Strange Encounters Embodied Others In Post Coloniality:

Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2000 Examining the relationship between strangers embodiment and community Strange Encounters challenges the assumptions that the stranger is simply anybody we do not recognize and instead proposes that he or she is socially constructed as somebody we already know Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalization on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2000 Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalisation on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism Emotional Transitions in Contemporary Afrodiasporic Women's Writing Ángela Suárez-Rodríguez, 2023-12-15 This book is an in depth study of the category stranger as represented in four contemporary Afrodiasporic novels of female authorship Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's Americanah Sefi Atta's A Bit of Difference NoViolet Bulawayo's We Need New Names and Imbolo Mbue's Behold the Dreamers Examined from an interdisciplinary perspective that brings together different approaches to the figure of the stranger and Affect Theory the plurality of experiences of estrangement disorientation and unbelonging portrayed in these texts allows expansion upon Sara Ahmed's investigation of stranger fetishism in her title Strange Encounters Embodied Others in Post coloniality 2000 and in so doing contributes to the recent call for a more nuanced understanding of the idea of stranger In particular the critical and comparative study of the different migration experiences of the protagonists reveals that within the framework of the contemporary African diaspora to the West strange-ness is a situated embodied and emotional condition that depends on the politics of location and of identity from which it emerges This book will particularly appeal to scholars and students in the fields of Postcolonial Studies African Diaspora Studies and Black Women's Literature and will also be suitable for students at graduate and advanced undergraduate levels in English Studies Sex, Sea, and Self Jacqueline Coulti, 2021-10-15 Sex Sea and Self reassesses the place of the French Antilles and French Caribbean literature within current postcolonial thought and visions of the Black Atlantic Using a feminist lens this study examines neglected twentieth century French texts by Black writers from Martinique and Guadeloupe making the analysis of some of these texts available to readers of English for the first time This interdisciplinary study of female and male authors reconsiders their political strategies and the critical role of French creoles in the creation of their own history This approach recalibrates overly simplistic understandings of the victimization and alienation of French Caribbean people In the systems of cultural production under consideration sexuality constitutes an instrument of political and cultural consciousness in the chaotic period between 1924 and 1948 Studying sexual imagery constructed around female bodies demonstrates the significance of agency and the legacy of the past in cultural resistance and political awareness Sex Sea and Self particularly highlights Antillean women intellectuals theoretical contributions to Caribbean critical theory Therefore this analysis illuminates debates on the multifaceted and conflicted relationships between France and its overseas departments and expands ideas of nationhood in the Black Atlantic and the Americas

Immersions in Cultural Difference Natalie Alvarez, 2018-02-06 In a time of intensifying xenophobia and anti immigration measures this book examines the impulse to acquire a deeper understanding of cultural others Immersions in Cultural Difference takes readers into the heart of immersive simulations including a simulated terrorist training camp in Utah mock Afghan villages at military bases in Canada and the UK a fictional Mexico US border run in Hidalgo Mexico and an immersive tour for settlers at a First Nations reserve in Manitoba Canada Natalie Alvarez positions the phenomenon of immersive simulations within intersecting cultural formations a neoliberal capitalist interest in the so called experience economy that operates alongside histories of colonization and a heightened state of xenophobia produced by War on Terror discourse The author queries the ethical stakes of these encounters including her own in relation to the field research she undertakes As the book moves from site to site the reader discovers how these immersions function as intercultural rehearsal theaters that serve a diverse set of strategies and pedagogical purposes they become a force multiplier within military strategy a transgressive form of dark tourism an activist strategy and a global profit generating practice for a neoliberal capitalist marketplace

Real Bodies Mary Evans, Ellie Lee, 2017-03-14 This introductory text sets out to make the links between sociological theories of the body and actual human behaviour and experience It covers a broad range of topics from long standing sociological concerns to more contemporary issues With a focus on the changeability of the body it examines the part that bodies play in the social construction of categories such as race sexuality and disability and explores how we express ourselves through our bodies whether in eating dress or pain It also debates how the body is regulated both through the life course and in reproduction

