contemporary interest in single women as a political economic and cultural force Resilient Widowers Alinde J. Moore, Dorothy C. Stratton, 2002 This is a most impressive work on a much needed and neglected area of older men who lost their spouses Moore and Stratton listened to what these men had to say and presented us with such a rich mosaic of feelings experiences and hypotheses for future research Leonard Poon PhD Dr Phil hc Professor of Psychology Chair Faculty of Gerontology Director University of Georgia Gerontology Center Based on the authors intensive qualitative study of a diverse group of 51 widowers this unique book sets widowhood within the context of life experience It identifies characteristics and patterns of behavior that contribute to widower s success as well as lack of success in adjusting satisfactorily to their circumstances Hanna Fenichel Pitkin Dean Mathiowetz, 2016-05-26 Hanna Fenichel Pitkin has made key contributions to the field of political philosophy pushing forward and clarifying the ways that political theorists think about action as the exercise of political freedom In so doing she has offered insightful studies of the problems of modern politics that theorists are called to address and has addressed them herself in a range of theoretical genres This collection of her works approaches each of these dimensions of Pitkin s contributions in turn The Modern Condition and The Impetus to Theorize Pitkin has offered sustained reflection on what aspects of modern political life prompt the impulse to theorize politics Highlighting the pitfalls that modern life and philosophy also present for that enterprise she suggests an agenda for political theorizing that engages the dilemmas of modernity in ways that grasp the importance of paradox as a portal of insight into the modern condition and eschews attempts at easy resolution Moral Philosophy Judgment Justice Pitkin has turned at several points in her career to the concept of justice as one that particularly brings together questions of agency and responsibility the insights of moral philosophy and judgment Drawing upon a variety of methodological resources and theoretical inspirations her work engages ordinary language philosophy pedagogical practice and textual study to yield a complex and subtle set of observations all of which open moral philosophy and matters of judgment to questions of action and responsibility in the exercise of political freedom Action Political agency and its obstacles are a key theme in Pitkin s work and a main area of her theoretical innovation She has examined the appeal of autonomy as a picture of political agency explored the ways that the institutional arrangements of modern liberal societies attempt to link of individual and political agency and offered a picture of political freedom as maintaining the tension between individual parts and collective wholes Finally Pitkin has meditated on the political and social conditions that most impede our ability to grasp agency as a practice of political freedom and gestured to paths that may lead forward Phi Gamma Delta Quarterly ,1916 The Phi Gamma Delta ,1879 The Publishers Weekly ,1899 Dinner Roles Sherrie A. Inness, 2001-04 Who cooks dinner in American homes It s no surprise that Mom remains the overwhelming answer Cooking and all it entails from grocery shopping to chopping vegetables to clearing the table is to this day primarily a woman s responsibility How this relationship between women and food developed through the twentieth century and why it has endured are the questions Sherrie Inness seeks to answer in Dinner Roles

American Women and Culinary Culture By exploring a wide range of popular media from the first half of the twentieth century including cookbooks women s magazines and advertisements Dinner Roles sheds light on the network of sources that helped perpetuate the notion that cooking is women s work Cookbooks and advertisements provided valuable information about the ideals that American society upheld A woman who could prepare the perfect Jell O mold whip up a cake with her new electric mixer and still maintain a spotless kitchen and a sunny disposition was the envy of other housewives across the nation Inness begins her exploration not with women but with men those individuals often missing from the kitchen who were taught their own set of culinary values She continues with the study of juvenile cookbooks which provided children with their first cooking lessons Chapters on the rise of electronic appliances ethnic foods and the 1950s housewife all add to our greater understanding of women s evolving roles in American culinary culture

Food, Language, and Society Natsuko Tsujimura, 2023-02-15 Food Language and Society Communication in Japanese Foodways examines the language of food in Japanese through the lens of cognitive science and cultural studies to explore intriguing ways in which language food and culture interact in the fabric of Japanese society The questions of how where and by whom food and food experiences are described provide abundant opportunities for investigating relationships between language and culture from multi disciplinary perspectives Linguistic analysis of the language of food enables us to understand cognitive information that motivates and influences people s rhetorical choices on foodways Detailed discussions reveal that loanwords mimetics cooking terms and metaphors serve as lynchpins to enrich the expressive power of the language of food Food discourse situated in broader social and cultural contexts also reflect social norms and cultural practices deeply embedded within and beyond our gustatory and culinary life Food narratives as in cookbooks and advertisements are an informative means for virtual interpersonal communication where individual and group identity is indexed providing a platform for reexamination of gender and other social norms as response to changes in society Examined from the interaction of linguistic and sociocultural perspectives Food Language and Society illuminates the form use and social meaning of the language of food
