Story Line Exploring The Literature Of The Appalachian Trail:

Story Line Ian Marshall, 1998 Weaving together stories of his hiking adventures with reflective explorations of literary works set along the Appalachian Trail Marshall traces a literary geography of the trail that ranges from Georgia to Maine and spans three centuries A History of Virginia Literature Kevin J. Hayes, 2015-05-19 This History explores the development of literary culture in Virginia from the founding of Jamestown to the twenty first century Peak Experiences Ian Marshall, 2003 In Peak Experiences Marshall sets out on a far more personal and far reaching journey to discover how our modern estrangement from the natural world has affected our mental well being Reclaiming Nostalgia Jennifer K. Ladino, 2012-12-24 Often thought of as the quintessential home or the Eden from which humanity has fallen the natural world has long been a popular object of nostalgic narratives In Reclaiming Nostalgia Jennifer Ladino assesses the ideological effects of this phenomenon by tracing its dominant forms in American literature and culture since the closing of the frontier in 1890 While referencing nostalgia for pastoral communities and for untamed and often violent frontiers she also highlights the ways in which nostalgia for nature has served as a mechanism for social change a model for ethical relationships and a motivating force for social and environmental justice The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Literary Studies Lisa Zunshine, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Literary Studies applies developments in cognitive science to a wide range of literary texts that span multiple historical periods and numerous national literary traditions From the Fallen Tree Thomas Hallock, 2004-07-21 Anglo American writers in the revolutionary era used pastoral images to place themselves as native to the continent argues Thomas Hallock in From the Fallen Tree Beginning in the mid eighteenth century as territorial expansion got under way in earnest and ending with the era of Indian dispossession the author demonstrates how authors explored the idea of wilderness and political identities in fully populated frontiers Hallock provides an alternative to the myth of a vacant wilderness found in later writings Emphasizing shared cultures and conflict in the border regions he reconstructs the milieu of Hector St John de Crevecoeur Thomas Jefferson Meriwether Lewis and William Clark William Bartram and James Fenimore Cooper as well as lesser known figures such as Lewis Evans Jane Colden Anne Grant and Elias Boudinot State papers treaty documents maps and journals provide a rich backdrop against which Hallock reinterprets the origins of a pastoral tradition Combining the new western history ecological criticism and native American studies Hallock uncovers the human stories embedded in descriptions of the land His historicized readings offer an alternative to long accepted myths about the vanishing backcountry the march of civilization and a pristine wilderness The American pastoral he argues grew from the anxiety of independent citizens who became colonizers themselves Narrative Concerns Todd Davis, Kenneth Womack, 2025-08-20 Bridging existing gaps between postmodern theory fiction and ethics Narrative Concerns Ethical Criticism in Literature Music and Film offers an innovative critical analysis of the ways in which fictional narratives impact our lives as well as of the evolving nature of our understanding of the ethical possibilities inherent in postmodern humanism

The wide array of writers directors and musicians examined in Narrative Concerns include Steven Spielberg Quentin Tarantino Jean Rhys John Irving Norman Maclean Anthony Burgess Kurt Vonnegut James Cameron Beyonc and Mary Oliver These creators frequently explore our postmodern preoccupation with the void in new and often innovative ways from their challenging perceptions of the family humor and narrative design to their examinations of the past the power of history and the redemptive nature of humanity Davis and Womack read their works to demonstrate a fascinating assortment of literary characters in the act of generating new conceptions of selfhood underscore how a given text s construction affects our understanding of the ethically motivated acts of authorship and storytelling and address the powerful bonds of human community By challenging the very nature in which we conduct literary and theoretical studies ethical criticism thus offers useful forays into a wide range of disciplines from feminism and gender studies to cultural criticism and the dynamics of race and ethnicity

Topographies of the Sacred Catherine E. Rigby, 2004 Although the British romantic poets notably Blake Wordsworth and Byron have been the subjects of previous ecocritical examinations this text compares English and German literary models of romanticism

American Environmental Fiction, 1782-1847 Matthew Wynn Sivils, 2016-04-15 While Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau are often credited with inventing American environmental writing Matthew Wynn Sivils argues that the works of these Transcendentalists must be placed within a larger literary tradition that has its origins in early Republic natural histories Indian captivity narratives Gothic novels and juvenile literature Authors such as William Bartram Ann Eliza Bleecker and Samuel Griswold Goodrich to name just a few enabled the development of a credibly American brand of proto environmental fiction Sivils argues that these seeds of environmental literature would come to fruition in James Fenimore Cooper s The Pioneers which he argues is the first uniquely environmental American novel He then connects the biogeographical politics of Cooper s The Prairie with European anti Americanism and concludes this study by examining how James Kirke Paulding Thomas Cole and James Fenimore Cooper imaginatively addressed the problem of human culpability and nationalistic cohesiveness in the face of natural disasters With their focus on the character and implications of the imagined American landscape these key works of early environmental thought contributed to the growing influence of the natural environment on the identity of the fledgling nation decades before the influences of Emerson s Nature and Thoreau s Walden
