Principle of Moratorism Cometan, 2019-11-25 The Principle of Moratorism is the forty fourth instalment in the Little Blue Book Series and is comprised of the twenty third and twenty fourth discourses of the Duodoxy which is itself the second disquisition of the founding book of Astronism called the Omnidoxy The Little Blue Book Series was created and first published by Cometan himself as a way to simplify and commercialise the immensity of the two million word length of the Omnidoxy into smaller more bite size publications A successful series from its very first published entry the Little Blue Book Series has gone on to become a symbol of Astronist commercial literature and a way for Cometan's words to reach readers of all ages and abilities who remain daunted by the beauty and yet the sheer extensiveness of the Omnidoxy as the longest religious text in history Earth Story in Wisdom Traditions Norman C. Habel, Shirley Wurst, 2001-01-01 In this volume scholars from around the world read the story of the Earth in major Wisdom Traditions using the ecojustice principles outlined in Volume 1 Readings from the Perspective of Earth These readings uncover a range of fresh perspectives about Earth in seeking to discover where the voices of Earth are suppressed or heard in the Wisdom texts Some texts reveal an ecokinship between Earth and Wisdom Texts from Job challenge a cosmic model that gives priority to heaven over Earth Still others challenge the mandate to dominate in Genesis 1:28 In many texts Wisdom provides a vehicle for a new kinship with Earth Contributors include Jenny Wightman Hendrik Viviers Carole Fontaine Izak Spangenberg Alice Sinnott Willie van Heerden Katherine Dell Dale Patrick Marie Turner and Laura Hobgood Oster Things Hold Together Branson L.

Parler, 2012-10-03 As an Anabaptist John Howard Yoder is often depicted as Christ centered in his theology but with a creation deficient approach to culture In this clearly reasoned study Branson Parler argues that Yoder advocates a trinitarian theology of culture that upholds the continuity between God's work in creation and in redemption For Yoder Jesus humanity makes him directly relevant to culture while Jesus divinity connects him directly to creation Yoder's writings says Parler affirm that Jesus restores and re-establishes the politics of creation In Things Hold Together Parler joins a growing number of writers from outside Anabaptist or Mennonite traditions who are finding resonance with Yoder one of the leading theologians of the twentieth century Interpreters who dismiss Yoder's call to discipleship find comfort in suggesting he lacked a doctrine of creation or in finding him to be at best a heterodox theologian Parler takes the ground away from such critics His book sets the bar for any future reception of Yoder's theology D Stephen Long author of Speaking of God: Theology, Truth, and Language Things Hold Together helps us see that John Howard Yoder was from first to last a trinitarian thinker Parler therefore provides an illuminating context for interpreting Yoder's critique of H Richard Niebuhr Stanley Hauerwas Gilbert T Rowe professor of theological ethics Duke University The Year's Best Science Fiction: Twenty-Third Annual Collection

