broadly conceived transnational Spanish speaking film market in an attempt to forestall the competition from other national film industries By the late 1930s these efforts led to unintended consequences and helped to foster the growth of remarkably robust film industries in Mexico Spain and Argentina Using studio records Jarvinen examines the lasting effects of the transition to sound on both Hollywood practices and cultural politics in the Spanish speaking world She shows through case studies based on archival research in the United States Spain and Mexico how language as a key marker of cultural identity led to new expectations from audiences and new possibilities for film producers

Latina/o Stars in U.S. Eyes Mary C. Beltrán,2009 A penetrating analysis of the construction of Latina o stardom in U S film television and celebrity culture since the 1920s Cinema between Latin America and Los Angeles Colin Gunckel,Jan-Christopher Horak,Lisa Jarvinen,2019-02-08 Historically Los Angeles and its exhibition market have been central to the international success of Latin American cinema Not only was Los Angeles a site crucial for exhibition of these films but it became the most important hub in the western hemisphere for the distribution of Spanish language films made for Latin American audiences Cinema between Latin America and Los Angeles builds upon this foundational insight to both examine the considerable ongoing role that Los Angeles played in the history of Spanish language cinema and to explore the implications of this transnational dynamic for the study and analysis of Latin American cinema before 1960 The volume editors aim to flesh out the gaps between Hollywood and Latin America American imperialism and Latin American nationalism in order to produce a more nuanced view of transnational cultural relations in the western hemisphere

The Great Depression, 1929-1939 Pierre Berton,1990 Berton describes the follies and tragedies of the decade long Depression and criticizes the political leaders who failed to take the bold steps necessary to deal with unemployment drought and despair He portrays the ordinary people who struggled to survive and denounces the wealthy businessmen who stretched the laws and took advantage of their employees Bestseller 1990

Alton's Paradox Nicolas Poppe,2021-09-01 Alton s Paradox builds upon extensive archival and primary research but uses a single text as its point of departure a 1934 article by the Hungarian American cinematographer John Alton in the Hollywood published International Photographer Writing from Argentina Alton paradoxically argues of cine nacional The possibilities are enormous but not until foreign technicians will take the matter in their hands and with foreign organization will there be local industry Nicolas Poppe argues that Alton succinctly articulates a line of thought commonly held across Latin America during the early sound period but little explored by scholars that foreign labor was pivotal to the rise of national film industries In tracking this paradox from Hollywood to Mexico to Argentina and beyond Poppe reconsiders a series of notions inextricably tied to traditional film historiography including authorship dis continuation intermediality labor National Cinema and transnationalism Wide angled views of national film industries complement close up analyses of the work of Jos Mojica Alex Phillips Juan Orol ngel Mentasti and Tito Davison The French Screen Goddess Jonathan Driskell,2015-03-26 Many years before Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve rose to fame the French cinema produced a host of glamorous female stars designed to rival their Hollywood counterparts Bathed in soft light discussed adoringly in fan magazines and shown wearing the latest fashions these cinematic stars emerged in opposition to France s traditional stage based stardom while remaining through the roles they played and the looks they sported a distinctly French phenomenon The French Screen Goddess examines how these stars influenced the narratives and look of their films contributed to defining the period s new emancipated femininity the modern woman and related to the decade s politics particularly the Popular Front of the mid 1930s The book focuses on the three most important examples of this type of stardom Annabella Danielle Darrieux and Michele Morgan while also considering many other key stars such as Arletty Viviane Romance and Jean Gabin Previously neglected films are considered and true classics of French cinema re examined with Rene Clair s Quatorze juillet Julien Duvivier s La Bandera and Marcel Carne s Le Quai des brumes and Hotel du Nord foremost among these Hollywood and the Great Depression Iwan Morgan,2016-10-31 Examines how Hollywood responded to and reflected the political and social changes that America experienced during the 1930sIn the popular imagination 1930s Hollywood was a dream factory producing escapist movies to distract the American people from the greatest economic crisis in their nations history But while many films of the period conform to this stereotype there were a significant number that promoted a message either explicitly or implicitly in support of the political social and economic change broadly associated with President Franklin D Roosevelts New Deal programme At the same time Hollywood was in the forefront of challenging traditional gender roles both in terms of movie representations of women and the role of women within the studio system With case studies of actors like Shirley Temple Cary Grant and Fred Astaire as well as a selection of films that reflect politics and society in the Depression decade this fascinating book examines how the challenges of the Great Depression impacted on Hollywood and how it responded to them Topics covered include How Hollywood offered positive representations of working womenCongressional investigations of big studio monopolization over movie distributionHow three different types of musical genres related in different ways to the Great Depression the Warner Bros Great Depression Musicals of 1933 the Astaire Rogers movies and the MGM akids musicals of the late 1930sThe problems of independent production exemplified in King
