The Bonhoeffer Legacy Terence Lovat,2015-11-01 The Bonhoeffer Legacy Australasian Journal of Bonhoeffer Studies is a fully refereed academic journal aimed principally at providing an outlet for an ever expanding Bonhoeffer scholarship in Australia New Zealand and the South Pacific region as well as being open to article submissions from Bonhoeffer scholars throughout the world It also aims to elicit and encourage future and ongoing scholarship in the field The focus of the journal captured in the notion of Legacy is on any aspect of Bonhoeffer s life theology and political action that is relevant to his immense contribution to twentieth century events and scholarship Legacy can be understood as including those events and ideas that contributed to Bonhoeffer s own development those that constituted his own context or those that have developed since his time as a result of his work The editors encourage and welcome any scholarship that contributes to the journal s aims The journal also has book reviews      The God Who Is Given Chris Dodson,2021-05-03 Dietrich Bonhoeffer s notions of religionless Christianity have provoked a great deal of theological inquiry much of which has hindered evangelical reception of Bonhoeffer s work By setting religionless Christianity in the context of Bonhoeffer s Lutheran sacramental theology Chris Dodson furthers Bonhoeffer s belief that receiving the God given in the sacraments both resists Christians proclivity towards religious self serving ends and draws Christians into a life of robust faith and love Receiving Christ in baptism the Eucharist and confession serves to instill sustain locate and vitalize the form of life that Bonhoeffer calls religionless The church and its core practices are not abandoned in Bonhoeffer s prison letters they are reengaged with a more proper disposition faithful love of God and neighbor In this way common evangelical skepticisms about Bonhoeffer s later theology can be assuaged Bonhoeffer s theology rightly construed provokes evangelicals and particularly American evangelicals to reconsider and restructure their worship along the lines of a religionless Christianity that promotes a deeper faith resulting from a more vigorous encounter with Christ as he gives himself over to his people      Village Lectures, illustrating in simple language the creation and fall of man ... First series John Dent PARMETER,1832      History of Biblical Interpretation, Volume 3 Henning Graf Reventlow,2012-11-15 Volume 3 of History of Biblical Interpretation deals with an era Renaissance Reformation and humanism characterized by major changes such as the rediscovery of the writings of antiquity and the newly invented art of printing. These developments created the context for one of the most important periods in the history of biblical interpretation, one that combined both philological insights made possible by the now accessible ancient texts with new theological impulses and movements. As representative of this period, this volume examines the lives and teaching of Johann Reuchlin, Erasmus, Martin Luther, Philipp Melancthon, John Calvin, Thomas Muntzer, Hugo Grotius, and a host of other influential exegetes.

Singing the Ethos of God Brian Brock, 2007-04-02. Noting that academic biblical scholars and Christian ethicists have been methodologically estranged for some decades, now Brian Brock seeks to reframe the whole Bible and ethics discussion in terms of this question: What role does the Bible play in God's generation of a holy people, and how do we participate in that regeneration? Brock first examines various major contemporary thinkers on the Bible and Christian ethics, including John Howard Yoder, Brevard Childs, John Webster, and Dietrich Bonhoeffer. He then undertakes major discussions of Augustine and Martin Luther, unpacking their interpretation of the Psalms. Finally, Brock articulates the processes of renewal in God's people. His close study of a few individual psalms shows how we enter the world of praise in which all human life is comprehended within God's work and is thus renewed. Immersion in the exegetical tradition of the Christian faith, Brock argues, must be the heart and soul of theology and ethics.

The Future of Creation Order Gerrit Glas, Jeroen de Ridder, 2018-01-12. This work provides an overview of attempts to assess the current condition of the concept of creation order within reformational philosophy compared to other perspectives. Focusing on the natural and life sciences and theology, this first volume of two examines the arguments for and against the beauty, coherence, and order shown in the natural world, being related to the will or nature of a Creator. It examines the decay of a Deist universe and the idea of the pre-giveness of norms, laws, and structures as challenged by evolutionary theory and social philosophy. It describes the different responses to the collapse of order that given by Christian philosophy scholars who still argue for the idea of a pre-given world order, and that of other scholars who see this idea of stable creation order, and/or natural law, as redundant and in need of a thorough rethinking. It studies the particular role that reformational philosophy has played in the discussion. It shows how, ever since its inception almost a century ago, the concepts of order and law, principle, structure, have been at the heart of this philosophy, and that one way to characterise this tradition is as a philosophy of creation order. Reformational philosophers have maintained the notion of law as holding for reality. This book discusses the questions that have arisen about the nature of such law: is it a religious or philosophical concept? Does law just mean orderliness? How does it relate to laws of nature? Have they always existed, or do they emerge during the process of evolution?
