The Birth To Presence Meridian

John Paul Ricco

The Birth To Presence Meridian:

The Birth to Presence Jean-Luc Nancy, 1993 The epoch of representation is as old as the West Indeed representation is the West understood as what at once designates and expands its own limits But what comes after the West What comes after representation s disclosure of its own limit The central problem posed in these essays collected from over a decade of work is how in the wake of Western ontologies to conceive the coming the birth that characterizes being We are now at the limit of representation where objects as we experience them have been show to be merely objects of representation or rather of presentation since there is nothing to re present The first part of this book Existence asks how today one can give sense of meaning to existence as such arguing that existence itself as it comes nude into the world must now be our sense In examining what this birth to presence might be we should not ask what presence is rather we should conceive presence as presence to someone including to presence itself This birth is not the constitution of an identity but the endless departure of an identity from and from within its other or others Its coming is not desire but jouissance the joy of averring oneself to be continually in the state of being born a rejoicing of birth a birth of rejoicing The second section Poetry asks What art exposes this In writing in the voice in painting And what if art is exposed to it How does it inscribe or rather exscribe in a term the book develops the coming existence as such The author s trajectory in this book crosses those of Hegel Schlegel Baudelaire Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger in their comments on art and politics existence and corporeality everyday life and its modes of existence and ecstasy An analysis that dares this crossing involves all the varied accounts of existence political as well as philosophical and all the realms of poverty

The Decision Between Us John Paul Ricco, 2014-03-31 The Decision Between Us combines an inventive reading of Jean Luc Nancy with queer theoretical concerns to argue that while scenes of intimacy are spaces of sharing they are also spaces of separation John Paul Ricco shows that this tension informs our efforts to coexist ethically and politically an experience of sharing and separation that informs any decision Using this incongruous relation of intimate separation Ricco goes on to propose that decision is as much an aesthetic as it is an ethical construct and one that is always defined in terms of our relations to loss absence departure and death Laying out this theory of unbecoming community in modern and contemporary art literature and philosophy and calling our attention to such things as blank sheets of paper images of unmade beds and the spaces around bodies The Decision Between Us opens in 1953 when Robert Rauschenberg famously erased a drawing by Willem de Kooning and Roland Barthes published Writing Degree Zero then moves to 1980 and the neutral mourning of Barthes Camera Lucida and ends in the early 1990s with installations by Felix Gonzalez Torres Offering surprising new considerations of these and other seminal works of art and theory by Jean Genet Marguerite Duras and Catherine Breillat The Decision Between Us is a highly original and unusually imaginative exploration of the spaces between us arousing and evoking an infinite and profound sense of sharing in scenes of passionate erotic pleasure as well as deep loss and mourning catastrophic epidemic devastated Indigenous Mexican communities and left the colonial church in ruins With its horrific final symptom of hemorrhage from the nose the unfamiliar disease which the Nahuatl named cocoliztli took almost two million lives In the crisis and its immediate aftermath Spanish missionaries and surviving pueblos de indios held radically different visions for the future of church in the Americas Chaucer and the City Ardis Butterfield, 2006 Presenting essays exploring Chaucer's identity as a London poet and the urban context for his writings this volume addresses the centrality of the city in Chaucer's work and the importance of Chaucer to a literature and a language of the city Imagining' Biblical Worlds David M. Gunn, Paula McNutt, 2002-12-01 The essays in this volume address the interface between biblical studies archaeology sociology and cultural anthropology celebrating the pioneering work of James Flanagan In particular this collection explores various ways in which the real ancient world is constructed by the modern critical reader with the aid of various theoretical and practical tools The contributors to this volume have all been involved with Flanagan and his projects during his academic career and the essays carry forward the important interdisciplinary agendas he has encouraged Part One deals with his recent interest in spatiality and Part Two with social and historical constructs This book in James Flanagan's honour represents a significant statement of research in an area of biblical and historical research that is increasingly important yet surprisingly under represented Chiasmi international, 2007 The Bible and Art, Perspectives from Oceania Caroline Blyth, Nasili Vaka'uta, 2017-02-09 This volume takes readers on a fascinating journey through the visual arts of Aotearoa New Zealand Australia and the Pacific Islands contemplating the multivocal dialogues that occur between these artistic media and the texts and traditions of the Bible With their distinctively antipodean perspectives contributors explore the innovative ways that both creators and beholders of Oceanic arts draw upon their contexts and cultures in order to open up creative engagements with the stories themes and theologies of the biblical traditions Various motifs weave their way throughout the volume including antipodean landscapes and ecology post colonialism philosophy Oceanic spiritualities and the often contested engagements between western and indigenous cultures Within this weaving process each essay invites readers to contemplate these various forms of visual culture through Oceanic eyes and to appreciate the fresh insights that this process can bring to reading and interpreting the biblical traditions The result is a rich and interdisciplinary array of conversations that will capture the attention of readers within the fields of biblical reception studies cultural studies theology and art history A Table in the Presence of My Enemies Matthew Wade Umbarger, 2024-06-25 Psalm 23 the most beloved of the Psalms contains a perplexing riddle What can it possibly mean that God prepares a table in the presence of the psalmist's enemies Matthew Umbarger proposes that Psalm 23:5 makes the most sense when read according to its cultural context of prebattle covenant banquets Beginning with ancient Mesopotamian mythology Umbarger traces a conceptual trajectory of the prebattle banquet motif that reaches its zenith in the apocalyptic banquets of Second Temple Period literature and the eucharistic theology of the early church Archeologies of Invective

Robert G. Eisenhauer, 2007 Focusing on specimens of discourse where criticism assumes a flagrantly bucolic persona Archeologies of Invective investigates hitherto little acknowledged contexts of irony aggressivity and vilification After considering briefly Lucilius and Horace the author evaluates such diverse figures as Poggio Bracciolini Quevedo Dunbar Poe and Mencken before proceeding to sustained discussion of Goethe's Italian Journey Werther and the Invectiven In terms of prime time satiric virtuosity Byron's Don Juan recycles pastoral animus acting as a rogue like mirror text of the Schiller Goethe Xenien of the late 1790s Sidney's double sestina and Villon's Ballad of the Women of Paris are seen inaugurating the modern age while at the dawn of the avant garde Verlaine's Invectives sample Goethean and Villonesque attitude at a new level of research vulgarity Low and Highbrow outlaw and Philistine resurface in Wyndham Lewis's Arcadian perspective on the artist intellectual Poets Robert Frost and Theodore Enslin are seen reinvigorating the edgily agrest scene of invective in America Archeologies of Invective situates itself also with respect to a psychohistorical terrain altered states of consciousness reflecting Faustian transition the dislocation of the peasant class the empowerment of women as a heterological state within a state the advent of modern weaponry and the rise of alcohol whose genealogy becomes nothing short of a gin eology Stable notions of character give way to impersonal pantomimic terms of art such as caliber the hero is displaced by the wanderer thief madman and clown Not limiting itself to the literary canon Archeologies includes analyses of gangster films and sports legends in the context of Arcadian motivation Finally Eisenhauer places Philip Roth's American Pastoral within the arc of 19th century pastoral fiction locating a prosaic Nowadays in which criticism is still inscribed as evidenced by Fish's explication of pastoral in the context of professional correctness
