Terror in the Starboard Seat Dave McIntosh,1980 Terror in the Starboard Seat Dave McIntosh,1998 The Mystery of Frankenberg's Canadian Airman Peter Hessel,2005-09-02 The Mystery of Frankenberg's Airman is the account of painstaking research in a quest for the truth about an unsolved war crime Through Footless Halls of Air Floyd Williston,1996 All the Fine Young Eagles David L. Bashow,2016-10-15 During the six years of the Second World War Canadian fighter pilots flew and fought with great distinction in every theatre of war to which Commonwealth fighter forces were deployed All the Fine Young Eagles captures the spirit and magnitude of the Canadian contribution which began in Europe's Low Countries in 1940 and ended among the Japanese Home Islands in 1945 In keeping with the country's developing autonomy Canadians served in both RAF and RCAF units fighting with great courage in their Spitfires Hurricanes Kittyhawks and Typhoons All the Fine Young Eagles collects the wartime diaries and postwar reminiscences from a great variety of the Canadian fighter pilots who served in World War II Their vivid first hand accounts take the reader into the cockpit to experience dogfights tactical manoeuvres forced landings and injuries as well as the often tedious periods between engagements They also illuminate the day to day living conditions on base and include humorous accounts of the vivid personalities and lighter moments of wartime To provide context for their stories Bashow's authoritative voice offers both a large scale historical framework and detailed information about tactics equipment and people including such famous flying aces as Buzz Beurling and Moose Fumerton This updated second edition contains a substantial amount of new material that veterans have contributed since the publication of the first edition Aces, Warriors and Wingmen Wayne Ralph,2008-09-11 A celebration and a tribute to the warriors of the air who as young men served their country with unselfish devotion Hear their words Join these young Canadians in combat AN EXCERPT FROM THE ACCOUNT OF GROUP CAPTAIN RAYNE SCHULTZ 410 SQUADRON It was heading home very fast a Junkers 188 in thin cloud well out over the North Sea We hit it badly and it was flaming two three hundred yards of flames streaming behind my navigator being a serious minded individual said Let's get in closer and take a good look at it as it is a different type of aircraft and I can report on it when we get down So I closed in which was the stupidest thing I ever did The mid upper gunner was not dead he was sitting inside of the flames The next thing I saw the gun traversing down toward us I broke as fast as I could but he put forty to forty four 13mm cannon shells into us I had pistons blown out of one engine and the constant speed unit blown out in the other We were going to bail out We jettisoned the door and the navigator was halfway out when the chap came back from the Ground Control Intercept GCI and said There is a Force 9 to 10 sea and we will never be able to rescue you So we brought that aircraft back to Bradwell Bay and I can tell you it near flew again My navigator was wounded bleeding from the face I could see the engines running red hot one was actually running on molten metal the whole thing glowing inside The air bottles were shot away and I had no brakes for landing The Mosquito was in ribbons Cream of the Crop Allan Douglas

English,1996 A unique offering to military studies critiquing the effectiveness of the Royal Canadian Air Forces aircrew preparations for war a selection system and training program which became a modern model English war studies Royal Military College of Canada traces the development of aviation psychology and the treatment of psychological casualties in air combat paying attention to the controversy of diagnosing aviators as lacking moral fibre and its effect on morale By exploring these issues the author includes the human dimension as an influence on air force effectiveness as much as material and technological innovations Includes some photographs Canadian card order number C96 900371 4 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Aku! the History of Tuna Fishing in Hawaii and the Western Pacific Peter year long exertion caused disruption provoked nationwide industrialization ushered in changes to gender roles exacerbated the tension between English and French and forged a new sense of Canadian identity Canadians were willing to bear almost any burden and to pay the ultimate price in the pursuit of victory As with his award winning two volume series on WWI Tim Cook uses original sources letters from soldiers rare documents and maps of battlefields to illustrate the contributions and sacrifices made by what is often called the greatest generation Magisterial in its scope The Necessary War illuminates Canada's past as never before From the Western Front to the home front Canadians served many roles in a war that had to be fought and won Joey Jacobson's War Peter J. Usher, 2018-01-26 In the spring of 1940 Canada sent hundreds of highly trained volunteers to serve in Britain's Royal Air Force as it began a concerted bombing campaign against Germany Nearly half of them were killed or captured within a year This is the story of one of those airmen as told through his own letters and diaries as well as those of his family and friends Joey Jacobson a young Jewish man from Westmount on the Island of Montreal trained as a navigator and bomb aimer in Western Canada On arriving in England he was assigned to No 106 Squadron a British unit tasked with the bombing of Germany Joey Jacobson's War tells in his own words why he enlisted his understanding of strategy tactics and the effectiveness of the air war at its lowest point how he responded to the inevitable battle stress and how he became both a hopeful idealist and a seasoned airman Jacobson's written legacy as a serviceman is impressive in scope and depth and provides a lively and intimate account of a Jewish Canadian's life in the air and on the ground written in the intensity of the moment unfiltered by the memoirist's reflection revision or hindsight Accompanying excerpts from his father's diary show the maturation of the relationship between father and son in a dangerous time

