Sixty Years The RCAF And CFB Air Command 1924-1984:

Sovereignty and Command in Canada-US Continental Air Defence, 1940-57 Richard Goette, 2018-07-09 The 1940 Ogdensburg Agreement entrenched a formal defence relationship between Canada and the United States But was Canadian sovereignty upheld Drawing on untapped archival material Sovereignty and Command in Canada US Continental Air Defence 1940-57 documents the close and sometimes fractious relationship between the two countries Richard Goette challenges prevailing perceptions that Canada's defence relationship with the United States eroded Canadian sovereignty He argues instead that a functional military transition from an air defence system based on cooperation to one based on integrated and centralized command and control under NORAD allowed Canada to retain command of its forces and thus protect Canadian sovereignty Goette combines historical narrative with conceptual analysis of sovereignty command and control systems military professionalism and civil military relations In the process he provides essential insights into the Royal Canadian Air Force's paradigm shift away from its Royal Air Force roots toward closer ties with the United States Air Force and the role of the nation's armed forces in safeguarding its sovereignty Canadian Warbirds of the Biplane Era Harold A. Canada's Air Force David J. Bercuson,2024-10-17 The Royal Canadian Air Force RCAF was founded in 1924 as a sort of federal air service carrying out civilian type operations for Ottawa In the Second World War the RCAF grew to more than 200 000 personnel in overseas squadrons and performed virtually every type of mission including bombing and hunting submarines Over the decades since the RCAF has tried valiantly to carry out its mission of defending Canada even when starved of funds by the federal government Today it is once again on the verge of becoming a modern well equipped air force In Canada s Air Force historian David J Bercuson shares the history of the first one hundred years of the Royal Canadian Air Force from its inception in 1924 to its centennial in 2024 Drawing on memoirs diaries unpublished histories archival sources interview transcripts and standard reference works such as The Bomber Command War Diaries Bercuson traces the history of the RCAF as not only a fighting force but also a human institution Canada s Air Force analyses the first century of the RCAF through the clear eyed perspective of a Canadian historian who has closely scrutinized one hundred years of the RCAF s story Canadian Warbirds of the Biplane Era - Trainers, Transports and Utility Aircraft Harold Skaarup,2001-05-29 This aviation handbook provides the reader with a quick general reference to identify military support aircraft flown by Canadians during WWI and post war with the Canadian Air Force the Royal Canadian Air Force the Royal Canadian Navy and the Canadian Army during the biplane era The handbooks in this series include a general description and a photograph from the Canadian Forces Archives of key variants or marks of each aircraft that has been in Canadian service or used by Canadian servicemen overseas Each aircraft is listed alphabetically by manufacturer number and type General details describing the aircrafts engines service ceiling speed armament or weapons load are included along with a brief description of the Canadian squadrons which flew the aircraft This is the second volume in the series It describes the trainers transports and utility aircraft flown by Canadian servicemen during the biplane era A list of museums private aircraft collections and other locations where a number of the survivors might be found is also included The handbook is not a definitive list of all Canadian manufactured or operated aircraft but it should serve as a quick reminder of the major examples for anyone with an interest in Canadian military aviation Flying Canucks Peter Pigott,1996-07-25 Flying Canucks tells the fascinating story of aviation in Canada through this collection of 37 biographies of important aviators in our nation s history As early as 1908 having read the Wright brothers invention Alberta farm boys and mechanics in Quebec villages were constructing large kites attempting to fly them Within a decade Canadian air aces like Bishop and Barker swept the wartime skies over Frances piloting deadly machines in mortal combat Through the 20s that very Canadian breed of adventurer the bush pilot ventured over the desolate tundra delivering medicine and missionaries mail and Mounties to remote communities as far as Ellesmere Island and Ungava Bay Members of the Royal Canadian Air Force fought with distinction during the Second world War Titles such as The Saviour of London and The Angel of Ceylon seem like wartime hype but the skill and courage that those pilots displayed half a century ago set them apart still For the six Canadian airmen who won the Victoria Cross there were thousands who flew into the meat grinder that was the Allies strategic air offensive over Europe This book chronicles the exploits of only a few men and women but it truly celebrates the spirit and resolve of countless brave Canadians who are proud part of aviation in this country Sixty Years Larry Milberry,1984 Mobilize! Larry D. Rose,2013-10-28 Why was Canada not preparing for the Second World War when the rest of the world was ready to meet Hitler s threats Despite Canada s active participation in the First World War which many claimed made Canada a nation the country was almost defenceless in September 1939 when war was declared again Larry D Rose a long time journalist and a military specialist examines the military s own failures the hidden agenda of Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King and the divisions within Canada leading up to Canada s entry into the war He suggests that the lack of preparedness was directly responsible for two of Canada s costliest military defeats the battle of Hong Kong and Dieppe Canadian
