Stout, 2013-06-17 This text examines the history theory cultural context and professional aspects of media and religion While religion has been explored more fully in psychology sociology anthropology and the humanities there is no clear bridge of understanding to the communication discipline Daniel A Stout tackles this issue by providing a roadmap for examining this understudied area so that discussions about media and religion can more easily proceed Offering great breadth this text covers key concepts and historical highlights world religions denominations and cultural religion and religion and specific media genres The text also includes key terms and questions to ponder for every chapter and concludes with an in class learning activity that can be used to encourage students to explore the media religion interface and review the essential ideas presented in the book Media and Religion is an ideal introduction for undergraduate students in need of a foundation for this emerging field      A Conflict of Paradigms Rebecca K. Webb, 2008-08-21 In this combined examination of the history theories and practices in the teaching of English the author presents compelling insight and practical solutions to the crisis in English education and the conflict among critical theories radical pedagogy classroom practice epistemics the pressure to vocationalize the curriculum and the corporatization of institutes of learning      Adolescent Boy's Literate Identity Mary Rice, 2011-05-27 A representation of a narrative inquiry conducted with five ninth grade boys that were identified as displaying multiple literacies looking specifically at how these boys storied their literate identities      Tropicália Ana Leorne, 2025-05-01 This comprehensive portrait of Tropic lia exploring everything from influences and results to context and main players demonstrates how the genre helped reinvent Brazil s cultural identity in a post colonial world While bossa nova nurtured a snobbish audience rooted in jazz and M sica popular brasileira MPB spoke to a multicultural yet oppressed nation Tropic lia invested in a crossover instigated by the progressive youth who refused to glorify a past it didn t identify with and whose outdated codes it didn t intend to perpetuate This portrait of Tropic lia exploring everything from influences and results to context and main players shows how the genre helped reinvent Brazil s cultural identity in a postcolonial world The genre s core comes from a unique mix of native and foreign influences Tropic lia doesn t reject the international pop panorama but is an undeniable product of it The book sets the strangling military dictatorship and its resulting censorship serving as the sociopolitical backdrop of the genre Tropic lia propelled culture and counterculture forward moving away from senseless niche intellectualisms in favour of a broader reach of Brazilian music

Other Others Steven Shankman, 2011-01-02 In literary and cultural studies today the term the Other appears to have largely lost its moorings in the primacy of the intersubjective encounter focusing rather on the social construction of the Other For Emmanuel Levinas in contrast the Other is precisely that which eludes construction and categorization In a study that ranges from literature of ancient China Greece and Israel to modern Egypt Italy West Africa and America Steven Shankman tests Levinas s ideas by reading literary works from outside the Judeo Christian orbit for figurations equivalent to Levinas s notion of the Other He also places ethics at the center of intercultural or in his words transcultural comparative literature In contemporary literary and cultural studies it is often assumed that culture has the last word However as Levinas insists and as Shankman argues throughout this book it is ethics that is the presupposition of all Culture that is situated before Culture

Engaging Europe Evlyn Gould, George J. Sheridan, George J. Sheridan Jr., 2007-05-10 What and where and who is Europe This unique collection contends that Europe cannot be defined as simply a particular geographic location or a group of citizens who inhabit the same place and share a culture Instead Europe is a question to be answered by the teachers and students who study it A collaborative and multidisciplinary collection Engaging Europe explores Europe through history literature philosophy music and ethical narratives A set of imaginative contributors investigates European identity through a variety of cases including Greece and Rome the Bible the Enlightenment and the Shoah Scholars of literature history and classics as well as a composer grapple with students doubts about Europe s future relevance The complexity of the topic leads to creativity in each chapter from a musical composition in words to poetry to a dialogue between Baudelaire and Adam Smith Engaging Europe is a major part of an experiment that hopes to find more intellectually exciting ways to teach Europe to students in American higher education Contributions by Evlyn Gould Joseph Krause Robert Kyr Massimo Lollini Alexander B Murphy John Nicols Steven Shankman George J Sheridan Jr and Malcolm Wilson

Fate in Film Thomas M. Puhr, 2022-10-18 The course of events is predetermined and cannot be changed Forces beyond our control or even our comprehension shape our fates Such is the deterministic worldview embedded in a wide swath of contemporary cinema from arthouse experiments to popular genre films through both thematic concerns and narrative structures These films especially the recent spate of elevated science fiction and horror tap into this deep seated anxiety by focusing on characters who ultimately fail to transcend the patterns and structures that define them Thomas M Puhr identifies and analyzes the ways that cinema has dealt with the tension between fate and free will from Stanley Kubrick's The Shining to Christopher Nolan's Tenet He examines films that express deterministic ideas including circular narratives of stasis or confinement and fatalistic portraits of external forces dictating characters' lives Puhr considers determinism at the levels of the individual the family and society reading films in which characters are trapped by past or alternate selves the burdens of family histories or oppressive social structures He explores how films such as Joel and Ethan Coen's Inside Llewyn Davis Ari Aster's Hereditary Jordan Peele's Us and Lucrecia Martel's Zama confront the limits of human agency Puhr relates deterministic themes to the nature of moviegoing In denying characters any ability to choose alternative paths these films mirror how viewers themselves can only sit and watch Recasting the works of some of today's most compelling directors Fate in Film is an innovative critical account of an unrecognized yet crucial aspect of contemporary cinema

