The Critical Poem Borges Paz And Other Language Centered Poets In Latin America:

The Critical Poem Thorpe Running, 1996 In this book scholar Thorpe Running shows that a skeptical approach to both language and poetry places eight poets from three countries in Latin America within a strain of poetry prefigured by Stephane Mallarme Octavio Paz Jorge Luis Borges Roberto Juarroz Alejandra Pizarnik Alberto Girri Juan Luis Martinez Gonzalo Millan and David Huerta span three different generations In addition to their age and geographical differences their poetry bears no obvious similarities All eight however are poetas pensantes or thinking poets and underlying the work of these probing writers is the disturbing question Does language do what it is supposed to do The answer is negative for all these poets who see their poems as being made up of words that don t work

Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America Sophia A. McClennen, Earl E. Fitz, 2004. The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors' conviction that given its vitality and excellence, Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications, curricula, and disciplinary discussions. The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and Portuguese. Secondly, the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically, comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated, placed into productive discourse with a host of issues, languages, literatures, and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention. Following an introduction by the editors, the volume contains papers by Gene H. Bell-Villada on the question of canon; by Gordon Brotherston and Lucia de S. on the First Peoples of the Americas and their literature; by Elizabeth Coonrod-Martínez on the Latin American novel of the 1920s; by Román de la Campa on Latin American Studies; by Earl E. Fitz on Spanish American and Brazilian literature; by Roberto González Echevarría on Latin American and comparative literature; by Sophia A. McClennen on comparative literature and Latin American Studies; by Alberto Moreiras on Borges; by Julio Ortega on the critical debate about Latin American cultural studies; by Christina Marie Tourino on Cuban Americas in New York City; by Mario J. Valdés on the comparative history of literary cultures in Latin America; and by Lois Parkinson Zamora on comparative literature and globalization. The volume also contains a bibliography of scholarship in comparative Latin American culture and literature and biographical abstracts of the contributors to the volume.

Borges and Dante Humberto Núñez-Faraco, 2006. Originally presented as the author's thesis, University College London, 2001. Fighting Cane and Canon Rashi Rohatgi, 2014-08-20. Fighting Cane and Canon Abhimanyu Unnuth and the Case of World Literature in Mauritius joins the growing field of modern Indian Ocean studies. The book interrogates the development and persistence of Hindi poetry in Mauritius with a focus on the early poetry of Abhimanyu Unnuth. His second work, The Teeth of the Cactus, brings together questions about the value of history, of relationships forged by labour, and of spirituality in a trenchant examination of a postcolonial people choosing to pursue prosperity in an age of globalization. It captures a distinct point of view: Unnuth's connection to the Hindi language is an unusual reaction to the creolization of the island but also a common experience both of Indian immigrants and of the reevaluation of their experience by Mauritians reaching adulthood as Unnuth did with the Independence of the Mauritian nation in 1968. The book argues that for literary scholars reading Abhimanyu Unnuth's poetry raises important questions about the methodological assumptions made when approaching so called marginal postcolonial works assumptions about translation language and canonicity through the emerging methodologies of World Literature

Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre

Marvelous Encounters Willard Bohn, 2005 The concept of poésie critique poetry that possesses both a poetic and a critical function has an extensive history in modern literature Written in response to another work of art be it a painting a film a poem or a piece of music the critical poem comments on the latter in various ways but refuses to abandon its poetic mission Marvelous Encounters examines surrealist poets writing in French Spanish and Catalan who experimented with this intriguing genre The first three chapters are concerned with the French surrealists who began to cultivate critical poetry toward the end of World War I Chapter 2 considers how Louis Aragon and Philippe Soupault appropriated the critical poem as they reviewed books of poetry and films starring Charlie Chaplin Chapter 3 which examines how Benjamin Peret and Paul Eluard conceived of critical poetry analyzes their response to poems by Tristan Tzara and paintings by Giorgio de Chirico and Joan Miro Chapter 4 is devoted entirely to Andre Breton

Architectonics of Poiēsis Simina Anamaria Lörincz, 2024-06-10 This volume explores the meaning of the architectural creative act following the dynamics of the relationship between creator creative act creation and the way in which architecture is defined over time as a creative act both material and symbolic Two protagonists Antonio Averlino Filarete and Christopher Alexander are singled out under the guiding concepts of poesis and poeta faber The book initiates a dialogue over time between their works and concepts engaging two cultures the Renaissance and the contemporary symbolically chosen for their importance in redefining the profession through the prism of its relation to the architectural creative act The core idea revolves around rediscovering the humanistic approach to architecture in and for the contemporary context and using it in order to better understand architectural creation This text appeals to students and researchers working in the history and theory of architecture product industrial design and semiotics

Árbol de Alejandra Fiona Joy Mackintosh, Karl Posso, 2007 This volume reassesses Argentinian poet Alejandra Pizarnik 1936-72 in the light of recent publications to her complete poetry and prose and previously unavailable archive material

Octavio Paz and T. S. Eliot Tom Boll, 2017-12-02 When the sixteen year old Octavio Paz 1914-1998 discovered The Waste Land in Spanish translation it opened the doors of modern poetry The influence of T S Eliot would accompany Paz throughout his career defining many of his key poems and pronouncements Yet Paz's attitude towards his precursor was ambivalent Boll's study is the first to trace the history of Paz's engagement with Eliot in Latin American and Spanish periodicals of the 1930s and 40s It reveals the fault lines that run through the work of the dominant figure in recent Mexican letters By positioning Eliot in a Latin American context it also offers new perspectives on one of the capital figures of Anglo American modernism