Mosquito Intruder Pilot Jeremy Walsh, 2022-06-16 This illustrated WW2 biography chronicles the wartime experiences of a young Royal Air Force pilot who flew into combat over Europe and Burma Ben Walsh lied about his age to join the RAF determined to play his part in the Second World War He volunteered to be an intruder pilot flying low level operations in the dark Ben flew ops for three years starting in the skies over with Europe then ferrying one of the first Mosquito FB VIs to India before flying in the Burma campaign After surviving belly landings crashes enemy fire and engine failures the strain of combat operations took its toll on the young pilot When Ben and his navigator asked to be removed from operations their request was only denied but also resulted in threats of court martial By the end of the war Ben was suffering from a nervous condition known as the twitch His confidence and health were restored by the young woman who would become his wife Throughout the war Ben maintained a Roll of honor in his photograph album memorializing his friends and colleagues who lost their lives That album forms the backdrop to this biography which is based on Ben's own recollections his logbook and the notes he kept through the war Behind the Glory Ted Barris, 2010-10-26 In this 60th anniversary edition is Ted Barris telling of the unique story of Canada's largest World War II expenditure 1.75 billion in a Commonwealth wide training scheme based in Canada that supplied the Allied air war with nearly a quarter of a million qualified airmen Within its five year life span the BCATP supplied a continuous flow of battle ready pilots navigators wireless radio operators air gunners flight engineers riggers and fitters or more commonly known as ground crew principally for the RCAF and RAF as well as the USAAF While the story of so many men graduating from the most impressive air training scheme in history is compelling enough Ted Barris offers the untold story of the instructors the men behind the glory who taught those airmen the vital air force trades that ensure Allied victory over Europe North Africa and the Pacific In Winston Churchill s words the BCATP proved the decisive factor in winning the Second World War This 60th anniversary edition arrives as Canada continues to celebrate 2005 as the Year of the Veteran Ted Barris interviewed more than 200 instructors and using their anecdotes and viewpoints he recounts the story of the flyers who coped with the dangers of training missions and the frustration of fighting the war thousands of miles away from the front without losing their enthusiasm for flying

On the Sidewalk of the War Sylvia Olcott,2003-12 Enjoy the unique San Francisco childhood and coast to coast years of Sylvia Tibby Olcott as she shares in captivating detail her experiences in times that shaped the world Of special interest is the pre Hitler Jewish experience in Europe the Middle East and North America from Mrs Olcott s point of view Helping her father create and build the Anti Defamation League sparked her interest in peoples and beliefs and she continues to examine her world and the worlds of those around her

Flying against Fate S. P. MacKenzie,2017-08-04 During World War II Allied casualty rates in the air were high Of the roughly 125 000 who served as aircrew with Bomber Command 59 423 were killed or missing and presumed killed a fatality rate of 45 5% With odds like that it would be no surprise if there were as few atheists in cockpits as there were in foxholes and indeed many airmen faced their dangerous missions with beliefs and rituals ranging from the traditional to the outlandish Military historian S P MacKenzie considers this phenomenon in Flying against Fate a pioneering study of the important role that superstition played in combat flier morale among the Allies in World War II Mining a wealth of documents as well as a trove of published and unpublished memoirs and diaries MacKenzie examines the myriad forms combat fliers superstitions assumed from jinxes to premonitions Most commonly airmen carried amulets or talismans lucky boots or a stuffed toy a coin whose year numbers added up to thirteen counterintuitively a boomerang Some performed rituals or avoided other acts e g having a photo taken before a flight Whatever seemed to work was worth sticking with and a heightened risk often meant an upsurge in superstitious thought and behavior MacKenzie delves into behavior analysis studies to help explain the psychology behind much of the behavior he documents not slighting the large cohort of crew members and commanders who demurred He also looks into the ways in which superstitious behavior was tolerated or even encouraged by those in command who saw it as a means of buttressing morale The first in depth exploration of just how varied and deeply felt superstitious beliefs were to tens of thousands of combat fliers Flying against Fate expands our understanding of a major aspect of the psychology of war in the air and of World War II

