Story Matters Contemporary Short Story Writers Share The Creative Process:

Story Matters Margaret-Love Denman, Barbara Shoup, 2006 Story Matters offers students an inspiring and insightful approach to writing short fiction with 21 short stories and in depth in person conversations with their accomplished authors. Each writer describes his or her source of ideas, motivation and writing strategies to give a personal perspective on the book's narrative of the elements of short fiction. Throughout the book, writing prompts offer ideas, advice and jumping off points for workshop or individual writing exercises. The writers from Dave Eggers to Jamaica Kincaid explain and explore the intent, technique and meaning of their fiction, offering expert insight into the craft of writing stories. Part One: Writing Matters. This series of brief chapters provides an introduction to writing short fiction from the spark that starts a story to the finishing touches of revision. Writing prompts integrated throughout invite readers to exercise and expand their writing muscles to create the best story possible. Part Two: Stories and Conversations. A showcase for 21 acclaimed writers, this section combines a short story, a conversation with that story's author and related writing prompts. By reading the stories and listening to the writers talk about the joys and frustrations of the creative process, students will come to understand the challenge and satisfaction of writing well. Appendices include a set of questions a writer may want to ask when approaching a short story, a list of favorites of the authors interviewed in this book and a bibliography of further resources in creative writing.

The Holocaust Short Story Mary Catherine Mueller, 2019-11-11 The Holocaust Short Story is the only book devoted entirely to representations of the Holocaust in the short story genre. The book highlights how the explosiveness of the moment captured in each short story is more immediate and more intense and therefore recreates horrifying emotional reactions for the reader. The main themes confronted in the book deal with the collapse of human relationships, the collapse of the home and the dying of time in the monotony and angst of surrounding death chambers. The book thoroughly introduces the genres of both the short story and Holocaust writing, explaining the key features and theories in the area. Each chapter then looks at the stories in detail, including work by Ida Fink, Tadeusz Borowski, Rokhl Korn, Frumė Halpern and Cynthia Ozick. This book is essential reading for anyone working on Holocaust literature, trauma studies, Jewish studies, Jewish literature and the short story genre.

Write Moves: A Creative Writing Guide and Anthology Nancy Pagh, 2016-08-04 Write Moves is an invitation for the student to understand and experience creative writing in the larger frame of humanities education. The practical instruction offered comes in the form of moves or tactics for the apprentice writer to try. But the title also speaks to a core value of this project: that creative writing exists to move us. The book focuses on concise, human-voiced instruction in poetry, the short story and the short creative nonfiction essay. Emphasis on short forms allows the beginning student to appreciate lessons in craft without being overwhelmed by lengthy model texts. Diverse examples of these genres are offered in the anthology.

The Southern Register, 2008

Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty-six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned. Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer s Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research Contemporary Short Stories from Central America Enrique Jaramillo Levi, 1994-01-01 In Metaphors Samuel Rovinski Costa Rica shows how a writer s superficial attempt to interpret experience metaphorically cripples him in social circumstances while in Gloria Wouldn t Wait Panamanian Jaime Garcia Saucedo focuses on the egotism of the writer s imagination as it tries to convert the tragedies of everyday life into some kind of literary document whose artistic qualities would belie their actual reality Human and humane values in the face of adversity are celebrated throughout even when seemingly futile in the midst of overwhelming odds Contemporary Short Stories from Central America embraces every aspect of the human condition addressed by the literature of the Western world and demonstrates the cultural vitality of our Central American neighbors BOOK JACKET Arabic Short Stories, 1994-12-22 Collects twenty four short stories by Arabic authors such as Bahaa Taher Alifa Rifaat and Edward El Kharrat which explore such themes as prostitution adultery and arranged marriage Research Study on Festival and Events Josipa Mijoč, Ivana Jobst, 2023-11-23 After three successful research studies and three scientific books the EU China International Literary Festival international project team focused on testing and applying the international festival research methodology Based on previous research studies reports and scientific books the authors had sufficient knowledge of the methodological guidelines for conducting demanding multilingual and cross cultural research The research and methodological definition of the scientific book is the EU China literary festival conceived as the interaction of European and Chinese authors with Chinese audiences and the promotion of European culture in Chinese cities This book focuses on the analysis of the 4th EU China International Literary Festival organised by the Delegation of the European Union to China The goal of the Festival is to bring distant cultures closer by virtue of literature as a medium and the Festival has been held twice a year in China since 2017 The audience could attend Festival events either at the venue n 6 914 or online n 377 098 The number of online attendees far exceeded the number of visitors who attended live events which strongly popularised EU China cooperation cross cultural differences new media monitoring literary events literature itself and the authors The research methodology was used to measure the views of three groups of stakeholders in the EU China International Literary Festival n 70 i e 1 Festival visitors 2 European authors international participants and 3 Chinese authors national participants By analysing the views of the three groups of respondents the book analyses the measure of both the success of the EU China International Literary Festival and the level of satisfaction with the Festival Comparison and identification of similarities and differences among the three groups of respondents is one of the research goals Based on a large number of media releases and live streamings the Festival can be seen as a highly successful promotional product where the culture of the European Union was presented to the Chinese visitors In addition to the research methodology the scientific book also provides the design of research procedures applied in multilingual research by international research teams An enviable longitudinal series of data collected from the three groups of stakeholders was created by the fourth measurement of Festival success The tested international festival research methodology can be used by future researchers of festival phenomena for developing an instrument for gathering the views of festival participants authors visitors and organisers of literary and all other related festivals The efforts of this research study are ultimately aimed at a systematic increase in the quality of festivals ensuring continued funding and laying the groundwork for related festivals funded by the EU Delegation to China

Shifting Subjectivities in Contemporary Fiction and Film from Spain

Jennifer Brady, Meredith L. Jeffers, 2018-12-14 This collection of essays analyzes shifting notions of self as represented in films and novels written and produced in Spain in the twenty first century In doing so the anthology establishes an international dialogue of multicultural perspectives on trends in contemporary Spain and serves as a useful reference for scholars and students of Spanish literature and cinema The primary avenues of exploration include representations of recovery in post crisis Spain marginalized texts and identities silenced subjectivities intersecting relationships and spaces of desire and control The individual chapters focus on major events such as the global economic crisis the tension between majority and minority cultures within Spain and the ongoing repercussions of past trauma and historical memory In doing so they build upon theories of identity subjectivity gender history memory and normativity
