The Counselors Guide To Confidentiality:

The Counselor's Guide to Confidentiality Christine D. Weger, Richard J. Diehl, 1986 The Counselor's Guide to Confidentiality Christine D. Weger, Richard J. Diehl, 1987 The Counselor's Guide for Facilitating the Interpretation of Dreams Evelyn M. Duesbury, 2011-01-07 For both students and practicing counselors this book fills the gaps that exist between many current academic programs and practitioner's needs for focused training on how to better assist clients with dream interpretations. Its main focus is on dreams concerning family members and other major figures in the dreamer's life with whom he or she interacts. Readers will first learn how to understand and use their own dreams and then how to apply this in order to facilitate their clients' interpretations of dreams. They will be amazed and fascinated by the issues, emotions, and problem-solving suggestions that are often revealed as they guide their clients' use of a personalized dream interpretation method developed by the author. Through the use of a detailed case example of a client and her dreams, the author shows how each step of this method can be applied and carried out in practice and is easily integrated with contemporary psychotherapies, especially cognitive behavior therapies. The Counselor Educator's Guide Jude Austin, Julius Austin, 2020-04-03 Note to Readers: Publisher does not guarantee quality or access to any included digital components if book is purchased through a third party seller. A practical roadmap for teaching graduate counseling courses from start to finish. Written for the soon-to-be new or adjunct counselor educator, this is an accessible practical guide to preparing and teaching a graduate counseling course from start to finish. Authored by skilled counselor educators who found themselves woefully unprepared to teach upon obtaining their first faculty positions, the book proffers their hard-earned wisdom to help new faculty confidently take over the role of instructor. The hands-on guide provides convenient overviews of each course and day-to-day content-specific strategies for designing and teaching integral course content that is culturally sensitive and developmentally appropriate. Offering diverse strategies and activities, the book addresses how to teach courses in CACREP-accredited programs and covers such topics as identifying theoretical orientation, diagnosis, assessment, and treatment planning; developing therapeutic presence; group leadership; genograms; diversity; basic counseling skills; school shootings; suicide; White privilege; and much more. It addresses course objectives, evaluation of student learning, current research, classroom management, use of technology, do's and don'ts, and advising students. Discussion points and merits of activities are informed by the concept of andragogy, a theory specifically for adult learning. Multicultural and social considerations are woven throughout each chapter. Activities and assignments were developed with feedback from students. KEY FEATURES Provides a practical roadmap for preparing and teaching a graduate counseling course from start to finish. Delivers in-depth practical information on how to teach new material and conduct day-to-day lectures. Discusses content-specific teaching strategies and advice. Guides new faculty members in understanding how all of the courses in the curriculum influence each other. Includes multicultural and social considerations in each chapter.