Mosquito and Mustang the aircraft that made the difference between victory and defeat at critical moments in the Second World War the Battle of Britain and the allied aerial offensive against Germany Call to the Colours, A: Tracing Your Canadian Military Ancestors Kenneth G. Cox,2011-01-01 Beginning in Canada s earliest days our ancestors were required to perform some form of military service often as militia This title provides the archival library and computer resources that can be employed to explore your family s military history using items such as documents uniforms medals and other militaria to guide the search "Your Loving Son" George McCowan King,University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2002 This book is a compilation of various sources that form a coherent narrative that leads up to documents and explores the repercussions of the death of George McCowan King a navigator in the Royal Canadian Air Force who was shot down over Germany on September 22 1943 Focussing on the period from late 1942 to the end of the war but extending even into the 1990s the voices that combine to tell the story of the navigator s life and death include his letters the letters of other family members correspondence with families of other servicemen friends diary logbook entries and official government missives concerning the circumstances of the death and the naming of King Creek in northern Saskatchewan Mosquito Missions Martin W. Bowman,2013-01-19 The Wooden Wonder was probably the most versatile combat aircraft that operated on all fronts in World War Two and was still giving valuable service in first line service after 1945 when it enjoyed a limited renaissance both at home in Germany and abroad until the advent of jet aircraft Martin Bowmans well tried and respected formula of incorporating background information with scores of RAF Dominion and overseas pilots and navigators personal narratives is employed here once again to great effect Previously unpublished tales take the reader raid by raid on night fighter fighter bomber anti shipping path finder photo reconnaissance and precision bombing operations in the Middle East and jungles of the Far East where the Mosquito carried out a series of thrilling post war functions The book includes a series of evocative black and white images of the Mosquito in action which supplement the text perfectly and work to illustrate the might of this iconic craft The Good Allies Tim Cook,2025-09-16 Cook takes on arguably his most ambitious topic yet and succeeds brilliantly Remarkably detailed and wise Policy Magazine From our country s most important war historian a gripping account of the turbulent relationship between Canada and the US during the Second World War The two nations entered the war amidst rivalry and mutual suspicion but learned to fight together before emerging triumphant and bound by an alliance that has lasted to this day When the Second World War broke out in 1939 it set in motion a deadly struggle between the Axis powers and the Allies but also fraught negotiations between and among the Allies On questions of diplomacy economic policy industrial might military capabilities and even national sovereignty thousands of lives and the fate of the free world depended on back room deals and desperate trade offs between soldiers diplomats and leaders In North America Canada and the US strained to forge a new military alliance to guard their coasts and fend off German U boats and the menace of a Japanese invasion Wartime economies were entwined to produce a staggering contribution of weapons to keep Britain and other allies in the war The defence of North America against enemy threats was essential before the US and Canada could send armies navies and air forces overseas In his trademark style Tim Cook employs eyewitness accounts to vividly lay bare the brutality of combat and the courage of North Americans under fire Behind the fighting fronts the charged and often secret communications between national leaders Churchill Roosevelt and King reveal how their personalities shaped the outcome of history s most destructive war the fate of the British Empire and the North American alliance that lives on to this day The Good Allies is a masterful account of how Canadians and Americans made the transition from wary rivals to steadfast allies and how Canada thrived in the shadow of the military and global superpower In exploring this complex and crucial dimension of the Second World War and its legacy Cook recounts two nations story of cooperation of sacrifice and of bleeding together to save the world from the fascist threat A Call to the Colours Ken Cox,2011 Our ancestors were required to perform military service often as militia The discovery that an ancestor served during one of the major conflicts in our history is exciting A Call to the Colours provides the archival library and computer resources that can be employed to explore your family s military history
