The Contribution Of Parents To School Effectiveness

Henry Levin, Marlane Lockheed

The Contribution Of Parents To School Effectiveness:

The Contribution of Parents to School Effectiveness Sheila Wolfendale, John Bastiani, 2025-08-05 School and educational achievement is dependent on many complex factors and is usually seen as the key outcome measure by which school effectiveness can be judged Originally published in 2000 this book aimed to establish whether or not educational achievement can in part be ascribed to the quality and range of home school links It provided a timely contribution to the continuing debate at the time on the pivotal relationship between schools and the families which form their constituencies Government initiatives such as the Literacy and Numeracy Strategies and Sure Start acknowledged the importance of parental involvement This book enabled all those interested in education to evaluate the educational benefits of a home school relationship between pupils parents teachers and schools

Parents' Participation in School Improvement Processes [electronic Resource] : Final Report of the Parent Participation in School Improvement Planning Project Patricia A. Allison, Canadian Education Association, 2004

Parental Involvement Across European Education Systems Angelika Paseka, Delma Byrne, 2019-09-12 This book addresses central questions regarding parental involvement across European educational systems exploring the commonalities and differences across European countries and the extent to which current policy and practice pertaining to parental involvement is inclusive of diversity Adopting an interdisciplinary approach that draws from the fields of education sociology and psychology it presents a description of the policy context and empirical research on critical perspectives relating to parental involvement Comprising a rich varied cross section of national experiences from eleven European countries and the contexts surrounding them case studies provide insights into parental involvement across Europe and identify challenges in the field This volume s in depth approach and comprehensive interrogation of parental involvement across European education systems make it an ideal resource for parents teachers and academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of education policy and comparative education as well as teacher educators and policy makers

New Ideas for Effective School Improvement William Ramsay, E. Eugene Clark, 1990 This book develops an approach to school development which is contextual in that it considers both the larger social structure of which the school is a part and those special features of schools themselves which impact upon the possibilities for their improvement The book derives from a eight year longitudinal study of school evaluation at St Mary s College a Catholic girls school in Tasmania It builds upon and provides a practical exploration of such recent developments as Straratt and Caldwell s work on educational vision the role of evaluation in measuring the extent to which a school s vision has become reality the effective implementation and management of change and Coleman and Hoffer s notion of social capital and the importance of school community networks in effective education

Advances in School Effectiveness Research and Practice D. Reynolds, B. Creemers, P.S. Nesselrodt, E.C. Shaffer, S. Stringfield, C. Teddlie, 2014-06-28 Advances in School Effectiveness Research and Practice presents a worldwide state of the art summary of the rapidly growing field of school effectiveness research by an internationally renowned group of authors Current knowledge in the field is reviewed to present an integrated and coherent internationally valid perspective on school effectiveness and instructional effectiveness The book creatively outlines some new directions in which the field should move if it is to fulfil its promise These include the development of international studies and the generating and testing of school effectiveness theory

Systemic School Improvement Interventions in South Africa Godwin Khosa, 2014-04-14 Looking at two smaller scale systemic school improvement projects implemented in selected district circuits in the North West and Eastern Cape by partnerships between government JET Education Services and private sector organisations this book captures and reflects on the experiences of the practitioners involved The Systemic School Improvement Model developed by JET to address an identified range of interconnected challenges at district school classroom and household level is made up of seven components In reflecting on what worked and what did not in the implementation of these different components the different chapters set out some of the practical lessons learnt which could be used to improve the design and implementation of similar education improvement projects Many of the lessons in this field that remain under recorded to date relate to the step by step processes followed the relationship dynamics encountered at different levels of the education system and the local realities confronting schools and districts in South Africa's rural areas Drawing on field data that is often not available to researchers the book endeavours to address this gap and record these lessons It is not intended to provide an academic review of the systemic school improvement projects It is presented rather to offer other development practitioners working to improve the quality of education in South African schools an understanding of some of the real practical and logistical challenges that arise and how these may be resolved to take further school improvement projects forward at a wider district provincial and national scale

School Violence Intervention Jane Close Conoley, Arnold P. Goldstein, 2004-07-26 This work offers effective intervention strategies for managing school violence Opening with a range of perspectives on student aggression it provides a comprehensive view on practical interventions at the student school and systems levels Practitioners present empirically grounded strategies for an array of school settings and situations seeking to help readers make informed decisions about the approaches that would be most effective in their own environments The first part of the text presents information on the nature and prevalence of youth violence today and outlines strategies geared toward making the school physically safer establishing clear behaviour standards providing adequate adult presence enforcing rules fairly and sanctioning offenders and creating partnerships with outside agencies The chapters that follow describe a range of interventions directed toward aggressive students themselves which have proved highly effective in outcome evaluation research These approaches include behavioural classroom management crises and gang orientated interventions and preventative pre school programmes In addition it details school orientated strategies such as academic and curriculum interventions vandalism control and effective security policy Exploring the complex relationship among school behaviour family life and community chapters also consider avenues toward effecting change in the larger context of the students lives A hands on manual for dealing with some of the most intractable problems education professionals face this book offers extensive information for school psychologists and researchers

Effective Schools in Developing Countries Henry Levin,Marlaine Lockheed,2012-05-31 This volume brings together eight case studies which describe a variety of initiatives to create more effective schools for children of poverty especially in the Third World The initiatives reviewed published and unpublished documents and both qualitative and statistical studies were examined Countries include Brazil Burundi Colombia Ghana Nepal Sri Lanka Thailand and the United States Each initiative was developed independently to address unique challenges and situations but taken as a group the features of the approaches described in this volume can be viewed as a basis for considering the development of effective schools strategies in other contexts

Effective School Management K.B. Everard,Geoff Morris,Ian Wilson,2004-05-05 This edition is more focussed on the leadership demands of managers both within the school and its community This book can be used as a source of reference for anyone on a school manager position written by people who practice management on educational organizations themselves it deals with the fundamentals of what management is the many roles of the manager Headteacher Update The book is clearly structured with an informative table to contents Each chapter ends with practical tasks which could be used either by an individual at home or by groups in a training session The book is worth adding to any staffroom library for the section of time management techniques alone If only I had acquired the habit of starting each day by writing list of all the things that should be done that day and starring them to indicate importance in recognition that the critical distinction is between what is urgent and what is important Education Review This book provides a thoroughly comprehensive guide to managing staff meetings motivating people managing conflict health and safety and much more Nursery Equipment This popular book has been thoroughly updated for its Fourth Edition Targeting the contents directly to the needs of today s school manager The book is now even more directed towards the leadership demands on managers both within the school and in its community setting New sections have been written to deal with emerging pressures on heads the increasing complexity of employment legislation the management of risk performance management flexibility in the curriculum the inclusion agenda team development and leadership the effect of the government s new approach to early years education Recent research and developments have been incorporated and the content has been extensively updated The authors fresh and readable style coupled with their use of proven interactive exercises makes the book a first choice for busy heads and senior staff in all schools
