Material Change Jan De Maeyer, Peter Jan Margry, 2021-12-17 The long nineteenth century c 1780 c 1920 in Western Europe saw an unprecedented rise in the production and possession of material goods The material culture diversified and led to a rich variety of expressions Dovetailing with a process of confessionalisation that manifested itself quite simultaneously material religion witnessed its heyday in this period from church buildings to small devotional objects The present volume analyses how various types of reform state societal and ecclesiastical that were part of the process of modernisation affected the material devotional culture within Protestantism Anglicanism and Roman Catholicism Although the contributions in this book start from a comparative European perspective the case studies mostly focus on individual countries in North West Europe namely Germany Belgium the Netherlands the United Kingdom Ireland Norway Sweden and Denmark The concept of material religion is approached in a very inclusive way The volume discusses amongst others parish infrastructures and religious buildings that are part of land and cityscapes but also looks into interior design and decorations of chapels churches monasteries cemeteries and educational charitable and health institutions It comprises the fine arts of religious painting and sculpture the applied arts and iconographic designs As far as private material culture is concerned this volume examines and presents objects related to private devotion at home including a great variety of popular devotional and everyday life objects such as booklets cards photographs and posters      A New History of Ireland, Volume II Art

Cosgrove, 2008-11-06 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day Volume II opens with a character study of medieval Ireland and a panoramic view of the country c 1169 followed by nineteen chapters of narrative history with a survey of Land and People c 1300 There are further chapters on Gaelic and colonial society economy and trade literature in Irish French and English architecture and sculpture manuscripts and illuminations and coinage      On the

Other Side of Sorrow James Hunter, 2014-07-03 An extraordinary intellectual voyage through Gaelic environmental awareness centuries ahead of its time and its value today The Herald Caring for the environment developing rural communities and ensuring the survival of minority cultures are all laudable objectives but they can conflict and nowhere more so than the Scottish Highlands As environmentalists strive to preserve the scenery and wildlife of the Highlands the people who belong there and who have their own claims on the landscape question this new threat to their culture which dates back thousands of years In this sensitive thought provoking book James Hunter probes deep into this culture to examine the dispute between Highlanders who developed a strong environmental awareness a thousand years before other Europeans and conservationists whose thinking owes much to the romantic ideals of the nineteenth century More than that he also suggests a new way of dealing with the problem advocating drastic land use changes and the repopulation of empty glens an approach that has worldwide implications A very thoughtful piece of advocacy The Scotsman Fifty Key Thinkers on History Marnie Hughes-Warrington,2007-10-31 Fifty Key Thinkers on History is a superb guide to historiography through the ages The cross section of debates and thinkers covered is unique in its breadth taking in figures from ancient China Greece and Rome through the Middle Ages to contemporary Europe America Africa and Australia from Bede to Braudel Marx to Michelet Ranke to Rowbotham Foucault to Fukuyama Each clear and concise essay offers biographical information a summary and discussion of the subjects approach to history and how others have engaged with it a list of their major works and a guide to diverse resources for further study including books articles films and websites A New History of Ireland, Volume II Theodore William Moody,Art Cosgrove,Francis X. female diaspora in Newfoundland India North America England Australia Africa and the Philippines Nano Nagle The Life and the Education Legacy throws opens a new window on an unknown aspect of Irish social history while also demonstrating Ireland's significant contribution to the global history of female education The Treasury of History ... New Edition Samuel MAUNDER, 1872

The Manchester Martyrs Joseph O'Neill, 2012-03-01 A thrilling account of the events surrounding the execution of three Fenians known as the Manchester Martyrs Their execution during a turbulent period of Irish history in 1867 united the Irish people in a patriotic fervour and outrage not matched until 1916 The events surrounding the dramatic rescue of Fenian leaders resulting in the Martyrs execution attracted worldwide attention and sparked anti British protests across the globe Their trial is one of the most infamous British court cases of the nineteenth century and their hanging was Britain's last public multiple execution In 2006 Bertie Ahern announced that the Irish government would grant the Martyrs a full state funeral and re inter them in a grave at Glasnevin Cemetery The plan foundered because their remains could not be located at that time This book reveals the location of the remains and explains why they will never be returned to Ireland

The Princeton History of Modern Ireland Richard Bourke, Ian McBride, 2016-01-12 An accessible and innovative look at Irish history by some of today's most exciting historians of Ireland This book brings together some of today's most exciting scholars of Irish history to chart the pivotal events in the history of modern Ireland while providing fresh perspectives on topics ranging from colonialism and nationalism to political violence famine emigration and feminism The Princeton History of Modern Ireland takes readers from the Tudor conquest in the sixteenth century to the contemporary boom and bust of the Celtic Tiger exploring key political developments as well as major social and cultural movements Contributors describe how the experiences of empire and diaspora have determined Ireland's position in the wider world and analyze them alongside domestic changes ranging from the Irish language to the economy They trace the literary and intellectual history of Ireland from Jonathan Swift to Seamus Heaney and look at important shifts in ideology and belief delving into subjects such as religion gender and Fenianism Presenting the latest cutting edge scholarship by a new generation of historians of Ireland The Princeton History of Modern Ireland features narrative chapters on Irish history followed by thematic chapters on key topics The book highlights the global reach of the Irish experience as well as commonalities shared across Europe and brings vividly to life an Irish past shaped by conquest plantation assimilation revolution and partition The Course of Irish History