The Rhetorics of Feminism Lynne Pearce, 2013-04-15 Is it possible that changes in rhetorical practice could alter not just how thought is expressed but also how it is made Through a close stylistic and rhetorical analysis of contemporary feminist writing from the cultural theory of Judith Butler to the popular journalism of Naomi Wolf and Germaine Greer Lynne Pearce demonstrates how feminist thought is created as well as communicated through the frameworks in which it is presented By linking rhetorical innovation with feminist epistemology in such a direct way this is a book that will be of immense methodological as well as theoretical interest to readers providing valuable insight into the often mysterious processes of conception and composition rigor or thoroughness This new edition provides in depth coverage of the most common approaches to literary analysis today feminism psychoanalysis Marxism reader response theory new criticism structuralism and semiotics deconstruction new historicism cultural criticism lesbian gay queer theory African American criticism and postcolonial criticism The chapters provide an extended explanation of each theory using examples from everyday life popular culture and literary texts a list of specific questions critics who use that theory ask about literary texts an interpretation of F Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby through the lens of each theory a list of questions for further practice to guide readers in applying each theory to different literary works and a bibliography of primary and secondary works for further reading     Blake's Heroic Argument David Fuller, 2015-08-14 First published in 1988 this book is a study of all Blake's work in illuminated printing It traces in particular the development of his ideas on politics religion sexuality and the imagination There are substantial sections on some of Blake's best known works including the Marriage of Heaven and Hell and the Songs of Innocence and Experience and full critical essays on the Four Zoas and Jerusalem The book describes the historical contexts of Blake's work and sets it in relation to the political controversies of his age as these are reflected in the writings of Burke Paine and Mary Wollstonecraft It discusses the relationships of text and design in Blake the characteristic verbal textures and rhythms of his longer poems some influences on his thought and developing structure of his personal myth and its relationship to other mythologies The opening chapter discusses areas of fundamental disagreement with some of the main approaches to Blake whilst the final chapter discusses literary theory and the practice of criticism arguing for an open and explicit involvement of personal experience and values and a more creative use of form in critical writing     Teaching Modernist Women's Writing in English Janine Utell, 2021-04-25 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching anglophone modernist writing by Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein Dorothy Richardson Jean Rhys Nella Larsen and others Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature and writing Covers topics such as feminism gender identity canon formation politics activism and war Suggests many digital humanities approaches     Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction Thom Dancer, 2021 From climate catastrophe to pandemics and economic crises the problems facing humanity are dizzyingly complex and increasingly planetary in scale Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction argues for contemporary fiction's capacity to help those who may feel despair at the enormity of such problems not as one might think through the ambitious search for grand solutions but rather by inculcating a temperament of modesty This new temperament of critical modesty locates the fight for freedom and human dignity within the limited and compromised conditions in which we find ourselves Through readings of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith J M Coetzee and David Mitchell this volume shows how contemporary works of literature model modesty as a critical temperament Exploring modest forms of entangled human agency that represent an alternative to the novel of the large scale that have been most closely associated with the Anthropocene it makes the surprising yet compelling case that precisely by adopting a modest stance the novel actually has the potential to play a more important socio cultural role In doing so the book offers an engaging response to the debate over critical and surface readings bringing novels into the conversation and arguing for a fictional mode that is both critical and modest reminding us how much we are already engaged with the world implicated and compromised before we start developing theories writing stories or acting within it Swoon Naomi Booth,2021-11-30 Swoon is the first extensive study of literary swooning homing in on swooning s rich history as well as its potential to provide new insights into the contemporary This study demonstrates that passing out has had a pivotal place in English literature Beginning with an introduction to the swoon as a marker of aesthetic sensitivity it includes chapters on swooning and generic transformation in Chaucer and Shakespeare morbid feminised swoons and excessive affect in romantic gothic and modernist works irony clich and bathos in the swoons of contemporary romance fiction This book revisits key texts to show that passing out has been intimately connected to explorations of emotionality ecstasy and transformation to depictions of sickness and dying and to performances of gender and gendering Swoon offers an exciting new approach the history of the body alongside the history of literary response

Reading, Writing, and the Rhetorics of Whiteness Wendy Ryden,Ian Marshall,2013-03 In this volume Ryden and Marshall bring together the field of composition and rhetoric with critical whiteness studies to show that in our post race era whiteness and racism not only survive but actually thrive in higher education As they examine the effects of racism on contemporary literacy practices and the rhetoric by which white privilege maintains and reproduces itself Ryden and Marshall consider topics ranging from the emotional investment in whiteness to the role of personal narrative in reconstituting racist identities to critiques of the foundational premises of writing programs steeped in repudiation of despised discourses Marshall and Ryden alternate chapters to sustain a multi layered dialogue that traces the rhetorical complexities and contradictions of teaching English and writing in a university setting Their lived experiences as faculty and administrators serve to underscore the complex code of whiteness even as they push to decode it and demonstrate how their own pedagogical practices are raced and racialized in multiple ways Collectively the essays ask instructors and administrators to consider more carefully the pernicious nature of whiteness in their professional activities and how it informs our practices Empathy and Reading Suzanne Keen,2022-06-23 This pioneering collection brings together Suzanne Keen s extensive body of work on empathy and reading charting the development of narrative empathy as an area of inquiry in its own right and extending cross disciplinary conversations about empathy evoked by reading The volume offers a brief overview of the trajectory of research following the 2007 publication of Empathy and the Novel with empathy understood as a suite of related phenomena as stimulated by representations in narratives The book is organized around three thematic sections theories empathetic readers and interdisciplinary applications each preceded by a short framing essay The volume features excerpts from the author s seminal works on narrative empathy and makes available her harder to access contributions The book brings different strands of the author s research into conversation with existing debates with the aim of inspiring future interdisciplinary research on narrative empathy This book will be of interest to students and scholars in such fields as literary studies cognitive science emotion studies affect studies and applied contexts where empathetic practitioners work
