The Biggest Nose:

Big Noses in Beijing Sally Grattidge, 2002-04-21 What would it be like to pack up the family and go to live in China for three years To swap the clean air and convenience of North America for the chaos and clamour of the world's most populous nation Journey with Sally Grattidge behind the bamboo curtain as she strives to raise a family see some of the country and generally have a life while learning to cope with the culture the language and the ubiquitous China factor From the exhilaration of mastering Mandarin and visiting fascinating places to the despair and sheer frustration of trying to get the simplest things done the narrative sweeps the reader along on an expatriate roller coaster ride Throughout it all the author paints an intimate portrait of the Chinese people as she discovers what they are really like beneath that inscrutable public face

The Biggest Nose Kathy Caple, 1988-04 Sex and the Nose J.R. Young, Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1861 Dependencies, Connections, and Other Relations Wim de Muijnck, 2013-03-09 The text before you is a study of the problematic issue of mental causation causation by minds On hearing the expression mental causation you may at first think of something like bending spoons by psychic powers But no we are dealing here with something much more puzzling doing things for reasons i.e. what we call agency Psychic spoon bending would be a fairly straightforward issue You just exert some psychic force and bend a spoon just like you might bend it by hand i.e. by physical force The only trouble here is that psychic forces may not be in fact available But now you fetch an umbrella because you expect that it will rain How does that work Some how it seems you let an expectation move your limbs But aren't your limbs already moved by nerve impulses and muscle contractions And are expectations the proper kind of items to move things around Mental causation is an issue that is at the heart of the mind/body problem the problem of making it clear how minded creatures such as we are possible and what our mindedness consists in Unlike psychic spoon bending mental causation happens every day At least pretty much of what we take for granted about ourselves can only be right when mental causation really happens

Thunder and Lightning Colin Bateman, 2022-09-27 Colin Bateman grew up in the pleasant seaside town of Bangor in Northern Ireland Ten miles away the IRA the UDA and the UVF were blowing Belfast apart but he was more concerned with making his first million through the GBA the Gerbil Breeding Association sadly short lived when his gerbils turned out to be cannibals Inspired by All the President's Men and The Odessa File to become a crusading journalist Bateman joined the local paper when he was a seventeen year old punk rocker where instead of bringing down Presidents and finding Nazis he found himself being hunted down by the notorious Kilcooley Strollers a dance troupe with an axe to grind So close to the Troubles yet so far away Thunder and Lightning is the story of one boy's journey through the rather soft side of life in a town which lacked tough streets but boasted many cul de sacs A town where an occasional terrorist bomb was seen as an opportunity to profiteer and where his father became a paramilitary by accident
