Post-Conflict Rebuilding and International Law Ray

Murphy,2017-03-02 This volume presents the research analysis of a range of scholars and experts on post conflict peacebuilding and international law from a variety of perspectives and missions The selected essays show that peacebuilding like the concept of peacekeeping is not specifically provided for in the UN Charter They also demonstrate that the record of peacebuilding like that of peacekeeping is varied and while both concepts are intrinsically linked neither lends itself to precise definition The essays consider the historical approaches to peacebuilding such as the role played by the UN in the Congo in the early 1960s and the work of the United States and its allies in rebuilding Germany and Japan in the aftermath of World War II Finally essays consider the major challenge for contemporary peacebuilding operations to make international administrations accountable and to ensure the involvement of the international community in helping rebuild communities and prevent the resurgence of violence Interculturality, Interaction and Language Learning Jane
