An Untold Story , Consciousness is Story-Shaped Richard Rosenbaum,2025-04-21 Why do we conceptualize our experience primarily in terms of stories This monograph is a groundbreaking exploration of how narrative structures mirror the architecture of human thought Drawing from disciplines as diverse as narratology philosophy psychology and cognitive science it meticulously examines Joseph Campbell s theory of the monomyth positing its isomorphism with the Categories of Judgment that Immanuel Kant considered innate to human cognition The book presents a compelling case that stories represent a reflection of cognitive processes arguing that humans inherently interpret the world and their experiences through a narrative schema deeply ingrained in our consciousness Rooted in cognitive semiotics it analyzes in detail the structural similarities between narrative and cognition Offering a novel understanding of the fundamental narrative nature of human thought and its implications for how we perceive and interact with the world this book is essential for scholars in narratology and semiotics writers and anyone fascinated by storytelling The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharrudin,Joseph Boyden,Mary Rohrberger,Jaie Claudet,2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada An Untold Story Robert C. Pelfrey,2023-01-25 Is there more to life Is there more to me Is it all worth it What does it mean to be one with God and what does that have to do with the mess and challenges of everyday life These are some of the issues addressed in An Untold Story as it follows the mystical heroic quest to find our true selves In coming to a better understanding of what it is to be a hero and what it is to be a mystic we come to a better understanding of what it is to be ourselves The stories are connected The classic hero s journey of myth and legend is at the heart of the mystical journey to life with God And together they show the way to our true selves and our true stories With the guidance of mystical theologian John of Ruusbroec and other teachers and with help from many favorite heroic stories and characters An Untold Story presents a path of spiritual formation that is at once epic and everyday fantastical and practical
