The Country of Here Below Wyn Cooper,1987      Mind the Gap: Borders, Limits and Frontiers Cahir Healy,2025-05-19 How do borders define political cultural and social realms influencing identity and community Mind the Gap Borders Limits and Frontiers explores such questions and comprises two parts the first section compiles interdisciplinary essays from leading scholars to critique borders in our global yet divided world Topics include national borders such as the Northern Irish border as well as conceptual and ontological borders more generally Border issues are similarly key to the second part of the book which publishes for the first time the imprisonment memoir of Irish politician Cahir Healy 1877 1970 who was a leading figure in the protest against the Partition of Ireland His memoir offers a first hand account of the conditions faced by Healy and other border objectors who were illegally imprisoned for two years on board the Argenta ship in Belfast Lough c 1922 1924 This book therefore goes beyond mapping border theory it addresses the real life impact of borders on those who confront them daily and is a vital read for those interested in border studies      Literature and Ecotheology George B. Handley,2024-07-22 Literature and Ecotheology From Chaos to Cosmos challenges us in a time of climate crisis to find more common ground between the dual projects of ecocriticism and ecotheology This book argues that in our postsecular age literature has become an important repository of theological wisdom that can like formal work in ecotheology provide the moral grounds for environmental care However for any cosmological understanding to be adequate to the challenges before us it must be responsive to the often painful contingencies and uncertainties that inhere in the cosmos something that both ecocriticism and ecotheology have often neglected After a treatment of the ecocritical and ecotheological questions that pertain to the religious secular divide the study then turns to four contemporary American writers Annie Dillard Cormac McCarthy Marilynne Robinson and David James Duncan as examples Each uses the contingency of literary form and its promise of wholeness in order to imagine reasons for hope in light of the unpredictability and untold human and more than human suffering that lie at the heart of nature The book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers interested in ecotheology religious studies environmental literature the environmental humanities and environmental studies more broadly It offers a needed paradigm shift in how Western societies have tended to misuse both secularity and religion      Praktisches englisch-deutsches und deutsch-englisches Wörterbuch Johann G. made sense of their lives in reference to the land Growing and finding food along with the multiple practices of home maintenance and the cultivations of communities were the abiding concerns that shaped what people understood about and expected from life In Agrarian Spirit Norman Wirzba demonstrates how agrarianism is of vital and continuing significance for spiritual life today Far from being the exclusive concern of a dwindling number of farmers this book shows how agrarian practices are an important corrective to the political and economic policies that are doing so much harm to our society and habitats It is an invitation to the personal transformation that equips all people to live peaceably and beautifully with each other and the land Agrarian Spirit begins with a clear and concise affirmation of creaturely life Wirzba shows that a human life is inextricably entangled with the lives of fellow animals and plants and that individual flourishing must always include the flourishing of the habitats that nourish and sustain our life together The book explores how agrarian sensibilities and responsibilities transform the practices of prayer perception mystical union humility gratitude and hope Wirzba provides an elegant and compelling account of spiritual life that is both attuned to ancient scriptural sources and keyed to addressing the pressing social and ecological concerns of today Scholars and students of theology ecotheology and spirituality as well as readers interested in agrarian and environmental studies will gain much from this book Florence Macarthy; an Irish Tale