Theodore William Moody, Francis X. Martin, 1984 Ireland's 1916 Rising Mark McCarthy, 2016-05-06 In light of its upcoming centenary in 2016 the time seems ripe to ask why how and in what ways has memory of Ireland's 1916 Rising persisted over the decades In pursuing answers to these questions which are not only of historical concern but of contemporary political and cultural importance this book breaks new ground by offering a wide ranging exploration of the making and remembrance of the story of 1916 in modern times It draws together the interlocking dimensions of history making commemoration and heritage to reveal the Rising's undeniable influence upon modern Ireland's evolution both instantaneous and long term In addition to furnishing a history of the tumultuous events of Easter 1916 which rattled the British Empire's foundations and enthused independence movements elsewhere Ireland's 1916 Rising mainly concentrates on illuminating the evolving relationship between the Irish past and present In doing so it unearths the far reaching political impacts and deep seated cultural legacies of the actions taken by the rebels as evidenced by the most pivotal episodes in the Rising's commemoration and the myriad varieties of heritage associated with its memory This volume also presents a wider perspective on the ways in which conceptualisations of heritage culture and identity in Westernised societies are shaped by continuities and changes in politics society and economy In a topical conclusion the book examines the legacy of Queen Elizabeth II's visit to the Garden of Remembrance in 2011 and looks to the Rising's 100th anniversary by identifying the common ground that can be found in pluralist and reconciliatory approaches to remembrance Notes on Books, 1875

Anti-Terrorism Law and Normalising Northern Ireland Jessie Blackbourn, 2014-08-07 The Northern Ireland peace process has been heralded by those involved as a successful example of transformation from a violent conflict to a peaceful society This book examines the implementation of the Belfast Agreement in Northern Ireland and evaluates whether its goal to establish a normal peaceful society has been fully realised Using the political and legal status of England Scotland and Wales as a comparison Jessie Blackbourn evaluates eight aspects of Northern Ireland which the Agreement aimed to normalise the contested constitutional status of Northern Ireland the devolution of power decommissioning the removal of emergency laws demilitarisation police reform criminal justice reform and paramilitary prisoners The book highlights the historical context which gave rise to the need for a programme of normalisation within the Belfast Agreement with respect to these areas and assesses the extent to which that programme of normalisation has been successfully implemented By evaluating the implementation of the Belfast Agreement the book demonstrates the difficulties that transitional or post conflict states face in attempting to wind back extraordinary counter terrorism policies after periods of violence have been brought to an end The book will be of great use to students and researchers concerned with the emergence evolution and repeal of anti terrorism laws and anyone interested in the history of the conflict and peace process in Northern Ireland

History, Heroism and Home Terence Kearey, 2012-02-20 In 1816 the author's great great grandfather Thomas Kearey arrived in England to seek his fortune He was the latest but by no means the last in a line of strong and resourceful men This book is the story of the Keareys and of their place in history through the centuries It relates how the Ciarraí Ciar's people in the Ireland of the Dark Ages evolved into the modern Keareys how holders of that name laboured loved and fought through the centuries and how in more recent times they were proud to fight with honour for their adopted country of Britain in two world wars Terence Kearey has woven the carefully researched story of what happened to his family over the centuries into the economic and social history of these islands explaining how his ancestors coped with and in some cases helped to change the vicissitudes of poverty war and economic and social change The result is a detailed and vivid picture of a past that is quickly fading from memory      Ireland's Mysterious Lands and Sunken Cities Jon Douglas Singer, 2001-04-13 The Emerald Isle of Ireland has inspired a vast number of legends about lost or sunken lands and cities These legends predate Roman and Christian influences This book examines the intriguing nature of these legends and reviews anthropological and geological evidence supporting them Was these indeed a Tir fo Thuin the Land Under Wave a combination of the dead and a paradise Reviewed in Ireland of the Welcomes Vol 50 No 6 November December 2001 p 54 by Mary OSullivan Stories of sunken cities monasteries churches and royal palaces are scattered hither and yon across the broad landscape of Irish folklore The fishermen of Lough Neagh believe that their huge lake conceals the proud remains of palaces and temples more firmly than the inhabitants of Scotland accept the existence of the Lough Ness monster Hy Brazil or Hy Breasail the legendary sunken paradise island is of course somewhere off the western seaboard and thanks to its frequent reappearances on the surface it persists on maps into the sixteenth century The great Thomas Westropp reports personal sightings one evening after sunset in 1887 off the Clare coast and again in 1910 this time on the Mayo coast There are persistent stories of the image of a stately city clearly visible set in the sky above Galway bay usually during spells of warm calm sunny weather Come over next summer with an open mind You never know your luck      20th Century Europe Arthur Drea, 2012-07 In terms of major events the 20th century influences nations regions and peoples in profound and all inclusive ways It was a century of earth shaking contradictory events great evil genocide and destruction on massive scales on the one hand and at the same time inventions discoveries and political social improvements which have improved the lives of billions of people Most of the inventors and scientists and in too many cases the worst tyrants were Europeans The pages within guide the reader on this exciting often bloody and yet hope filled journey Edgar B Schick Ph D Arthur Drea has written a compelling and readable primer of the utmost intellectual value to history students and the general public alike for a course in European History of the Twentieth Century He achieves this desired effect with exactitude and concision which match his course s focus on just over one hundred years of causation leading to the contemporary state of European society and economy Indeed every tributary stream of events of this social political and economic type is seamlessly channeled into the main course of Drea s explanation and analysis with the flawless timing that characterizes narrative history at its best Edwin L Hetfield Jr Ph D      The Journal of Education ,1906      The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1862
