Bad Gardening Advice Steve Schmolaris, 2023-08-23 What do reviews of the Winnipeg music scene have in common with crappy advice on growing a garden? The worm. This book's worm is Steve Schmolaris, a man of discerning taste with over forty-five years of servitude and dedication to Winnipeg music under his belt who has devoted his life to extolling its virtues, who delicately unfolds each song to eat, to hold, to plant like seeds to reflect their singular beauty and uniqueness back to them. Here you will find a compendium of Winnipeg's proud fourth best local music review site of the same name, written in the same acerbic confrontational voice readers will be used to. Taking up an eclectic range of artists and genres, Bad Gardening Advice's reviews take many forms from mock interviews to recipes to love letters peppered by Schmolaris's musings on death, lost love, and the musicians' sex appeal. This original and inventive collection will make a great addition to the bookshelves of anyone close to the Winnipeg music scene, especially those in it. In Bad Gardening Advice, some of the artists reviewed are professionals. Some of them are amateurs. Most of them are weirdos. But if you know how to look, all of them are doing something interesting. All of them have something worth making music about. Welcome to the Bad Garden. The articles collected in this pioneering volume explore the categories of space, place, and territory, featuring in most general theories of space, to lay the groundwork for the study of spatiality in games. Shifting the focus away from earlier debates on, e.g., the narrative nature of games, this collection proposes instead that thorough attention be given to the tension between experienced spaces and narrated places, as well as to the mapping of both of these. Progress in Optics: A Tribute to Emil Wolf, 2020-04-24 Progress in Optics Volume 65: A Tribute to Emil Wolf provides the latest release in a series that presents an overview of the state of the art in optics research.
