Reading Novels During the Covid-19 Pandemic Ben Davies,Christina Lupton,Johanne Gormsen Schmidt,2022-10-20 Drawing on an ethnographic study of novel readers in Denmark and the UK during the Covid 19 pandemic this book provides a snapshot of a phenomenal moment in modern history The ethnographic approach shows what no historical account of books published during the pandemic will be able to capture namely the movement of readers between new purchases and books long kept in their collections The book follows readers who have tuned into novels about plague apocalypse and racial violence but also readers whose taste for older novels and for re reading novels they knew earlier in their lives has grown Alternating between chapters that analyse single texts that were popular Albert Camus s The Plague Ali Smith s Summer Charlotte Br nte s Jane Eyre and others that describe clusters of for example dystopian fiction and nature writing this work brings out the diverse quality of the Covid 19 bookshelf Time is of central importance to this study both in terms of the time of lockdown and the temporality of reading itself within this wider disrupted sense of time By exploring these varied experiences this book investigates the larger question of how the consumption of novels depends on and shapes people s experience of non work time providing a specific lens through which to examine the phenomenology of reading more generally This timely work also negotiates debates in the study of reading that distinguish theoretically between critical reading and reading for pleasure between professional and lay reading All sides of the sociological and literary debate must be brought to bear in understanding what readers tell us about what novels have meant to them in this complex historical moment Interactive Storytelling Henrik Schoenau-Fog,Luis Emilio Bruni,Sandy Louchart,Sarune Baceviciute,2015-11-28 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 8th InternationalConference on Interactive Digital Storytelling ICIDS 2015 held in Copenhagen Denmark in November December 2015 The 18 revised full papers and 13 short papers presented together with 9posters 9 workshop descriptions and 3 demonstration papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 80 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections ontheoretical and design foundations technical advances analyses and evaluation systems and current and future usage scenarios and applications BBC Music Magazine ,2007 Library Literature ,1934 An index to library and information science Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing,2002 Current Archaeology ,2008
