

THE CORDED SHELL

Reflections on Medical Expression

By Peter Arvey

When Proulx answers NOONE's notes and queries
When Juchet smacks the window blind,
The Enslaving Bookman stands around
And musing on their Plague Bell
The musing that Coleridge found
Lies there is dead, they thought there would not dwell
Within the hollow of that shell
That speaks no message and no word
When Proulx answers NOONE's notes and queries
