Studies On The Derveni Papyrus:

Studies on the Derveni Papyrus, volume II Glenn W. Most, 2022-09-15 Studies on the Derveni Papyrus volume II brings together two new editions of the first fragmentarily extant columns of the Derveni Papyrus and seven scholarly articles devoted to their interpretation The Derveni Papyrus is by far the most important textual discovery of the 20th century regarding early Greek philosophy religion exegetical theory and practice linguistic ideas and a host of other areas and issues But the editorial and interpretative history of this extraordinary document has been very checkered While the interpretation of the better preserved later columns is still highly controversial in many regards at least the text of those columns has by and large found a scholarly consensus but the editorial and interpretative situation with the worse preserved first columns is quite different This volume offers not one but two editions of the first columns by Richard Janko and by Valeria Piano given that it is not currently possible to agree upon a single edition and it explains clearly and in detail the papyrological problems and doubts that lead to these two editions making it possible for readers even non papyrologists to form their own informed judgment about the most likely readings to be adopted Furthermore it contains a number of articles by leading scholars on the Derveni Papyrus above all offering original solutions to the question of the relation between the earlier and the later columns but also providing analysis and interpretation of other related problems Studies on the Derveni Papyrus Glenn W. Most, André Laks, 1997 Studies on the Derveni Papyrus: 3. The Cult of the Erinyes, the Villa of the Mysteries, and the Unity of the Derveni Papyrus André Laks, Glenn W. Most, 1997 The Derveni Papyrus Howard Burton, 2021-01-12 This book is based on an in depth filmed conversation between Howard Burton and Richard Janko Gerald F Else Distinguished University Professor of Classical Studies at the University of Michigan This wide ranging conversation covers Prof Janko's research on the Derveni Papyrus Europe's oldest surviving manuscript from the 4th century BCE and the most important text relating to early Greek literature science religion and philosophy to have come to light since the Renaissance This carefully edited book includes an introduction Discovering the Past and questions for discussion at the end of each chapter I A Great Discovery Followed by unparalleled foot dragging II Derveni Details Setting the scene III An Ancient Culture War Societal strains in late 5th century Athens IV Rose coloured Glasses Democratic biases V Summing Up Mathematical philology and Herculaneum speculations About Ideas Roadshow Conversations Presented in an accessible conversational format Ideas Roadshow books not only explore frontline academic research but also reveal the inspirations and personal journeys behind the research Poetry as Initiation Iōanna Papadopoulou, Leonard Charles Muellner, 2014 The Derveni Papyrus discovered accidentally in 1962 is the oldest known European book Papers in Poetry as Initiation address many open questions about the papyrus including its authorship the context of the peculiar chthonic ritual described in the text and the relationship of the author and the ritual to the so called Orphic texts Sacred Words: Orality, Literacy and Religion André Lardinois, Josine Blok, M.G.M. van der Poel, 2011-06-22 A prevalent view in the current scholarship on ancient religions holds that state religion was primarily performed and transmitted in oral forms whereas writing came to be associated with secret private and marginal cults especially in the Greek world In Roman times religions would have become more and more bookish starting with the Sibylline books and the Annales Maximi of the Roman priests and culminating in the canonical gospels of the Christians It is the aim of this volume to modify this view or at least to challenge it Surveying the variety of ways in which different types of texts and oral discourse were involved in ancient Greek and Roman religions the contributions to this volume show that oral and written forms were in use for both Greek and Roman state and private religions

Text, Thought, and Practice in Qumran and Early Christianity Ruth Clements, Daniel R. Schwartz, 2010-01-01 The 13 papers comprising this volume represent the fruits of the first Orion Center Symposium devoted to the comparison of the Dead Sea and early Christian texts The authors reject the older paradigm which configured the similarities between Qumran and early Christian literature as evidence of influence from one upon the other They raise fresh methodological possibilities by asking how insights from each of these two corpora illuminate the other and by considering them as parallel evidence for broader currents of Second Temple Judaism Topics addressed include specific exegetical and legal comparisons prophecy demonology and messianism the development of canon and the rise of commentary and possible connections between the Gospel of John and the Dead Sea Scrolls

Chaos, Cosmos and Creation in Early Greek Theogonies Olaf Almqvist, 2022-01-13 Cosmological narratives like the creation story in the book of Genesis or the modern Big Bang are popularly understood to be descriptions of how the universe was created However cosmologies also say a great deal more Indeed the majority of cosmologies ancient and modern explore not simply how the world was made but how humans relate to their surrounding environment and the often thin line which separates humans from gods and animals Combining approaches from classical studies anthropology and philosophy this book studies three competing cosmologies of the early Greek world Hesiod's Theogony the Orphic Derveni Theogony and Protagoras creation myth in Plato's eponymous dialogue Although all three cosmologies are part of a single mythic tradition and feature a number of similar events and characters Olaf Almqvist argues they offer very different answers to an ongoing debate on what it is to be human Engaging closely with the ontological turn in anthropology and in particular with the work of Philippe Descola this book outlines three key sets of ontological assumptions analogism pantheism and naturalism found in early Greek literature and explores how these competing ontological assumptions result in contrasting attitudes to rituals such as prayer and sacrifice
