The Hero's Quest and the Cycles of Nature Rachel S. McCoppin,2016-10-25 This examination of the heroic journey in world mythology casts the protagonist as a personification of nature a botanical hero one might say who begins the quest in a metaphorical seed like state then sprouts into a period of verdant strength But the hero must face a mythic underworld where he or she contends with mortality and sacrifice embracing death as a part of life For centuries humans have sought superiority over nature yet the botanical hero finds nothing is lost by recognizing that one is merely a part of nature Instead a cyclical promise of continuous life is realized in which no element fully disappears and the hero s message is not to dwell on death

The Public Realm and the Public

Self Shiraz Dossa, 2006-01-01 From the time she set the intellectual world on fire with her reflections on Eichmann 1963 Hannah Arendt has been seen essentially as a literary commentator who had interesting things to say about political and cultural matters In this critical study Shiraz Dossa argues that Arendt is a political theorist in the sense in which Aristotle is a theorist and that the key to her political theory lies in the twin notions of the public realm and the public self In this work the author explains how Arendt's unconventional and controversial views make sense on the terrain of her political theory He shows that her judgement on thinkers actors and events as diverse as Plato Marx Machiavelli Freud Conrad Hobbes Hitler the Holocaust the French Revolution and European colonialism flow directly from her political theory Tracing the origins of this theory to Homer and Periclean Athens Dossa underlines Arendt's unique contribution to reinventing the idea and the ideal of citizenship reminding us that the public realm is the locus of friendship community identity and in a certain sense humanity Arendt believes that no one who prefers his or her private interest to public affairs in the old sense can claim to be fully human or truly excellent

Ingratitude Erin Khuê Ninh, 2011-03-28 2013 Winner of the Asian American Studies Association's prize in Literary Studies Anger and bitterness tend to pervade narratives written by second generation Asian American daughters despite their largely unremarkable upbringings In Ingratitude Erin Khuê Ninh explores this apparent paradox locating in the origins of these women's maddeningly immaterial suffering not only racial hegemonies but also the structure of the immigrant family itself She argues that the filial debt of these women both demands and defies repayment all the better to produce the docile subjects of a model minority Through readings of Jade Snow Wong's Fifth Chinese Daughter Maxine Hong Kingston's The Woman Warrior Evelyn Lau's Runaway Diary of a Street Kid Catherine Liu's Oriental Girls Desire Romance and other texts Ninh offers not an empirical study of intergenerational conflict so much as an explication of the subjection and psyche of the Asian American daughter She connects common literary tropes to their theoretical underpinnings in power profit and subjection In so doing literary criticism crosses over into a kind of collective memoir of the Asian immigrants daughter as an analysis not of the daughter but for and by her

Reconsidering the Origins of Recognition John Van Houdt, Arthur Kok, 2014-11-19 This volume brings together for the first time a group of young researchers who can be seen as representative of a new generation of researchers working on German idealism Over the past few decades several generations of the reception of German idealist philosophers have resulted in an intensive inspiring and fruitful debate about the concept recognition a central topic in German idealism and the central topic of this book Critically approaching many of the classical boundaries set up by earlier generations the new wave of researchers in this volume explores diagnoses analyzes and evaluates the prospects for and limits of recognition from an informed yet independent perspective The contributors to this volume overcome both the traditionally strong emphasis on practical especially political philosophy when dealing with recognition and classical divisions such as the divide between analytic and continental philosophy or between Frankfurt School interpretations and more scholarly approaches This unique combination of methodological interests leads to a variety of original voices which incorporate the history of reception while also showing how German idealism continues to inspire new generations of philosophers This book provides a first step toward a comprehensive conception of German idealism through critical re readings of the classical texts of German idealism approaching their argumentative potential their internal development and finally their limits A New Exploration of Hegel's Dialectics II Deng Xiaomang, 2022-05-10 Focusing on the self negation and reflective forms of Hegel's dialectics and representing the spirit of nous and logos respectively this volume explores core functions in the subjectivity free spirit and practicality of Hegelian dialectics As the second volume of a three volume set that gives insights into Hegel's dialectics and thereby his overall philosophical thought the book proposes and discusses the soul and form of Hegelian dialectics As the soul of Hegel's dialectics which represents the spirit of nous self negation plays a fundamental role in Hegel's philosophy and all other dialectical laws derive from this core principle with which the subjectivity and free spirit of Hegel's dialectics take shape along with their essential practicality The form of expression belonging to this negative dialectic as such is the reflective mode of thinking that represents the spirit of logos and it is this reflective mode of thinking that follows the logical procedure of reflecting on reflection rendering the progression of Hegel's dialectical subject lawful rational and logical The title will appeal to scholars and students interested in Hegel's and Marx's philosophy German classical philosophy and Western philosophy
