Foundations of Language , 1972 The Chinese Lexicon Yip Po-Ching, 2022-02-16 The Chinese Lexicon is a detailed study of the words and word combinations used in modern Chinese Yip Po Ching defines the general properties of a language s lexicon or vocabulary prior to a thorough discussion of the organizational features of the Chinese lexicon Comparisons are made between Chinese and English highlighting the similarities and differences between the two lexicons This fascinating work examines the relationships between word and meanings and demonstrates the ability of language to combine continuity and change It surpasses the scope of a dictionary and reveals the systematic nature of vocabulary Features include a wealth of language examples clear comparisons between Chinese and English Chinese characters and pinyin romanization throughout a comprehensive index The Chinese Lexicon surpasses the scope of a dictionary and reveals the systematic nature of vocabulary It will prove an invaluable resource for all students and teachers of Chinese Studies in Language Origins Walburga von Raffler-Engel, Jan Wind, Abraham Jonker, 1991-08-22 The question of language origin has fascinated people for years The contributions in the present book stem primarily from the papers presented at the Third International Meeting of the Language Origins Society LOS held at Vanderbilt University in Nashville Tennessee June 1988 The contributors approach the problem not only from the viewpoint of linguistics but also from that of anatomy physiology social sciences physical anthropology paleoanthropology paleontology comparative zoology general biology ethology evolutionary biology and psychology Copular Clauses and Focus Marking in Sumerian Gábor Zólyomi, 2014-09-05 This work is the first comprehensive description of Sumerian constructions involving a copula Using around 400 fully glossed examples it gives a thorough analysis of all uses of the copula which is one of the least understood and most frequently misinterpreted and consequently mistranslated morphemes in Sumerian It starts with a concise introduction into the grammatical structure of Sumerian followed by a study that is accessible to both linguists and sumerologists as it applies the terminology of modern descriptive linguistics It provides the oldest known and documented example of the path of grammaticalization that leads from a copula to a focus marker It gives the description of Sumerian copular paratactic relative clauses which make use of an otherwise only scarcely attested relativization strategy At the end of the book the reader will have a clear picture about the morphological and syntactic devices used to mark identificational polarity and sentence focus in Sumerian one of the oldest documented languages in the world The Semantics of Coordination Ewald Lang,1984-01-01 This study is an attempt to explain coordinate conjoining as a rule governed process of establishing specific semantic relations within and between sentences Coordination is thus conceived of both as a basic device of linguistic complex formation and as a rather fundamental principle underlying the creation of the text From the point of view of achieving coherence coordinate conjoining is described in this monograph as an integrative process Described are the conditions governing this process the rules according to which take place in short the complex interaction of various linguistically identifiable features displayed by coordinate structures Coordinate conjoining is regarded here as the result of the interplay of three factors which belong to distinct levels of semantic description the meaning of the conjuncts the relation between the meaning of the conjuncts and the meaning of the connectors The step by step explication of the interaction of these levels in determining the semantic interpretation of coordinate structures forms the core of the present study Studies in Language Learning ,1975

Studies in Text Grammar J.S. Petöfi,Hannes Rieser,2012-12-06 If we consider how theoretical operations belonging to the methodological inventory of linguistics are carried out i e the way linguistic theories are set up three main criteria suggest themselves for classifying them 1 Both nature and type of the aims of the scientific knowledge applied which allow to specify the epistemological interests as well as the theoretical impact constituting the purpose of linguistic operations 2 the nature of the intellectual procedures in connection with which a set of intersubjectively acceptable operations should guarantee that current postulates of the theory of science be maintained 3 the set of data serving as an empirical basis for the theories to be established on the one hand and as a correlate for the further development the testing and the evaluation of theories on the other hand It is to be considered a basic concept as well as a motive of current text linguistic research that due to the linguistic analysis of discourses a further development of linguistics has set in or is still to be achieved as regards the three criteria mentioned above Therefore if we want to estimate text linguistic approaches or concepts works methods or knowledge results we should take the view allowing for the general valuation of the linguistic discipline or one of its sub disciplines This should be done with respect to the contributions gathered in this volume as well
