Sontag Gertrude Stein Zora Neale Hurston Flannery O Connor Sylvia Plath Anne Sexton and others Passing into the present Sinead Moynihan, 2013-07-19 This book is the first full length study of contemporary American fiction of passing Its takes as its point of departure the return of racial and gender passing in the 1990s in order to make claims about wider trends in contemporary American fiction The book accounts for the return of tropes of passing in fiction by Phillip Roth Percival Everett Louise Erdrich Danzy Senna Jeffrey Eugenides and Paul Beatty by arguing meta critical and meta fictional tool These writers are attracted to the trope of passing because passing narratives have always foregrounded the notion of textuality in relation to the illegibility of black subjects passing as white The central argument of this book then is that contemporary narratives of passing are concerned with articulating and unpacking an analogy between passing and authorship Aimed at students and researchers it promises to inaugurate dialogue on the relationships between passing postmodernism and authorship in contemporary American fiction Cinema Studies Susan Hayward, 2022-09-30 Now in its sixth edition this essential guide for students provides accessible definitions of a comprehensive range of genres movements world cinemas theories and production terms This fully revised and updated book includes new topical entries that explore areas such as film and the environmental crisis streaming and new audience consumption diversity and intersectionality questions related to race and representation the Black Lives Matter movement and New Wave Cinemas of Eastern European countries Further new entries include accented exilic cinema border cinema the oppositional gaze sonic sound and Black westerns Existing entries have been updated including discussion of MeToo and more contemporary film examples have been added throughout This is a must have guide for any student starting out on this fascinating area of study and arguably the greatest art form of modern times Decolonizing Communication Studies Kehbuma Langmia, 2022-03-18 This volume examines the effects of the decolonization of communication studies It shows that the discipline has undergone a rapid paradigm shift since the launching of the Ferment in the Field special edition of the Journal of Communication in which scholars were called upon to rethink the field because of the crisis it was facing Desire and Mental Health in Christianity and the Arts David Torevell, 2023-08-21 This book considers the connection between the world of mental health in the twenty first century and the traditional concept of desire in Christianity and the Arts It draws parallels between the desire for rest from anxiety among mental health sufferers with the longing for peace and happiness in Religion and the Arts The author presents Biblical philosophical and theological insights alongside artistic ones arguing that desire for rest remains at the heart of spiritual living as well as mental health recovery The chapters draw from historical and contemporary voices including Plato Augustine of Hippo Julian of Norwich Gerard Manley Hopkins Simone Weil Samuel Beckett Tennessee Williams Jean Louis Chr tien Eric Varden and others The study demonstrates why longing continues to fascinate and grip individuals creative endeavour and society at large not least in the development of the understanding of mental health It is valuable for scholars and advanced students of Christian theology and those interested in spirituality and the arts in particular Black Theology and Ideology Harry H. Singleton, III, 2020-10-20 Combining the theological methods of Juan Luis Segundo and James H Cone Harry Singleton sheds new light on the impact of race on the origin and development of theology in America In Black Theology and Ideology Singleton appropriates Segundo's method of deideologization to argue that relevant theological reflection must expose religious political ideologies that justify human oppression in the name of God as a distortion of the gospel and counter them with new theological presuppositions rooted in liberation Singleton then contextualizes Segundo's method by offering the theology of James Cone as the most viable example of such a theological perspective in America Chapters are The Black Experience and the Emergence of Ideological Suspicion The Western Intellectual Tradition and Ideological Suspicion Hermeneutical Methodology and the Emergence of Exegetical Suspicion A New Hermeneutic and The Case for Indigenous Deideologization Harry H Singleton III Ph D is assistant professor of comparative religions and African American religion in the religion philosophy department at Benedict College Columbia South Carolina
