The Big Questions:

The Big Questions Lou Marinoff, 2009-09-07 Professor Lou Marinoff's first book drew on the wisdom of the great philosophers to solve our everyday problems launching a movement that restored philosophy to what it once was useful in all walks of life Now in The Big Questions he takes the concept to the next level applying centuries of philosophy and great literature to answer central questions of modern existence Urging us not to accept victimhood as the by product of modern life Professor Marinoff uses specific case studies from his counseling practice to show how wisdom from the great thinkers can help us define our own philosophy and thereby reclaim our sense of well being He asks and answers questions that go to the heart of the human condition How do we know what is right How can we cope with change Why can't we all get along And most centrally how can we use the centuries of wisdom that have come before us to help us answer these questions and feel at ease in the world Accessible entertaining and profoundly useful The Big Questions mixes wisdom from the great thinkers with specific case studies to illuminate how a shift in perspective can truly be life changing Lou Marinoff is the author of the international hit Plato Not Prozac which has been published in twenty languages A professor of philosophy at the City College of New York Marinoff is also the founding president of the American Philosophical Practitioners Association Praise for Plato Not Prozac What exactly is philosophical practice Marinoff calls it therapy for the sane In a nutshell it's using the 2 500 year old tradition of philosophy to solve everyday problems like work relationship and family issues It's a return to what philosophy was meant to be a guideline for a way of life Salon Com Plato Not Prozac looks to become the bible of the philosophical counseling movement Philadelphia Inquirer Magazine The ancient think

The Big Questions Lama Surya Das, 2007-10-02 A leading Western Buddhist scholar and author of Awakening the Buddha offers a series of reflections and insights that challenge readers to develop individual authentic responses to some of life's most provocative questions from What is my purpose in life to What happens after I die

The Big Questions Steven E. Landsburg, 2010-09-02 What's wrong with stealing What's the best way to blood test a pot bellied pig Should we tolerate intolerance In the wake of his enormously popular books The Armchair Economist and More Sex is Safer Sex Steven Landsburg uses concepts from maths economics and physics to address the big questions in philosophy Where does knowledge come from What's the difference between right and wrong Do our beliefs matter Is it possible to know everything Provocative utterly entertaining and always surprising The Big Questions challenges readers to re evaluate their most fundamental beliefs and reveals the relationship between the loftiest philosophical quests and our everyday lives unique distillation of humanity's best ideas In The Big Questions: God Mark Vernon answers the 20 key questions Can reason prove the existence of God Will science bring the end of religion Why do people still have religious beliefs Is religion a mistake of evolution Can drugs induce religious experiences Can you be spiritual without being religious Have you seen a miracle What is the literal meaning of Scripture If you're not religious is nothing sacred Can an agnostic pray Is religion inherently violent What is it like to be a fundamentalist What is Buddhist enlightenment Is Confucianism a religion Is nature divine Is there a perennial philosophy Does human suffering rule out God Can we be good without God Are we living in the end times Is there life after death

The Big Questions: Physics Michael Brooks, 2013-11-05 The Big Questions series is designed to let renowned experts address the 20 most fundamental and frequently asked questions of a major branch of science or philosophy Each 3000 word essay simply and concisely examines a question that has eternally perplexed enquiring minds and provides answers from history's great thinkers This ambitious project is a unique distillation of humanity's best ideas In Big Questions: Physics Michael Brooks answers the 20 key questions What is the point of physics Is everything ultimately random What is time Why is there no such thing as a free lunch What happened to Schrodinger's cat Can I change the universe with a single glance Are solids really solid Which is nature's strongest force Why does an apple fall Do we live in a computer simulation What is light Is Earth's magnetic shield failing Am I unique in the universe Does chaos theory spell disaster Can we travel through time Is string theory really about strings Why does $E=mc^2$ What is the God Particle Why is there something rather than nothing What is the ultimate nature of reality

The Big Questions: God Mark Vernon, 2012-04-26 Can the existence of God be proved by reason alone Has scientific discovery destroyed the intellectual basis for religion Does the presence of evil in the world mean that God does not care about us And why does fundamentalism flourish in an age of progress In Big Questions: God Mark Vernon addresses these and many more perennial dilemmas drawing on physics and philosophy spiritual traditions and religious experience He explores the place of religion in relation to science in making sense of evil in understanding history and in explaining value Asking the big questions again for himself he finds new areas of thought and perception Big Questions: God is a subtle but compelling argument for the necessity of a spiritual dimension in modern society and offers profound insights on humanity's constant battle to make sense of the transcendent

The Big Questions of Life Leinad Menelec, Ph.D., 2023-10-01 What is the meaning of life How can we find happiness and fulfillment What is our purpose or calling in life These are just a few of the profound and timeless questions explored in this engaging book A large language model trained by OpenAI offers insights and perspectives on some of the greatest mysteries of the human experience Whether you are seeking answers to your own questions or simply want to broaden your understanding of the world this book is a must read for anyone looking to delve deeper into the great questions of life 2

The "Big Questions" of Life Eric Tegelberg, 2022-07-27 This book is an investigation into one man's look into the greatest questions of life It begins with the idea of how we can know if there is a God If there is a God then several of the next big questions will be answered by what that God is like and how He has disclosed himself to humanity

The Big Questions Of Science Antonino Del Popolo, 2024-10-29 Of all the species that live on this planet as far as we know man is the only one capable of awareness observing the sky understanding its beauty and asking questions about the meaning of life and that of death on the beginning and the end both about the Universe and man himself The questions range in all directions why is there something instead of nothing Who is the architect of reality and why does it appear to us as it does rather than in some other way What s the point of all this Where does life originate and what are the origins of the Universe that encompasses it This book aims to introduce and address the questions that are often asked and answer with the knowledge that science provides us Where does all the matter we are made of come from and what constitutes the Universe Is it true that there is matter and energy whose existence can be intuited only indirectly as the existence of the wind is deduced from leaves motion Einstein was right in his revolutionary description of reality on nature of space and time inextricable units in their apparent dichotomy Does each observer truly observe a different time from another observer Can we move back and forth in the time How space and time are modified by astronomical objects such as black holes and what is the nature of the latter Will time and the Universe end and how did they originate The Universe is incredibly vast housing hundreds of billions of galaxies within the observable Universe alone Beyond what we can observe there may exist an unimaginably vast expanse that extends infinitely and beyond our imagination Our Universe enormous as it may be is not the only one That s all predicted by certain cosmological and physical theories Is life unique to Earth or does the Universe harbor other forms of life that remain undiscovered to us

The Big Questions: The Universe Stuart Clark, 2013-10-01 The Big Questions series enables renowned experts to tackle the 20 most fundamental and frequently asked questions of a major branch of science or philosophy Each 3000 word essay simply and concisely examines a question that has eternally perplexed enquiring minds providing answers from history s great thinkers This ambitious project is a unique distillation of humanity s best ideas In Big Questions The Universe Dr Stuart Clark tackles the 20 key questions of astronomy and cosmology What is the universe How big is the universe How old is the universe What are stars made from How did the universe form Why do planets stay in orbit Was Einstein right What are black holes How did the Earth form What were the first celestial objects What is dark matter What is dark energy Are we really made from stardust Is there life on Mars Are there other intelligent beings Can we travel through time and space Can the laws of physics change Are there alternative universes What will be the fate of the universe Is there cosmological evidence for God