Gardner R. Dozois, 2006 Collects short stories exploring themes of time and space travel self discovery and science and technology A Pacifist Way of Knowing John Howard Yoder, 2010-06-01 In A Pacifist Way of Knowing John Howard Yoder's Nonviolent Epistemology editors Christian Early and Ted Grimsrud gather the scattered writings of Yoder on the theme of the relationship between gospel peace and human ways of knowing In them they find the beginnings of a pacifist theology of knowledge that rejects strategies of empire while at the same time avoids a self-defeating relativism The Separation of Heaven and Earth W. Montzka Harold W. Montzka, Harold W. Montzka, 2010-02 Unlike today's world religious views the belief in one Supreme Being was once a widespread phenomenon In The Separation of Heaven and Earth author Harold Montzka provides evidence of this contemporary view with new arguments By studying anthropology and the history of religions Montzka shows evidence for the belief system of the egalitarian hunters who spread across the globe In the Near East the area from the mountains in Turkey to the Persian Gulf people traded freely without evidence of borders or conflict Then social hierarchy became evident in a small area Shortly after this a number of hierarchical sites appeared suddenly and society saw massive buildings city walls ethnic divisions trade to benefit the elites war and instability Developed over forty years The Separation of Heaven and Earth points out that a single cosmological theme was present in ancient literature as well as recent preliterate hierarchies The cosmology justifying the elites in hierarchical societies provided for the society by control of nature Those few groups who have remained egalitarian do not use this cosmology They are not dependent on the rituals of a social hierarchy they depend on the providence of their creator The Best Science Fiction and Fantasy of the Year, Volume Thirteen Elizabeth Bear, Yoon Ha Lee, N.  Source of the Law C.F. Black, 2010-10-04 The Land is the Source of Law brings an inter jurisdictional dimension to the field of indigenous jurisprudence comparing Indigenous legal regimes in New Zealand the USA and Australia it offers a dialogical encounter with an Indigenous jurisprudence in which individuals are characterised by their rights and responsibilities into the Land Though a relatively new field indigenous jurisprudence is the product of the oldest continuous legal system in the world Utilising a range of texts films novels poetry as well as law stories CF Black blends legality and narrative in order to redefine jurisprudentia in indigenous terms This re definition gives shape to the jurisprudential framework of the book a shape that is not just abstract but physical and metaphysical a shape that is circular and concentric at the same time The outer circle is the cosmology so that the human never forgets that they are inside a universe a universe that has a law This law is found in the second circle which whilst resembling the ancient Greek law of physis is a law based on relationship This is a relationship that orders the placing of the individual in the innermost circle and which structures their rights and responsibilities into the land The jurisprudential texts which inform the theoretical framework of this book bring to our attention the urgent message that the Djang primordial energy is out of balance and that the rebalancing of that Djang is up to the individual through their lawful behaviour a behaviour which patterns them back into land Thus The Land is the Source of the Law concludes not only with a diagnosis of the cause of climate change but a prescription which offers an alternative legal approach to global health The Coyote Road Ellen Datlow, Terri Windling, 2023-01-10 Stories of the archetypal Trickster from Michael Cadnum Charles de Lint Patricia A McKillip Jeffrey Ford Nina Kiriki Hoffman and others World Fantasy Award Finalist The mythic Trickster is both good and bad wise and witless sacred and profane He appears in many different guises in world mythology taking the form of a god in Greek legend a coyote raven or rabbit in Native American lore a meddlesome faery in English folktales a larger than life human being in Germany or the charming seductive and deadly kitsune of the Japanese In true Trickster fashion this captivating collection of stories will elicit both laughs and gasps A Louisiana swamp girl makes a wager with a bon rien who fiddled the devil out of hell in Delia Sherman's The Fiddler of Bayou Teche World Fantasy Award winner Patricia A McKillip introduces a pickpocket who tries to predict the future with stolen cards but for whom fate has something else in store in The Fortune Teller And in The Dreaming Wind by Jeffrey Ford a seasonal gale causes havoc among humans and nature but nothing compares to what happens when it fails to reappear The anthology features tricksters of many cultures from all over the world Along with Coyote there are stories here of Loki Legba Hermes Raven the Monkey King of China and the fox spirits of Japan Windling and Datlow have done their usual excellent job of selecting quality work Strange Horizons Sophisticated and well written Fantasy Literature The World of DC Comics

