the only resident He has a daughter he rarely sees and his mailman Jansson is the closest thing he has to a friend and to an adversary He is perfectly content to live out his days in quiet solitude One autumn evening he is startled awake by a blinding light only to discover that his house is on fire With the help of Jansson he escapes the flames just in time wearing two left boots Dawn reveals that everything he owns is now a smoldering pile of ash and his house is destroyed forcing him to move into an abandoned trailer on his island A local journalist Lisa Modin who wants to write a story about the fire comes into his life In doing so she awakens in him something that he thought was long dead Soon after his daughter comes to the island with surprising news of her own Meanwhile the police suspect Fredrik of arson because he had a sizable insurance claim on his house When Fredrik is away from the archipelago another house goes up in flames and the community realizes they have an arsonist in their midst After the Fire is an intimate portrait of an elderly recluse who is forced to open himself up to a world he'd left behind

The Fire in These Ashes Joan Chittister, 1995 Joan Chittister writes from the perspective of decades of deep involvement in religious life She writes about religious life in the here and now not about the value of its past nor about the possible shape of its future asking a simple question What if anything constitutes the spirituality of contemporary religious life What is the work of religious life now What are the virtues demanded of religious now that take character and test commitment that make the world closer to the reign of God and bring a person closer to the Truth of life Provided by publisher The Fire She Set Leigh Overton Boyd with Emily Adams, 2020-03-20 They grew up knowing they had secrets to keep They did not talk about their mom's extended absences or why their dad put Scotch tape on the backdoor frame To cover up the chaos they kept their clothes neat and got good grades But when they were teenagers an arson fire destroyed their home and killed their parents Rumors were thick that summer that smart angry fourteen year old Lisa set the blaze Then adult powers they did not understand squelched the investigation As teenagers accustomed to keeping silent they packed up and moved on Forty years later Leigh the oldest decided it was time to find out who killed their parents She obtained copies of the police and fire investigations and began unwrapping the past This memoir is the story of that investigation as Leigh tried to piece together the truth but found more lies instead With the help of her sisters Leigh was able to reconstruct much of what happened to them in the beach towns around Atlantic City in the early 1970s After the fire one sister turned to heroin and another to alcohol Leigh became Miss Atlantic City Then one by one they each moved to California and shut the door on their past even though they privately wondered whether one of them killed Frank and Nancy Overton It's funny They never wondered whether one of their parents was trying to kill them