Adoption and Multiculturalism Jenny Heijun Wills, Tobias Hubinette, Indigo Willing, 2020-09-11 Adoption and Multiculturalism features the voices of international scholars reflecting transnational and transracial adoption and its relationship to notions of multiculturalism The essays trouble common understandings about who is being adopted who is adopting and where these acts are taking place challenging in fascinating ways the tidy master narrative of saviorhood and the concept of a monolithic Western receiving nation Too often the presumption is that the adoptive and receiving country is one that celebrates racial and ethnic diversity thus making it superior to the conservative and insular places from which adoptees arrive The volume s contributors subvert the often simplistic ways that multiculturalism is linked to transnational and transracial adoption and reveal how troubling multiculturalism in fact can be The contributors represent a wide range of disciplines cultures and connections in relation to the adoption constellation bringing perspectives from Europe including Scandinavia Canada the United States and Australia The book brings together the various methodologies of literary criticism history anthropology sociology and cultural theory to demonstrate the multifarious and robust ways that adoption and multiculturalism might be studied and considered Edited by three transnational and transracial adoptees Adoption and Multiculturalism Europe the Americas and the Pacific offers bold new scholarship that revises popular notions of transracial and transnational adoption as practice and phenomenon Food and Everyday Life Thomas M. Conroy, 2014-02-18 Food and Everyday Life provides a qualitative interpretive and interdisciplinary examination of food and food practices and their meanings in the modern world Edited by Thomas M Conroy the book offers a number of complementary approaches and topics around the parameters of the ordinary everyday perspective on food These studies highlight aspects of food production distribution and consumption as well as the discourse on food Chapters discuss examples ranging from the cultural meanings of food as represented on television to the practices of food budgeting to the cultural politics of such practices as sustainable brewing and developing new forms of urban agriculture A number of the studies focus on the relationships between food eating practices and the body Each chapter examines a particular and in many instances highly unique food practice and each includes some key details of that practice Taken together the chapters show us how the everyday practices of food are both familiar and yet at the same time ripe for further discovery Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration Elizabeth W. Collier, Charles R. Strain, 2014-06-05 Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration examines the complicated social ethics of migration in today's world Editors Elizabeth W Collier and Charles R Strain bring the perspectives of an international group of scholars toward a theory of justice and ethical understanding for the nearly two hundred million migrants who have left their homes seeking asylum from political persecution greater freedom and safety economic opportunity or reunion with family members Migrants move out of fear desperation hope love for their families or a myriad of other complex motivations Faced with both the needs and flows of people and the walls that impede them what actions ought we both individually and collectively take What is the moral responsibility of those of us in particular who reside comfortably in our native lands There is no univocal response to these questions Instead multiple perspectives on migration must be examined This book begins by looking at different geographic regions around the world and highlighting particular issues within each Finding that religious traditions represent the strongest countervailing sources of values to the homogenizing tendencies of economic globalization the study then offers a plurality of religious perspectives The final chapters examine the salient issues and the proposed solutions that have emerged specifically within the U S context These studies range from militarization of the U S border with Mexico to the impact of migrants on native born low skilled workers Encompassing a wide range of cultural and scholarly voices Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration provides insight for ethics moral philosophy social and political philosophy religious studies social justice globalization and identity formation Religion and Difference Trygve Wyller, Daria

Pezzoli-Olgiati, Stefanie Knauss, Hans-Günter Heimbrock, Hans-Joachim Sander, Carla Danani, 2019-11-11 In democracies of advanced plurality religion is a contested and powerful part of public discussions and practices Today religious difference is articulated and negotiated controversially in interaction with other spheres of society While there are clear tendencies of increasing polarization we also encounter moments of acknowledgement and appreciation of plurality Facing these complexities and challenges of our time this volume scrutinizes contested practices where religious difference matters Committed to an interdisciplinary exchange between theology the study of religion and political philosophy this volume is grounded in the attention for concrete practices and phenomena as well as the conviction that difference is both a productive concept and an enriching experience Exploring practices of shared places sexuality justice and the commitment to the human being in education migration and violent conflicts the volume as a whole contributes to the analysis of contested social and political practices in order to investigate the significance and role of religion in contemporary societies and thus it further develops theoretical reflection about religion in contemporary research
