Reptiles Discovery,2005 Great Grandma's Shawl Diana Levine,2007-10-23 In a brilliant juxtaposition of prose GREAT GRANDMAS SHAWL tells of the many experiences the author has had over the years from the time she was a young teacher until she became a grandmother While all the stories are based on true experiences and real people the stories themselves are fiction No real names have been used Love friendship family and youth are the subjects covered in GREAT GRANDMAS SHAWL Although the stories are about children adults will enjoy them as well Speaking of Animals Robert Palmatier,1995-04-30 No other nonhuman source has served as the basis for more metaphors than animals Speaking of Animals is a dictionary of animal metaphors that are current in American English It is comprehensive historical and metaphor based Each entry refers to the other dictionaries that catalog that same metaphor and the dates of first appearance in writing are supplied where possible for both the metaphor and the name of the source The main text is organized alphabetically by metaphor rather than by animal or animal behavior all the metaphors are classified according to their animal source in a list at the end of the book An animal metaphor is a word phrase or sentence that expresses a resemblance or similarity between someone or something and a particular animal or animal class True metaphors are single words such as the noun tiger the verb hog and the adjective chicken Phrasal metaphors combine true metaphors with other words such as blind tiger hog the road and chicken colonel Other animal metaphors take the form of similes such as like rats leaving a sinking ship and prickly as a hedgehog Still others take the form of proverbs such as Don t count your chickens before they hatch and Let sleeping dogs lie The horse is the animal most frequently referred to in metaphors followed closely by the dog The Bible is the most prolific literary source of animal metaphors followed closely by Shakespeare Trucksong Andrew Macrae,2013-11 In a post apocalyptic Australian landscape dominated by free wheeling cyborgs a young man goes in search of his lost lover who has been kidnapped by a rogue AI truck the Brumby King Along the way he teams with Sinnerman an independent truck with its own reasons for hating the Brumby King Before his final confrontation with the brumbies he must learn more about the broken down world and his own place in it and face his worst fears The strange and playful voice of the first person narrator keeps the story kicking along as he comes to his final realisation that the only meaning to be found in a world in slow decay is that which you make for yourself This genre bending work of literary biopunk mixes the mad fun of Mad Max II with the idiosyncratic testimony of works like Peter Carey s True History of the Kelly Gang or Irvine Welsh s Trainspotting Shortlisted for Aurealis Award for Best SF Novel 2014
