

French Revolution: Reform & Terror

A Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen

1. Men are born and stay free and equal in rights. The French have heretofore achieved others the same laws, constitutions, of independence & with this, recognize the changes of England.
2. Citizens's rights are inseparable; all have the right to give their person, property, force to the French and English constitutions. (The English constitution established a formal assembly within the absolute monarch's jurisdiction) includes religious liberty, peace, without violating the power of independent nation.
3. Liberty is the power to do what doesn't harm the rights of another man & woman. Liberty without like 2, 4 and 5, means the equality of everyone despite being in different status. Liberty is not luxury, a new system or that others get nothing and the ethnically inferior don't have nothing.

The Execution of Louis XVI

1. Louis XVI's execution was pre-announced that he will be executed & sentenced to his death.
2. The people who signed it first had to be prepared to defend and attack to uphold the king's death.
3. I think they had to be prepared first so that every people could describe and to describe his story. I also think they wanted the death to be a public event because of his death.

Execution by guillotine

1. The guillotine was used to execute people who were found to be guilty of treason, murder, etc. It was a public event and people were allowed to watch and hear the execution.
2. The guillotine was used to execute people who were found to be guilty of treason, murder, etc. It was a public event and people were allowed to watch and hear the execution.
3. The guillotine was used to execute people who were found to be guilty of treason, murder, etc. It was a public event and people were allowed to watch and hear the execution.
