Selected Bibliography United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1971 Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Wenying Xu,2022-08-15 A Library Journal Best Reference Book of 2022 This book represents the culmination of over 150 years of literary achievement by the most diverse ethnic group in the United States Diverse because this group of ethnic Americans includes those whose ancestral roots branch out to East Asia Southeast Asia South Asia and Western Asia Even within each of these regions there exist vast differences in languages cultures religions political systems and colonial histories From the earliest publication in 1887 to the latest in 2021 this dictionary celebrates the incredibly rich body of fiction poetry memoirs plays and children s literature Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 700 cross referenced entries on genres major terms and authors This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this topic US-China Relations in the Twenty-First Century

Michael Tai,2015-04-24 The relationship between the United States and China will be of critical importance to the world throughout the twenty first century In the West China s rise is often portrayed as a threat and China seen in negative terms This book explores the dynamics of this crucial relationship It looks in particular at what causes an international relationship to be perceived negatively and considers what can be done to reverse this arguing that trust is a key factor It goes on to discuss US and Chinese rhetoric and behaviour in three key areas climate change finance and international security The book contends that contrary to much US rhetoric China's actions in these areas is often much more flexible and accommodating than the US position and that the Chinese are much more knowledgeable about and understanding and appreciative of the United States than vice versa Biographical Books, 1950-1980 R.R. Books on Asia from the Near East to the Far East Eleazar Birnbaum, 1971-12-15 This is a selected annotated list of some 2 000 books on Asia in English and French currently in print chosen with the aim of providing a long term historical perspective for the general reader The list is presented in four main parts Asia as a whole the Islamic world India South and Southeast Asia the Far East Subdivisions cover such topics as general and reference works history social science and law history of literature literature in translation religion and ideas arts crafts architecture and science and the lands in modern times Around 1945 Allan Hepburn, 2016-06-01 Near the end of the Second World War new ideas about citizenship national identity belonging and rights emerged as the atrocities of the war coupled with the dropping of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki spurred writers and citizens around the world to think about their responsibilities to their fellow man Covering British authors and contemporary fiction by migrant writers publishing at mid century as well as some photography from the era Around 1945 is a collection of essays that reveals how literary texts and cultural events modeled human rights issues such as dignity freedom sovereignty and responsibility Unified by an investigation of the human and cultural aspects of universal rights these essays show that British writers tested the parameters of citizenship and rights in novelistic form By imagining duties and rights of citizens in hypothetical contexts these novels expanded on the legislated entitlements and obligations that make up civic and human identity To this day the repercussions of 1945 continue to unfold in stories about statehood refugees humanitarianism displacement and national belonging At the same time novels continue to imagine the human person equal in rights and dignity before the law yet often compromised by the political exigencies of nation states that do not recognize legal political or human rights Tracing the rippling consequences of the Second World War from 1945 through the Cold War and into the present Around 1945 is an extraordinarily rich volume that will alter our perception of pre and post war British literature Contributors include Nadine Attewell McMaster Mitchell C Brown Dalhousie Matthew Hart Columbia Janice Ho Colorado Emily Hyde Rowan Peter Kalliney Kentucky Marina MacKay Oxford Melanie Micir Washington St Louis Adam Piette Sheffield Claire Seiler Dickinson College and Ian Whittington Mississippi

Legacies of Childhood Jon L. Saari, 2020-03-17 Jon L Saari defines the generation of educated Chinese born around the turn of the twentieth century as the last to have the world of Confucian learning etched into their memories as schoolboys yet the first as a group to confront the intrusive Western world The legacies of growing up in a changing environment deeply affected this generation's responses to the further changes in the world they confronted as adults In the collapse of the Qing dynasty and the chaos of the early twentieth century traditional ideas of the self the nature of relationships in society and ethical behavior had to be reexamined and redefined To reconstruct what those who lived through and shaped this extraordinary period felt needed thought and became as children and adults Saari draws on autobiographical writings and his own interviews among the elderly on Taiwan and Hong Kong He interprets this material within its Chinese context but brings Western sociological anthropological and psychological insights to bear on it Life Mapping as Cultural Legacy

I-Chun Wang, Mary Theis, 2021-01-15 This volume celebrates a fascinating variety of nonfiction known as life writing This genre resonates quintessentially with the core of the humanities in its profoundly individual ways of fusing narrators with their narrative subjects The book brings together scholars from around the world to explore the personal mapping of such narrators in the context of their cultural legacies The hybrid fusions themselves form several subgenres that complement each other as they affirm human dignity and values and our need for human connection felt at all times but especially during times of globally met threats The ever expanding forms of hybridography here along with testimonies diaries letters and journals bear witness to how individuals have contrived to overcome their own traumatic sources of pain and suffering to discover joy and how to further map their pathways forward The narratives not only communicate important information and aesthetic beauty needed to prolong troubled lives due to social anxiety or mental illness but also challenge sociocultural issues involving stigma migration racial discrimination and persecution human trafficking and ecological concerns Global in scope personal in focus and historically and culturally contextualized the analyses provided here once again illustrate how much we have to learn from each other The Creative Woman, 1984 Street Culture in Chengdu Di Wang, 2003 A study of the lively street culture in Chengdu from 1870 to 1930 this book explores the relationship between urban commoners and public space the role of community and neighborhood in public life and how the reform movement and Republican revolution transformed everyday life in this inland city Negotiating Identities Helen Grice, 2002-10-11 Negotiating Identities is a study of the development of writing by Asian American women in the 20th century with particular emphasis on the successful late 20th century writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Joy Kogawa Bharati Mukherjee and Gish Jen It relates the development of Asian writing by women in America with a comparative element incorporating Britain to a series of theoretical preoccupations the mother daughter dyad biracialism ethnic histories citizenship genre and the idea of home
