You Don't Want To Be Published & Other Things Nobody Tells You When You First Start Writing Peter M. Ball, In these essays Peter M Ball Aurealis award winning author and founder of Brian Jar Press explores the seemingly unintuitive lessons he's learned over twenty years of writing educating other writers and running writing conferences attended by hundreds of authors at every level of experience Drawn from some of his most popular blog posts author presentations and articles You Don't Want To Be Published sets out to bring the kind of conversations established writers have in private to a more general audience Here Ball explores the anxieties of building a writing career the unexpected writing lesson drawn from other forms of narrative the importance of treating your business like a business and the subtle shifts in psychology and mindset that can help push your writing career to the next level Primarily written during the years Ball convened the popular GenreCon Writers Conference and managed the Australian Writers Marketplace these essays also strive to find the questions new writers don't yet know they should be asking while arguing the most common inquiry new writers pursue how do I get published is actually the worst place to start Whether you're a new writer looking to sidestep the common problems an established writer trying to figure out why your career feels like it's been derailed or you're simply eager to figure out a new strategy that can push your career forward You Don't Want to Be Published is full of blunt irreverent and unexpected advice that just might change the way you look at the writer's job forever Michael Ondaatje: Haptic Aesthetics and Micropolitical Writing Milena Marinkova, 2011-07-14 This study of selected literary and cinematic works by Michael Ondaatje investigates the political potential of the Canadian author's aesthetics Contributing to current debates about affect and representation ideology critique and the artwork trauma and testimony this book uses the concept of the haptic to demonstrate how Ondaatje's multisensory fluid and historically inflected writing can forge an enabling relationship between audience author and text This is where Ondaatje's micropolitics often misconstrued as ideologically suspect aestheticism emerges a praxis that intimates how one can write and read politically with a difference The Coppolas Vincent LoBrutto, Harriet R. LoBrutto, 2012-08-22 This fascinating behind the scenes look at a Hollywood dynasty offers an in depth study of the films and artistry of iconic director Francis Ford Coppola and his daughter Sofia exploring their work and their impact on each other both personally and professionally The Coppolas A Family Business examines the lives films and relationship of two exemplary filmmakers Francis Ford Coppola and his daughter Sofia It looks at their commonalities and differences as artists and people and at the way those qualities are reflected in their work Much of the book is devoted to Francis and his outstanding achievements and equally notable failures as a screenwriter director producer and presenter of landmark works of cinema The narrative goes beyond the heyday of his involvement with Hollywood to analyze his more recent projects and the choices that led him to create small independent films In Sofia's case the story is one of women's growing independence in the arts revealing how Sofia developed her craft to become a cinematic force in her own right In addition to its insightful commentary on their contributions to cinema past and present the volume provides intriguing hints at what fans might anticipate in the future as both Coppolas continue to expand their artistry King Hu's Kung Fu Cinematic Art Ya-chen Chen, 2024-04-03 This scholarly compendium offers a comprehensive analysis of King Hu's transformative impact on Chinese martial arts cinema It begins with a foundational examination of King Hu's directorial influence setting the stage for an in depth exploration of his filmography including critical works like Dragon Inn and A Touch of Zen The volume employs advanced theoretical frameworks such as David Bordwell's film poetics to dissect King Hu's pervasive influence across generations of filmmakers and the analysis of cultural translation and subtitling practices further illuminates the global dissemination and reception of Hu's films. A critical focus is placed on King Hu's oeuvre analyzing its adaptability and intertextual resonance within broader artistic milieus. The book also critiques Hu's representation of women in martial arts cinema interrogating both progressive and problematic elements. Concluding sections emphasize Hu's mastery in marrying classical Chinese narrative techniques with visual storytelling highlighting his enduring legacy in the martial arts genre and global cinematic landscape. This volume asserts King Hu as a pivotal cultural auteur whose work continues to shape cinematic expression and discourse making it an essential resource for scholars in film studies and aficionados of wuxia cinema.