Andrew Friedenthal, 2019-04-26 The first sustained study of the DC Comics Multiverse this book explores its history meanings and lasting influence The multiverse is a unique exercise in world building a series of parallel and interactive worlds with a cohesive cosmology developed by various creators over more than 50 years In examining DC's unique worlds and characters the book illustrates the expansive potential of a multiverse full of characters histories geographies religions ethnographies and more and allowing for expressions of legacy multiplicity and play that have defined much of DC Comics output It shows how a multiverse can be a vital energizing part of any imaginary world and argues that students and creators of such worlds would do well to explore the implications and complexities of this world building technique Andrew J Friedenthal has crafted a groundbreaking engaging and thoughtful examination of the multiverse of interest to scholars and enthusiasts of not just comics studies but also the fields of media studies and imaginary world studies The Doll Collection Joyce Carol Oates, Seanan McGuire, Richard Kadrey, 2015-03-10 A treasure trove of all new stories exploring the dark side of dolls puppets mannequins and more featuring Joyce Carol Oates Jeffrey Ford and others The seventeen original stories in this anthology feature everything from life sized clockwork dolls to all too human Betsy Wetsy type baby dolls Moving past the clichés of the doll trope each one delves into the uncanny creepiness of these bizarrely lifelike objects Master anthologist Ellen Datlow has assembled a menagerie of beautifully terrifying stories from critically acclaimed authors such as Seanan McGuire Carrie Vaughn Pat Cadigan Tim Lebbon Richard Kadrey Genevieve Valentine The collection is illustrated with photographs of dolls taken by Datlow and other devoted doll collectors from the science fiction and fantasy field The result is a star studded collection exploring one of our most primal fears Stories in this anthology by Stephen Gallagher Joyce Carol Oates Gemma Files Pat Cadigan Lucy Sussex Tim Lebbon Seanan McGuire Carrie Vaughn Stephen Graham Jones Miranda Siemienowicz Mary Robinette Kowal Richard Bowes Genevieve Valentine Richard Kadrey Veronica Schanoes John Langan Jeffrey Ford The Priestly Kingdom John Howard Yoder, 1985-01-31 In this volume of essays John Howard Yoder projects a vision of Christian social ethics rooted in historical community and illuminated by scripture Drawing upon scriptural accounts of the early church he demonstrates the Christian community's constant need for reform and change Yoder first examines the scriptural and theoretical foundations of Christian social ethics While personally committed to the radical reformation tradition he eschews denominational categorization and addresses Christians in general The status of Christian community he argues cannot be separated from the doctrinal content of beliefs and the moral understanding of discipleship As a result the Christian's voluntary commitment to a particular community as distinct from secular society offers him valuable resources for practical moral reasoning From a historical perspective Yoder reviews the efforts of sixteenth century radical or Anabaptist reformers to return to the fundamental ethical standards of the New Testament and to disengage the community as a biblically rooted call to faith that does not imply withdrawal from the pluralistic world Rather radical commitment to Christianity strengthens and renews the authentic human interests and values of the whole society His analyses of democracy and of civil religion illustrate how Christianity must challenge and embrace the wider world Evaporating Genres Gary K. Wolfe, 2011-01-03 A series of provocative essays on how the fantastic genres evolve and grow In this wide ranging series of essays an award winning science fiction critic explores how the related genres of science fiction fantasy and horror evolve merge and finally evaporate into new and more dynamic forms Beginning with a discussion of how literary readers unlearned how to read the fantastic during the heyday of realistic fiction Gary K Wolfe goes on to show how the fantastic reasserted itself in popular genre literature and how these genres themselves grew increasingly unstable in terms of both narrative form and the worlds they portray More detailed discussions of how specific contemporary writers have promoted this evolution are followed by a final essay examining how the competing discourses have led toward an emerging synthesis of critical approaches and vocabularies The essays cover a vast range of authors and texts and include substantial discussions of very current fiction published within the last few years The Monstrous Peter

Mengozi, 2017-10-10 T00:00:00+02:00 The papers collected in this volume deal with the explorations of Science Fiction Fantasy and more generally the representation of otherness through the narrative construction of fantastic imaginary appalling or attractive places stories and figures Contributions are arranged in four main sections The first section Other spaces new worlds deals with Hindi and Arabic Science Fiction The second section Constructing forms of otherness analyses the narrative and psychological mechanisms that give forms to a stereotype or archetypical image of the threatening Other

The third section Re-shaping style's language's and discourse's of otherness is centred on the idea of language as a tool to build up styles, genres and texts and literature as an escape from disappointing history and a cross-cultural wandering space of narrative ghosts

The fourth section Circulating fearful otherness tests the limits and heuristic potential of a philological approach in reconstructing the wide circulation of motifs and characters from antiquity to post-modernity
