Old West Showdown Bill Markley, Kellen Cutsforth, 2018-10-01 The real lives of the historic figures in Old West Showdown are shrouded in controversy and myth Was Jesse James a Southern Son fighting for the cause of the fallen Confederacy or a blood thirsty cutthroat justly pursued by the authorities Was Billy the Kid a misunderstood youth or a cold blooded killer Did Buffalo Bill Cody truly ride for the Pony Express as a young man Or was he just a blowhard who trumped up his own past in an attempt to seem more heroic in the eyes of audiences attending his Wild West shows In Old West Showdown dueling authors Bill Markley and Kellen Cutsforth draw on fact and folklore to present opposing viewpoints pertaining to controversies surrounding some of the most well known characters and events in the history of the Old West

Son of the Morning Star Evan S. Connell, 2011-04-01 Son of the Morning Star is the nonfiction account of General Custer from the great American novelist Evan S Connell Custer's Last Stand is among the most enduring events in American history more than one hundred years after the fact books continue to be written and people continue to argue about even the most basic details surrounding the Little Bighorn Evan S Connell whom Joyce Carol Oates has described as one of our most interesting and intelligent American writers wrote what continues to be the most reliable and compulsively readable account of the subject Connell makes good use of his meticulous research and novelist's eye for the story and detail to re create the heroism foolishness and savagery of this crucial chapter in the history of the West

Custer on Canvas Norman K Denzin, 2016-06-03 The 1876 events known as Custer's Last Stand Battle of Little Big Horn or Battle of Greasy Grass have been represented over 1000 times in various artistic media from paintings to sculpture to fast food giveaways Norman Denzin shows how these representations demonstrate the changing perceptions often racist of Native America by the majority culture juxtaposed against very different readings shown in works composed by Native American artists Consisting of autobiographical reminiscences historical description artistic representations staged readings and snippets of documents this multilayered performance ethnography examines questions of memory race and violence against Native America as symbolized by the changing interpretations of General Custer and his final battle A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance
