The Curates Wife Virago Modern Classics:

The Curate's Wife Emily Hilda Young, 1985 Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young s novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel

Miss Mole E.H. Young, 2020-10-01 Young is a sharp and funny writer with a brilliant eye for moral fudging and verbal hypocrisy and she has a splendid foil in Miss Mole Sally Beauman WINNER OF THE JAMES TAIT BLACK MEMORIAL PRIZE Who would suspect her sense of fun and irony of a passionate love for beauty and the power to drag it from its hidden places Who would imagine that Miss Mole had pictured herself at different times as an explorer in strange lands as a lady wrapped in luxury and delicate garments Miss Hannah Mole has for twenty years earned her living precariously as a governess or companion to a succession of difficult old women Now aged forty a thin and shabby figure she returns to Radstowe the lovely city of her youth Here she is if not exactly welcomed at least employed as housekeeper by the pompous Reverend Robert Corder whose daughters are sorely in need of guidance But even the dreariest situation can be transformed into an adventure by the indomitable Miss Mole Blessed with imagination wit and intelligence she wins the affection of Ethel and her nervous sister Ruth But her past holds a secret that if brought to life would jeopardise everything

Love Elizabeth von Arnim,2014-03-06 A gentle romance begins innocently enough in the stalls of a London theatre where Catherine is enjoying her ninth and Christopher his thirty sixth visit to the same play He is a magnificent young man with flame coloured hair She is the sweetest little thing in a hat There is just one complication Christopher is twenty five while Catherine is just a little bit older Flattered by the passionate attentions of youth Catherine with marriage and motherhood behind her is at first circumspect but finally succumbs to her lover s charms The engaging humour of this autobiographical novel blunts the bitter edge of irony in the hypocrisy of 1920s society
