Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29

Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter- and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross-references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students as well as non-academic readers.

C. Day-Lewis: The Golden Bridle Albert

Gelpi, Bernard O'Donoghue, 2018-01-26 C. Day Lewis was a major figure in British poetry and culture from the 1930s until his death in 1972. The Golden Bridle: Selected Prose takes its title from the myth of Bellerophon and the golden bridle of Pegasus which Day Lewis invoked on several occasions as a metaphor for the creative process. Day Lewis as poet is then the organizing idea of this anthology and the selections indicate the scope and range of his vital engagement with English life and letters. Organised into four parts, the volume illustrates Day Lewis's reflections on the role and function of poetry in society and culture, the creative process and the workings of the imagination as well as the nature of poetic truth and its relation to science. Poets who were of particular importance to Day Lewis and the poetic process in relation to the composition of several of his own poems. The notes indicate the particular source, circumstances and central issues of each piece to provide a brief intellectual biography and critical account of this eminent poet's development and standing.

A Companion to Literature, Film, and Adaptation Deborah Cartmell, 2012-08-03 This is a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore the aesthetics, economics and mechanics of movie adaptation from the days of silent cinema to contemporary franchise phenomena. Featuring a range of theoretical approaches and chapters on the historical, ideological and economic aspects of adaptation, the volume reflects today's acceptance of intertextuality as a vital and progressive cultural force. Incorporates new research in adaptation studies. Features a chapter on the Harry Potter franchise as well as other contemporary perspectives. Showcases work by leading Shakespeare adaptation scholars. Explores fascinating topics such as unfilmable texts Includes detailed considerations of Ian McEwan s Atonement and Conrad s Heart of Darkness
